

TEMPLE OF THE GODS—This architectural masterpiece of an ancient culture is the 1,000-year-old Tajin Temple, mighty remnant of Mexico's Totonac civilization. Excavated and restored, the towering stone temple is located near Papantla on Mexico's east coast. The temple was the site of the Voladore Rain Dance, an ancient Totonac religious ceremony appealing to the gods for rain.

The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

● The old boy who said he had been a big game hunter in his earlier days—and there were none around who could refute his claim—told of the time, while in India, that he saw a ferocious tiger approach the water where some women were engaged in washing clothes. There he stood at a distance powerless, so he related. "But one woman," he said, "with great presence of mind, splashed some water in the animal's face and the tiger meekly turned away." As his hearers smiled in doubt at the big bore's story, the older said: "I can vouch for the truth of this story because after the incident I approached the water myself, met the tiger as he retreated, and as is my habit, stroked his whiskers. Gentlemen, those whiskers were wet."

● "Maybe it would be better for all of us to live in the past. At least it would be cheaper."

● There's absolutely no chance for Americans to go Communist, is the observation of one who has given the matter much thought. The main reason, as he sees it, is that when they'd hear the shout: "Workers Arise," the only thing it would mean to them is that it is time for the coffee break.

● Why doesn't the Department of Internal Revenue advertise: "Your money back if you are not satisfied?"

● It is estimated that more than 30 million Americans—about one out of every five persons strong enough to hold a fishing pole or cast a line into the water—will go fishing this year. This is most interesting but the statistic should go a step farther and advise what percentage of this more or less impressive group will catch fish.

● It's a smart politician who can keep a note of envy out of his voice while accusing his opponent of fooling the public.

● "I was walking through the woods last Sunday," related a certain well-known gentleman of our community, "when I ran right into a big rattlesnake that was poised to strike. Naturally, I was frightened but had enough sense left to make a leap for an overhanging branch 25 feet above the ground." One of the group listening, exclaimed: "Did you make it?" "Not on the way up," was his reply, "but fortunately I caught it on the way down."

● It's a confused world, it is true. Half of the adults tell the younger generation to go "find themselves" while the other half tells them "to get lost."

● Donald I. Rogers, business editor of the New York Herald-Tribune, has issued the following statement: "To any and all candidates who this year are seeking election to public office, I hereby serve the following notice: I will cast my ballot, positively pledge it, for whichever candidates do not promise me a single, solitary 'benefit'; conversely, I will vote against any who promise to improve my lot. I've been improved all I want to be and; by golly, my lot can't afford any further improvement."

● We have been asked by a few if the new illustration at the head of this column was a picture of the conductor of this pillar of enlightenment. Our reply has been: yes, but only from the neck down.

Late News

● The United States Saturday sent aloft Echo I, a balloon as big as a 10-story building. The big bag now orbiting the earth every two hours, was shot more than a thousand miles into space from Cape Canaveral, Fla. It could lead to new marvels in world communication according to scientists and military men. A test made shortly after launching bounced President Eisenhower's recorded voice by radio beam from California to the balloon and down again to New Jersey.

● Martial law has been declared in the strife-torn Congo, it was announced Wednesday. The proclamation, issued by Premier Lumumba was in defiance of the UN command in the Congo and followed the arrest by Congolese police of a number of Belgians and UN personnel. However the UN has showed no indication of bowing to Lumumba's demands.

● Capt. Joseph Kittinger soared nearly 20 miles above the earth in a balloon Tuesday, then parachuted safely back to the New Mexico desert below. This trip, which broke two world's records, convinced the Air Force officer that man would "never conquer space, although he may go there to live." The 103,900 foot altitude Capt. Kittinger attained in a gondola attached to the balloon was higher than any other balloonist had ever ascended, and his parachute jump to earth was the longest on record.

● Two fishing boat captains from nearby Oregon Inlet reported Tuesday of seeing a Russian trawler loaded with radar and sonar equipment 40 miles off the North Carolina coast. A spokesman for the Atlantic Fleet headquarters at Norfolk, Va., said "the Navy is aware of this trawler, which is in international waters. It is normal routine to keep track of any Russian vessels which are in waters near the continental United States."

● The United States Tuesday proposed that U.S. and Soviet plants producing nuclear weapon materials be closed down by one as a step toward disarmament. The Soviet Union, at the opening of the 82-nation disarmament commission, rejected it as a reshuffle of old U.S. proposals. U.S. delegation chief Henry Cabot Lodge offered two dramatic alternatives for insuring that nuclear weapon material be restricted to peaceful uses.

M. S. TV Cable Is Sold In Group Of Antenna Systems

Transaction Reported As Totalling $5,000,000; No Change Local Personnel

Jerrold Electronics Corporation of Philadelphia, has sold nine community antenna systems including the local system, and two microwave companies to H & B American Corporation of Los Angeles, Calif., for approximately $5,000,000.

Announcement of the largest single transaction in the community antenna industry was made by Milton J. Shapp, president of Jerrold, Charles L. Glett, newly appointed president of H & B American, and David E. Bright, H & B Board Chairman. The sale is subject to approval by Jerrold stockholders.

The sale of these systems, it was stated, is not in any way related to a recent anti-trust decision, which denied the government's request that Jerrold be divested of its community antenna systems. Under the decision, new community antenna system acquisitions will have to be approved by the Court, during a three year period starting April 2, 1959.

Shapp stated that the funds realized from this sale will be applied to an expansion and diversification program which contemplates acquisition of community antenna systems and electronic companies specializing in (1) industrial test and instrumentation equipment (2) audio and video communications systems, and (3) advanced electronic research.

Shapp made it clear that these acquisitions will be selected carefully and most likely will be acquired over a period of time. He added that Jerrold is in serious discussion with several electronic companies at the present time but that no announcement will be made prior to final agreement.

H & B American Corporation, with headquarters in Los Angeles, operates a number of divisions in diversified industrial activities. Included is Transcontinental Communications Systems, Inc., a newly formed subsidiary of H & B which will operate the newly acquired CATV systems. No change in local personnel is anticipated.

Other H & B Divisions include Big Boy Manufacturing Company, General Trading Company and Quick-Way Shovel Company. The appointment of Glett, a pioneer in the television industry, and the purchase of these systems are initial steps in an announced move by H & B American into electronic communications.

The nine community antenna systems sold by Jerrold in addition to the Florence system are located in Ukiah, Calif.; Ventnor, N. J.; Flagstaff, Ariz.; Pocatello, Idaho; Dubuque, Iowa; Richland, Walla Walla and Wenatchee, Wash.

Negro Drowns In Pickwick Tuesday

Henderson Thompson, 19-year-old youth of Route 1, Florence, was drowned on the Smithsonia side of Pickwick lake at about 3 p.m. Tuesday.

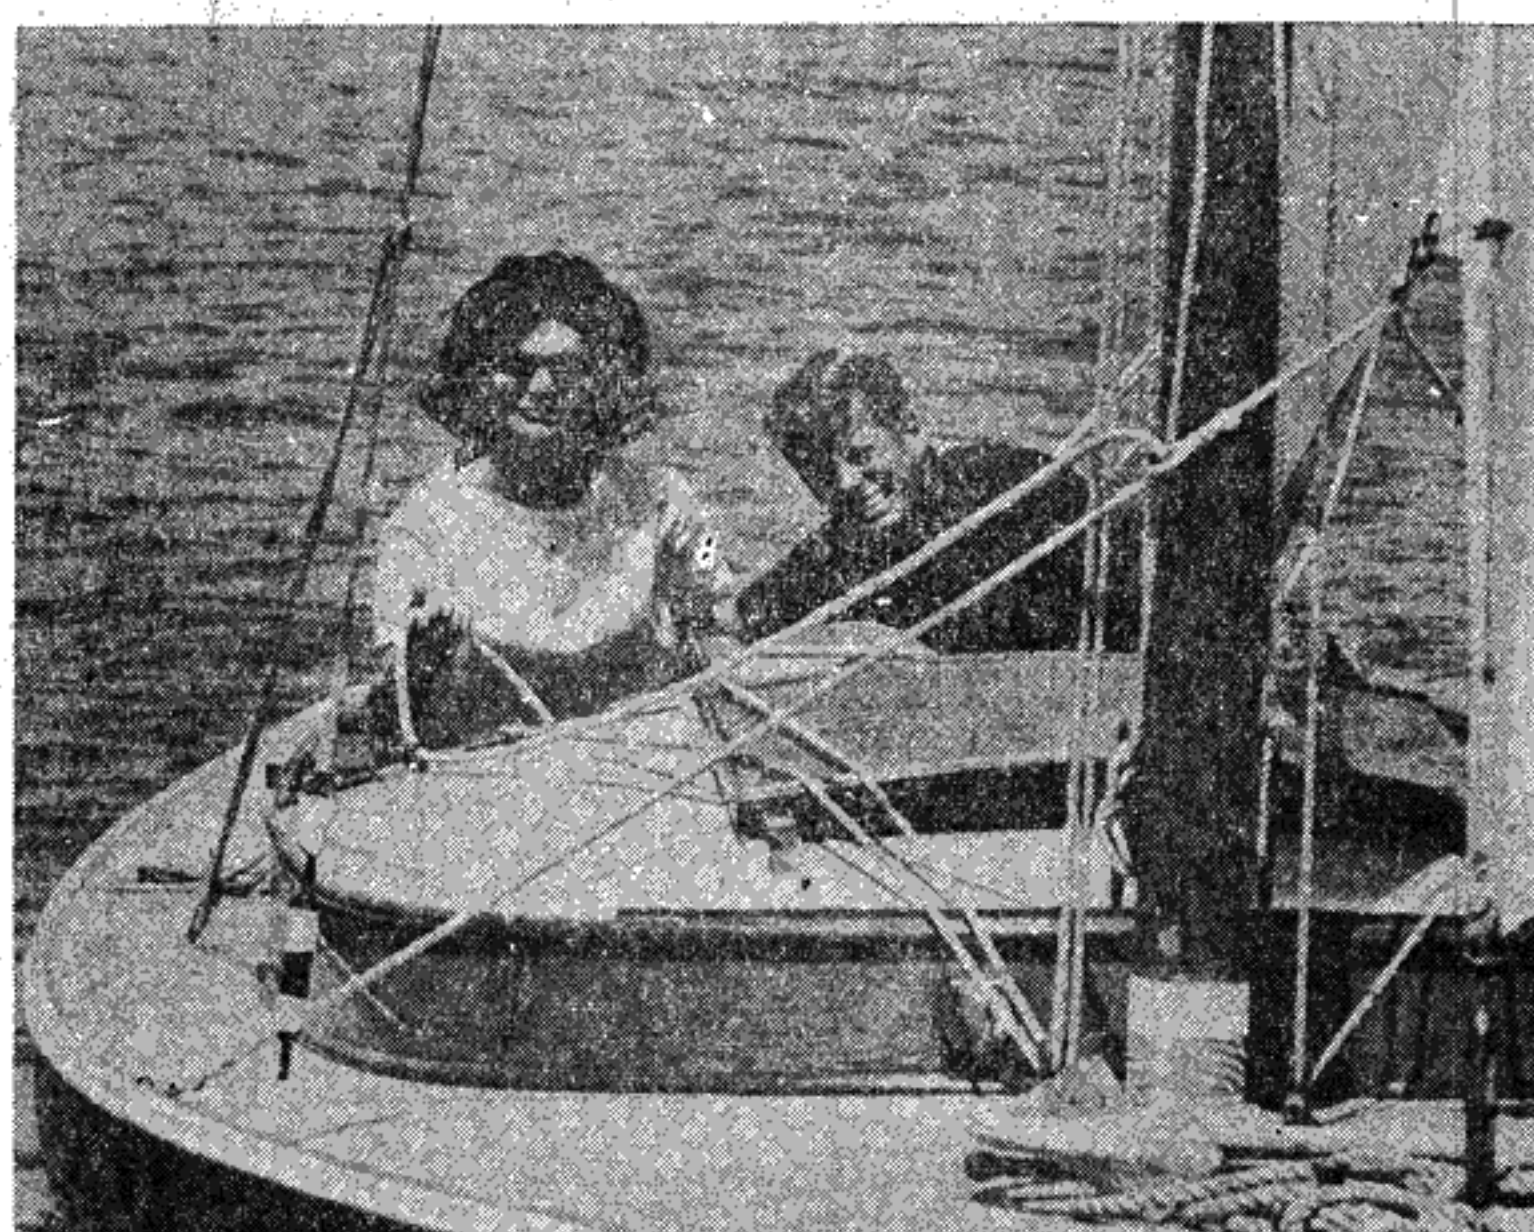

The boy, son of Alex Mose and Aurelia Thompson, was last seen by the group of swimmers he was with when he dived or fell from a rock, sticking up out of about four feet of water. Thompson was not missed until the group prepared to leave several minutes later. It was said he could not swim and had been sitting on the rock eating a piece of watermelon when he evidently dived into the water.

The body was recovered by Edward McIntyre, Route 2, Florence, about 4:30 p.m. after he and three others, including Lauderdale Sheriff Roy Lee Call, had spent almost an hour diving for it.

Mrs. C. N. Wiggins (Frances Craig) of Louisville, Ky., will arrive Monday for a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. B. H. Craig, Sr., 621 North Pine Street.

Report Made On First Year Shoals Literacy Program

President Sam Israel Tells Group Of Forty About Future Plans

A report on the first year's work of the Literacy Movement of Muscle Shoals and partial plans for the new year were discussed at a luncheon meeting at Holiday Inn, Florence, Tuesday by Sam Israel, president of the movement, who addressed a group of about 40.

The literacy program in this area began some 15 months ago, it was pointed out, when Miss Nell Pearson, a native Florentine, who was at that time director of the Baltimore Literacy Center, and Mrs. Lula Massey, also of Florence, formed a small group who were interested in work of that nature. This first meeting led to a workshop, which later brought on the literacy movement to the area.

Teaching was done person to person, with the use of charts, until Feb. 8, 1960, at which time through the Muscle Shoals TV Cable Company, and the Alabama Educational Network, teaching via television was made possible.

Last year there were some 110 students enrolled for TV courses, and by population proportion, the group was almost equally divided between Negroes and whites, Mr. Israel pointed out.

At this meeting, Mr. Israel called for more volunteer workers to teach, to recruit teachers and students, and to do other miscellaneous work in connection with the literacy program.

Those interested are asked to call the Literacy office at EMpire 3-2582, at an early date to allow ample time to prepare for the new series of workshops to begin Sept. 28.

U.S. Pilot Francis Gary Powers told a Soviet military trial court Tuesday that he was "sorry about the flight." At the outset of the trial Powers had admitted his guilt although he maintained he knew little about the camera and recording equipment carried in his plane.

Powers was questioned more than four hours before being turned over to his Russian lawyer, assigned to him by the Soviet authorities. Powers parents, who had talked to the Russian attorney said they were pleased with the defense. This attorney, Mikhail Griniov, had brought out that Powers was from a working class family and questioned Powers on how he felt about the effects of the U-2 incident. Powers said he had heard that his flight had resulted in cancellation of the summit conference and said he supposed "it had increased world tension." He added, "I am sorry I had anything to do with it."

He also testified that he had been treated "very nice" during the 117 days he has been held prisoner by the Soviets.

Powers is being tried on espionage charges and can be sentenced to 1-15 years in prison or to death. His trial was to be resumed today before the Military section of the Soviet Supreme Court.

The prosecutor, Roman A. Rudenko, tried to prove that Powers knew of the espionage nature of his work.

Powers admitted that he knew his work had to do with gaining intelligence of the Soviet Union. "It was a flight I was told to take," Pilot Powers told the Court. He told how he had progressed from an Airforce pilot to a pilot of the high-flying U-2. When asked if he could have refused he said, "no."

He said also that he had never flown over Soviet territory before and had been assured that it was "absolutely safe" to fly over the Soviet Union.

Powers parents who flew to Russia last week are present at their son's trial.

Mayor E. F. Martin Asks Re-Election

Splendid Record Cited By Board Chairman As Future Plans Outlined

Mayor Ellie F. Martin today announces his candidacy for reelection to the Florence Board of City Commissioners subject to the action of the voters in the municipal election Monday, Sept. 19.

Mr. Martin is well-known to every citizen of Florence as the result of his many contributions to the welfare and growth of the community during the years he has been a member of the Commission and ex-officio mayor. Elected to his present term as mayor in 1957, Mr. Martin's record in office is one that has received the commendation of not only the citizens he has served but officials and community leaders throughout the State.

Since taking office in October 1957, some of the finest progress in the history of Florence has taken place. During that time the City's operations have been streamlined to such an effective degree that over $25,000 annually is being saved and the financial condition of the City has been improved and placed on a sound basis. This has been repeatedly reflected in the low rate of interest obtained in the various financial transactions recorded during this period.

Of special interest is the contributions made by Mayor Martin in his efforts for the present expansion of the facilities of the Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital. This $2,000,000 expansion in which the County, City and Hospital Board have been engaged for the past 18 months will give our community one of the finest hospitals in the State. To this has been added the expansion of Mitchell-Hollingsworth Annex where, today, the construction of an addition costing $135,000 is in progress.

Also, the Coliseum, which is a splendid asset, was completed within the past 12 months in conjunction with the County and State at a cost of $200,000. Mayor Martin's interest in the construction of such a facility to serve the community stretches back over many years.

Other improvements by the City administration under Mayor Martin's guidance, include the construction of the Negro Recreation center at a cost of $40,000; the purchase of a new garbage collection system, that will render a much improved service, will be in operation within 60 days; additional new equipment has been purchased for the fire and street departments; a new garage has been added for the street department where all maintenance work is being conducted at a substantial savings; property for a new recreation center at Weeden Heights has been purchased and plans are on the drawing board for the new center; new recreation park and picnic area will be opened Labor Day adjoining the present Recreation Center on Royal Avenue; many miles of new streets have been opened and improved and several miles of sanitary sewerage lines have been laid.

A building program aggregating more than $3,300,000 has been undertaken by Florence State College, with three projects already under construction. These are a students' union building, a women's dormitory to house 60 students, and a men's dormitory with accommodations for 224. The total cost of these projects is estimated at $1,365,000.

These expansions will come none too soon at Florence State as indications point to a heavy enrollment in September with enrollment curtailed at around 1800. More than 600 high school graduates have already made formal application for admission, it was stated.

In the planning stage is the new science building to cost $718,000 and financed from the college's share of the $100,000,000 state bond issue authorized at a recent session of the Legislature. Other buildings to be built from these funds will include a new Kilby Laboratory school, an auditorium to seat 1500, and an addition to Collier library that will double its facilities.

Students Union Building

The student union building is to be located between Keller and O'Neal halls on the site of the home of the late Dr. James K. Powers, a former president of the institution. It will be a modern air-conditioned building with kitchen and dining facilities, meeting rooms for student organizations, several small dining rooms, a snack bar, book store, phone exchange, post office, lounge and large lobby with television sets, reading tables, and other facilities. Provision for air-conditioning at a later date will be provided.

Women's Dormitory

The women's dormitory will be a 3-story structure and will be located between O'Neal and Powers Hall across Wesleyan Avenue from the Student Lodge and overlooking the proposed site of the new auditorium. It will be completely modern and contain a small kitchen and dining facilities for small parties. It will have apartment facilities for the dorm social director.

Men's Dormitory

The men's dormitory will be located on the north side of Circular Drive opposite the speech and hearing center, with the main entrance facing the junction of Circular Drive and Wesleyan Avenue. It will be five stories of brick, concrete and steel and designed to house 224 men students. It will have an elevator, lobby, study room and lounges and an apartment for the social director. It will be designed for the installation of a cooling system at a later date, although initial provision has not been made for air-conditioning.

Both dormitory buildings are to be completed in time for occupancy early in 1961, it was stated.

Ralph E. Whitaker, former resident of Florence who now makes his home in Asheville, N.C., spent last week in the city renewing old friendships and viewing the progress made in the community in the 30 years since he moved his residence.

Cheating Should Be Stamped Out

Eighty-six students were caught cheating at the University of Alabama, two were expelled and eighty-four given disciplinary probation. Offenses included selling tests and entering professors' offices in search of test questions, according to a report issued by the University.

Certainly the University of Alabama officials could not foresee such a thing happening and certainly they could not be blamed. The fact that it did happen however points an accusing finger at what is happening to the home life of our young people. Somewhere along the line a lack of parental discipline and a lack of parental interest is paying a questionable dividend.

When will we learn that just sending a boy or a girl to school is not solving the problem? Certainly they should go to college but they should go with a purpose or stay at home. In this age of specialization there is no place for the playboy. He interferes seriously with those who are trying to make the grade and such wholesale cheating as this recent University of Alabama episode is demoralizing to the good students to say the least.

If such a thing is going on at the University of Alabama it is going on in other colleges. Alabama officials are to be commended for their efforts in stamping it out and certainly other colleges should do likewise. Education is a serious matter and those who go to school to get it should not be exposed to those who don't care enough to work for it.

A Warning We Must Heed

John H. Stambaugh, Vice-Chancellor of Vanderbilt University, said recently that there are two basic dangers confronting democracies today . . . danger from without and danger from within.

He described the first as Communist ideological and economic penetration. The second . . . the loss of our individual freedoms by a willingness to let the central government be all things to all people.

"If we use our resources positively and wisely," Dr. Stambaugh points out, "we have within the framework of free enterprise capitalism all the tools necessary to demonstrate to the world the fallacy of the Communist doctrine of absolute economic and social control by government."

"Surely, the system which permits our 6 percent of the world's population to produce and consume 40 percent of the world's goods can win this struggle. This system can win, if its exponents practice what they preach while investing our capital abroad and trading throughout the world. It can win if we refuse Government subsidies and protection, welcome competition and support the sovereignty of the market. It can win the struggle with Communism if its people have the will."

"It is the second danger which is the more frightening, the danger from within. Among our citizens, an attitude of dependency on Washington has developed. This trend toward 'Let Uncle Sam do it' argues in effect that only Federal bureaucrats and their intellectual associates are wise enough to tell us how we attain 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.' We have come to depend on the Central Government to finance many of our responsibilities which we should assume in the home or at the city and State level. While doing so, the Federal Government inevitably lays down the rules of the game. This trend can lead only to the weakening of the American family and of our State and local governments and hence to destruction of the Federal system."

"If we permit our system to be destroyed, not only will the lessons of history be reaffirmed but Communist Chief Khrushchev will indeed have been a prophet when he said to five U.S. Senators, 'I prophesy that your grandchildren in America will live under socialism.'"

All thoughtful people must agree that if our system is to survive we must learn to understand that democracy is more difficult to maintain than to attain. Only by our individual efforts can we be sure that the lessons of history do not catch up with us. Each time Government assumes responsibility for our personal economic and social welfare, we take another long stride away from those principles which have permitted us through individual initiative, to become the most privileged people on earth.

Conversation Via Satellite

A telephone call through space Friday established the first two way conversation via an artificial satellite. Our people have the right attitude and with the basis of broad leadership available in Florence and Lauderdale County, we have the tools with which to work out a glorious future. ## Mars Hill School To Open Sept. 2

Splendid Growth Noted By Local Institution; Enrollment Increased

Mars Hill Bible School has set its opening date for Friday, Sept. 2, at which time the school will mark its 14th year as an accredited elementary and high school.

Mars Hill is operated by members of churches of Christ as a private non-profit organization, with its purpose to offer Bible teaching and moral and spiritual training along with a high quality of academic training to the young people of this area.

The school is located four miles north of downtown Florence on the site of an earlier school operated from 1871 to 1888 by the late T. B. Larimore. It now has 500 applications for admission from students for the approaching school term, which indicated an increase of 30 over last year's enrollment.

The school's physical plant includes four frame buildings which house the elementary school and a two-year-old modern brick high school building. Future plans call for a new elementary building, a cafeteria and gymnasium.

Since the school's existence, some 6,000 students from Colbert and Lauderdale counties have been served with some 350 graduating from high school. More than 50% of Mars Hill graduates have enrolled in colleges, the majority attending Freed-Hardeman College, Henderson, Tenn., and to David Lipscomb College, of Nashville.

According to the charter of the school, the seven-member board has legal control of the property. A president is appointed by the board to employ personnel and operate the school. Ralph Snell, who has been with Mars Hill since its beginning, currently serves as president.

Claude Lewis, minister of the Mt. Zion Church of Christ and chorus director in the school, serves as vice president.

Teenagers Told To Finish School

Teenage boys and girls were urged today by Ralph B. Williams, Director of the Alabama Department of Industrial Relations, to return to school this fall and finish their education.

"Many of you have worked this summer and I hope you found your job profitable and instructive. But, let me urge you not to become so fond of that paycheck that you fail to return to school this fall and complete your education," Williams said.

Williams pointed out that young people dropping out of school have a harder time finding jobs, suffer more prolonged periods of unemployment, are paid less, and promoted more slowly than their friends who finish school. He said that figures available to his department show that in the 1960's, 70% of new young entrants into the labor force will be high school graduates or better.

"Jobs with a future for you require more basic education than ever before," the Director told young people.

ers have been installed during the past two years; the new perimeter road skirting Florence West, North, and East is assured and construction will be started in conjunction with the State early next year, which will relieve the traffic congestion that now exists in this rapidly growing community; the construction of the new modern Burrill-Slater High School will be completed this fall and a new elementary school for the Riverview area is on the drawing board and being rushed.

It has been shown throughout the years that possibly the main objective of Mayor Martin for the good of the City is supplying more and better schools and recreational areas for the youth of the community; to this he is dedicated. "Our youth are our greatest asset," Mr. Martin said.

In announcing his candidacy for reelection to the Board of City Commissioners, Mayor Martin said that it has been his pleasure to serve the City as its mayor and that it has been his purpose throughout his term to do everything possible to improve the administrative work so that the most for the dollar could be obtained. He said that, in the rapid expansion now underway, it has often taxed the efforts of the commission to keep up with the progress being made but that he felt that many improvements that will serve for years to come have been added and that plans call for a continued effort on the part of each and every department to keep abreast of the times.

Mayor Martin, in discussing his entry in the race for reelection, said that he felt that this campaign will give him the opportunity to discuss with the citizens, the many things that are in the making for the betterment of our City and that he looks forward with much interest to discussing these things with the voters.

New Departments

Two departments, the guidance department and a course in mechanical drawing, were added to the city system last year that have contributed much to the program.

The guidance program has proven a great benefit in helping to locate boys' and girls' talents and abilities and urging them to achieve greater heights in education, while the mechanical drawing

The laying of an eleven-hundred foot submarine telephone cable under the waters of Shoals Creek last Thursday morning was accomplished by a Southern Bell Telephone Company crew in approximately 15 minutes. The 200-pair capacity cable will provide telephone service to people living in the vicinity of Killen, Robbins Beach and other areas adjacent to the new Jackson Highway. It is the latest type underwater armored cable and is produced in the company's Chicago plant. It is designed to give 20 years or more of maintenance-free service.

While the actual laying of the cable took only a short time the project had been in the planning stage for some five months. It was rigged on a pontoon of oil drums and pulled across the stream some 60 feet downstream from the bridge by a winch truck anchored near the west bank. As the cable moved across it sank by its own weight to the creek bottom. The cost of laying the cable was estimated at $9,000.

Forrest Brice, manager of the Florence Branch, said the purpose of the cable was to give relief to people in the above areas and that a larger cable from Florence will be connected to the new cable sometime in 1961 in keeping with the company's rapidly expanding service.

The laying of the cable was planned and supervised by J. O. "Slim" Morgan, foreman, and Fred Scarbrough engineer.

department will be of great help to students interested in going to an engineering college.

Construction of an elementary school on Riverview Drive will begin this year, and with continued population increase, it is anticipated that a school building will be built to care for the children in the Forest Hills and Rose Park area. With enrollment at Coffee High school soon to reach its capacity in classroom space and facilities, the Board of Education is beginning to look for a new location for another city high school.

Afternoon Ceremony Unites Miss Barnes, Ralph Sturges

The altar of First Christian Church, Florence, was lighted by yellow tapers and decorated with arrangements of yellow gladioli and chrysanthemums against a background of greenery for the four o'clock wedding on Saturday afternoon August thirteenth, when Bonnie Barnes became the bride of Ralph Sturges, Jr.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Barnes of 560 Riverview Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Sturges of 237 Wilson Avenue.

The Reverend Glenn Brigran, minister of the church, and the Reverend Edward G. Mullen of Trinity Episcopal Church, were the officiating clergymen. Mrs. J. B. Cranwell, Jr., organist, and Mrs. Otto Speake and Miss Elsie Jean Longshore, vocalists, presented nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Fashioned of ivory slipper satin, her wedding gown was detailed with lace yoke delineated in seed pearls and extending to a small collar, and tiny, self-covered buttons at the front closing. Gathering fullness at the skirt back swept into a small train. Her only ornament was an heirloom pin, a gift from the bridegroom's aunt, and a Queen's crown held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. With her white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom, she carried a yellow-throated white orchid.

Miss Babs Waits of Talladega was her sister's maid of honor and yellow satin styled with bouffant overskirt of matching embroidered silk organza was her frock. Identically designed were the yellow-organza-over-taffeta dresses worn by bridesmaids Miss Kathy Freeman, Miss Barbara White, Miss Claudia Sturges and Miss Georgia Tomlinson. They wore matching tulle headresses and each carried a single long-stemmed yellow rose.

Betsy Morris of Jackson, Mississippi, also in yellow with a wreath of tiny flowers in her hair served as flower girl and Radford Morris, her brother, was ring-bearer.

Charles E. Jackson, III, of Athens and Larry Sturges, brothers of the bride and bridegroom, respectively, and John Trotti and David Olive were groomsmen. Ushers were Richard Headley and Gary Stephens.

Mr. Sturges chose his father as his best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barnes wore ice blue brocade taffeta and matching accessories and Mrs. Sturges, mother of the bridegroom, was in pink silk organza with small, matching hat embroidered with seed pearls. Cymbidium orchids fashioned their corsages.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes honored their daughter and her husband with a reception in the church's Fellowship Hall. Assisting with the courtesies were Mrs. Bryce Waits, Mrs. Fred Black, Mrs. Walter Stripling, Mrs. Thomas Morris, Mrs. Myron Waits, Mrs. Charles E. Jackson, Mrs. A. J. Green, Mrs. Arthur Kaufman, Mrs. Carson T. Smith, Mrs. William Presley, Mrs. Howard Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Jack Rose, Miss Ann Darby, Miss Anne Beadle, Miss Ann Evans and Miss Susan Jeter.

Leaving later for a New Orleans honeymoon, the bride wore a Fall floral cotton sheath with matching jacket. Her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet.

After September first, Mr. and Mrs. Sturges will be at home in Florence State College Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturges, Sr., entertained members of the bridal party, family members and out-of-town wedding guests following the rehearsal of wedding plans on Friday evening.

The family home was the setting for the buffet supper and pink blossoms decorated the party room and centered the table where about fifty guests were served.

At noon, Saturday, Mrs. A. J. Greene of Sheffield, aunt of the bride, was hostess at The Town Club to the bridesmaids' luncheon, including in her hospitality the mothers of the bride and groom, Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Sturges, and Mrs. Art Kaufman of Athens, also an aunt of the bride.

The bridal colors of yellow and white were echoed in the flowering background and in the gladioli centerpieces which decorated the two tables-for-six in the club's Old South Room.

Miss Barnes' gifts to her attendants, single cultured pearls on chains of gold, were presented at this time.

Jean Longshore's Wedding Plans Told

When Jean Longshore and her fiancé, William Dale Johnson, exchange nuptial vows in Highland Baptist Church on Saturday afternoon, August twenty-seventh, she will be preceded down the aisle by her sister, Mrs. George Broadbent, who will arrive from Merchantville, New Jersey, to serve as honor attendant.

Others in the tableau will include Miss Bonnie Barnes, Miss Mary Byrd, Miss Kathy Freeman, Mrs. Elizabeth Susan McCutcheon, bridesmaids, and Susan Mullins, flower girl.

Mr. Johnson has asked his brother-in-law, Charles Mullins, to be his best man and ushers will be Melvin Lynn Butler of Tuscaloosa, Billy Wallace, Henry King and William Clinton Longshore.

Judge Herman Knox Longshore will give his cousin in marriage following nuptial selections presented by Miss Bettye Lynne Miller, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Festus Robertson of Louisville, Kentucky, (the former Barbara Fike of Florence), vocalists. The Reverend Dr. L. E. Kelley, minister of the church, will read the service.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt Longshore will honor their daughter and her husband with a reception in the church parlors immediately after the half past four vows.

First in the series of prenuptials planned in honor of the bride-elect was the shower given recently in the Boyce Crittenden home on Chisholm Road.

Included with Mrs. Crittenden in the hostess group were Mrs. Robert Trent, Mrs. Joe McMackin, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. C. E. Stewart, Mrs. M. C. Hensley, Mrs. Edgar Young, Mrs. H. O. Vastell, Mrs. J. W. Phillips and Mrs. W. H. Stewart.

A fitted pink satin cloth overlaid with pink covered the teatable and pink asters and stock filled a silver bowl to fashion the centerpiece.

Miss Longshore wore a tulle dress of white cotton with appliques of organdie detailing the full, deep-hemmed skirt. Greeting guests with her were her mother, her fiancé's mother, Mrs. James Edgar Johnson, and his sister, Mrs. Charles Mullins.

Miss Linda Belue, Fiance, Plans Told

A late afternoon ceremony in North Wood Methodist Church will mark the Saturday, August twenty-seventh vows of Linda Belue and Larry Montgomery, and the Reverend E. M. Barnes, minister of the church, will be assisted in reading the nuptial service by the Reverend Edwin Belue, uncle of the bride.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Belue, the bride will be given in marriage by her father. Mrs. William Montgomery and Mrs. Robert Perry will light the wedding tapers and attendants will include Mrs. Donald Moore, matron of honor, and Miss Ann Little and Miss Sara Weaver, bridesmaids. Little Rebecca and Bernice Glasscock will serve as flower girls and Freddie Pitts, cousin of the bridegroom, will be ring bearer.

Musical selections will be presented by Rhoe Bove, organist, and Mrs. David Rhodes, vocalist.

The bridegroom has asked his father to be his best man and ushers are to be two brothers, Charles and William Montgomery, and Donald Moore.

Immediate after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Belue will be reception hosts at the family home on Winona Street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews (Lucille Gilbert) and sons, Barry and John, of Corpus Christi, Tex., are guests of her father, James B. Gilbert, and Mrs. Gilbert, at their cottage on the lake.

Arriving last week end from Tuscaloosa were Mr. and Mrs. John Clement, Jr. (Helen Sedenquist) and little daughter, Laura, to be guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sedenquist and Mr. and Mrs. John Clement.

Twilight Vows Said By Fana Berry, David Smith

In a late afternoon ceremony in Stony Point Church of Christ, Fana Jeanette Berry became the bride of David Delano Smith on Friday, August twelfth, with Joe Johnson, minister of Salem church, officiating in the six o'clock service following nuptial selections presented by Sue and Don Harrison.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Norman Berry of Cloverdale Road, Florence, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Otha Keith Smith of Collinwood, Tennessee.

Against a background etched with greenery, the altar was decorated for the occasion with standards of white gladioli flanked by branched candelabra of burning white tapers. Margaret Smith, sister of the bridegroom, and Elaine Berry, cousin of the bride were candlelighters.

Mrs. Bruce Phelps and her sister's honor attendant. She wore an aqua frock of silk organza over taffeta designed with full, puffed sleeves, rounded neckline and bouffant skirt and the bridesmaid and 'matron, Miss Bail Gallaher and Mrs. Michael Lowery, wore identical frocks in yellow. Matching flat bows were their headresses and their bouquets of daisies were also of a matching shade.

Mr. Berry gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown of white lace over taffeta was distinguished by a fitted bodice with small collar re-embroidered with pearls and sequins and long sleeves that petal-pointed over the hands. The skirt was detailed with a pleated ruffle of tulle which added fullness and swept into a chapel train. A cap of matching lace caught her fingertip-length veil of silk illusion and with her white Bible she carried a white orchid showered with tuberoses.

Mrs. Berry, mother of the bride, was attired in deep blue lace with white accessories and Mrs. Smith, the bridegroom's mother, wore mauve lace. White carnation corsages were their flowers.

Ted Reeves was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Gary Gallaher and Jerry Howard Daniels.

A reception at the Berry home followed the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. Clyde Wallace, Mrs. Dumont Hanback, Mrs. Norman Berry, Mrs. Raymond Berry and Miss Bonnie Wilkes.

Before leaving for their honeymoon, the bride changed to a transition cotton of blue with matching accessories and the orchid from her bouquet was her corsage.

After August twentieth they will be at home at 309 Walnut Street.

A family dinner on last Sunday marked this year's occasion; the Florence home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Morgan, the latter a niece of the honorees, the setting.

A flurry of small, informal courtesies welcomed Mrs. Frank Johnstone (the former Nell Keenum) when she arrived from Atlanta for a recent visit with her mother, Mrs. C. H. Keenum, at the family home on Kendrick Street.

Pleasantly nostalgic was the morning gala hostess last mid-week by Mrs. Clyde Anderson (one of the five charming sisters) at her home on Lelia Street. Thirty-odd longtime friends were included in the hospitality and many items of conversational interest were exchanged over the rims of coffee cups.

Yellow and white blossoms lent additional charm to the party rooms where Mrs. Harry Phillips and Mrs. Palmer Howard assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Johnstone returned to Atlanta on Monday.

THE SPILLWAY

STAR LIGHT ... STAR bright ...
Watchin' is such fun ...
We hoped to see a satellite ...
And sud'nly ... WE SAW ONE ...

Wyatt and Helen Simpson while enjoying their dinner at a popular dining spot Monday night were alerted to the appearance overhead of a satellite as it streaked through the sky painting beautiful patterns in its path ... and for several seconds they and other diners stood in awe of the phenomenon as it wrote history for all to read.

SCHOOL BELLS RING EARLY for some ... actually it isn't the school bell that vivacious Carol Cunningham hears ... it's the wedding bell ... ringing for friends ... She's on her way to Greeley (go West young man) Colorado to attend a wedding ... then to Rapid City (South Dakota) to be a member of a Gamma Phi Beta sorority sister's bridal party.

THEN TO SCHOOL at the University of Colorado ... Lots of packing and repacking ... specially when you add the packing for that dreamy Auburn week end (last week) as a guest of the young Foster Barnwell ... for a Kappa Sigma fraternity rush party.

THAT WAS FUN ... LET'S DO IT AGAIN ... must be what Lula Massey and May Galliford said after completing their 1958 globe-trotting ... 'Cause they're off again ... this time to Tokyo to be teachers ...

Lula says she and May ... of Portsmouth (Virginia) and author of a travel book ... "Full Circle" ... fell in love with beautiful Japan on their last trip ... Now they're thrilled to have received requests to "please come back" ... They'll teach conversational English for a year ... at Keisen Jo Gakuen ... which is a high school and junior college for girls.

JUNE BRIDES HAVE NOTHING ON AUGUST BRIDES ... we used to think that June was the favorite month for weddings ... but we're beginning to decide that it's losing out to August ... which seems to be one continuous wedding ... sort of interrupted by showers and teas ... And the 27th is an especially popular day.

Our favorite-bridal-advisor tells us she has three of those "most important events" to set smoothly in motion ... Jane Harris ... Linda Belue ... and Lynn Jordan all have plans for that day ... and ... now that we think about it ... so does lovely Jean Longshore ... We think it's nice that June's getting some competition.

AND IT'S A "WELCOME INTO THE FAMILY" for (Doctor) Henry and Nell Cheney's newest grandbaby ... which is natch ...

the most precious thing alive ... and all of five weeks old ... "Also-rans" in this visit are papa (that other Henry Cheney) ... mamma and brother Jeff ...

NOTICED THAT PRESTON AND LAURA REEDER have been enjoying each other's company on the golf course lately ... We think it's a most convenient arrangement when both hubby and wife are subject to "greens fever" ... INCIDENTALLY ... congratulations to Russell Lewis and Bobbie Zickler ... winners in Sunday's scotch foursome at the country club ...

WE'RE GOING TO MISS Virginia Crews ... this ambitious young lady is going to Florida to combine two big firsts ... a teaching position and life away (and far away at that) from home ... says Virginia ... And she's right ... we can't even spell it ... But our best wishes go with her anyhow ...

SOON HOME ... FROM A GRAND TOUR ... will be Carter Brown and "Binkey" Matthews ... after a summer abroad ... we hear that they found it just as interesting ... and maybe more fun ... to leave the tour ... and do a little exploring of their own every once in a while ... We're glad to see them back ...

WE DO ADMIRE that hardy sunflower that we saw growing ... right on Wood Ave. in the midst of all those beautiful homes ... and manicured lawns ... it's most delightfully incongruous ...

A FLURRY OF partying here 'n' there ... punctuated by hours of visitin' with family members and friends ... featured the recent visit to the old home town of Frances (Moore) and (Major) Earl Jackson and (their handsome trio of sons) Jack and David and Ray ...

Smiles (those remembering-the-fun kind) continue to wreath the faces of (Frances' mom and dad) Kate and Raymond Moore and (Major Earl's pop) Earl Jackson ... The five delightful guests hied themselves away on Monday ... with their new home in Orlando, Fla., as their destination (their household belongings were sent from Montgomery the day they came to Florence) ... Their promises (and we hope we weren't being spoofed) of more frequent jaunts in our direction were music to our ears ...

THIS SMALL WORLD ... In Rome, Italy ... on their present Old World tour ... Lucia Reeder and Glad Shepard were pleasuring themselves to an out-of-this-world evening of opera ... when Glad was attracted by the voice of a conversant with her next-seat neighbor ... and found herself face-to-face with a (Louisville) Kentuckian whom she has met on occasions of his visits with Mary Evans and (his Florence brother) Ted Hubbuck ...

"NOTHING COULD BE FINER than to be ..." Cliff Hare Stadium at Auburn U on August 26th ... when a goody group of our favorites 'mongst the local college set will march in the mortar board brigade ... Madam's deep curtsy to PhD'er John Locker and to AB degree winners Jim George and Charlie Montgomery (School of Chemistry) ... Jimmy Dorris (School of Engineering) ... Scott Stringer (Industrial Management) ... and to Harris Burns (BS in Business Administration) ... We'll be a-watchin' as you invade your chosen fields ...

A NEWDRIFT OF INTEREST centers 'round an early September wedding which will take place in Bolton, Miss., hometown of (bride-elect) Catherine Bronson ... with handsome-and-affable Gene Wood Parker as the "gentleman in the case" ... As many Spillway readers know ... Gene is the grandson of (Doctor) Arthur Wood and the late (former Florentine) Ann Powers Wood of Clinton, Miss. ... and was guested in Florence earlier this week by (his great aunts) Pearl Moody and Elizabeth Long and Louie Rossmassler ... Invitations to the I DO's (planned for September second) are being happily received by family friends ...

AND NOW ... CHERIO ... until more news comes through the Spillway ...

Southern Flights Being Restored

Air Terminals Could Be Closed If Order Given Against Crossing Lines

Leonard Layfield, Southern Airways station manager of the Muscle Shoals Airport, announced Wednesday, August 10, that effective August 20, Flight 257 from Nashville to New Orleans would be reinstated and that Flight 250 leaving New Orleans for Nashville and arriving at the Muscle Shoals Airport from New Orleans would be reinstated on Sunday, August 21.

Southern flights have been curtailed at the local airport since June 5, due to the pilot strike against Southern in a wage and hourly working agreement.

Flight 257, from Nashville to New Orleans, will arrive at Muscle Shoals at 6:02 p.m. and depart at 6:06 p.m. for Columbus and Jackson, Miss. Flight 250, leaving New Orleans for Nashville, will arrive from New Orleans, Jackson and Columbus at 10 a.m. and will depart for Nashville at 10:05.

With reinstatement of the two flights, Southern will be operating four of its authorized 11 flights locally.

On Sunday and Monday, Aug. 14-15, Southern offered round-trip service between Memphis and Mobile and will also begin round-trip service between Memphis and Nashville via Jackson, Miss., Aug. 20-21.

Southern will have reinstated by Aug. 21 service to every station served prior to the strike and will be operating 33 of the original 60 flights. According to Graydon Hall, vice president of the firm, Southern has employed 115 pilots and it is estimated that they will have replaced all the striking pilots by Aug. 22.

Meanwhile the striking pilots were reported to be awaiting announcement of a date to implement an order authorizing pilots of 13 airlines not to cross their picket lines. The action could virtually tie up a number of air terminals in the Southeast, it was stated.

Three popular courses have recently been added by Larimore Business College to its lists: the Nancy Taylor Charm and Finishing Course; the IBM Key Punch Course and the Comptometer Course, with nation-wide employment service.

Other courses offered, in addition to the above listed, include accounting, shorthand, typewriting, and other office machines, which include the Monroe Posting Machine, calculators, adding machines, and dictaphone. ## Pfc Jackson With Airborne Division

Army Pfc Richard L. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Jackson, Route 1, Killen, is participating with other personnel from the 101st Airborne Division in the current Exercise Bright Star at Fort Bragg, N. C.

A massive airborne assault involving 30,000 troops is one phase of the Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) exercise. This mass air-drop surpasses in numbers any similar drop made during World War II or the Korean War.

Jackson is regularly assigned as a driver in Company E of the division's 50st Infantry at Fort Campbell, Ky.

The 24-year-old soldier entered the Army in May 1959 and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Jackson attended Rogersville High School and was employed by the Benrus Watch Company, New York, N. Y., before entering the Army.

MORTON TO BE RETURNED BY FLORENCE OFFICERS

Lauderdale County Sheriff Roy Lee Call and Deputy Raymond May left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Calif., where authorities are holding Kenneth Morton, of Florence, for extradition.

Warrants filed here against Morton include several charges of false pretense.

In 1954 only 11.9% of hay and cropland pasture in the Southeast was fertilized.

Students Caught Cheating At UA

An eight week investigation into examination irregularities at the University has resulted in the permanent expulsion of two students and suspension for two years or disciplinary probation for the remainder of their academic career for eighty-four others.

The announcement by President Frank A. Rose concluded an investigation of cheating that came to light during the last days of Spring Semester Finals.

The six-man committee that studied the evidence reported that there were several illegal entries of professor's offices for the purpose of securing examinations and that were cases of students buying and selling tests.

Marshall, Green In Sub Exercises

David A. Marshall, aviation machinist's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Marshall of 923 Dixie Ave., Florence, serving with Helicopter Anti-Submarine Squadron 8, and H. F. Newton of Lexington, serving aboard the destroyer USS Braine, took part in a recent joint Canadian-American anti-submarine warfare exercise off the West Coast of the U.S. and Canada.

Two American anti-submarine warfare groups headed by two aircraft carriers joined with six Royal Canadian destroyer escorts and supporting supply ships to provide the seagoing forces. Air units from Whidbey Island, Wash., Alameda and North Island, Calif., also joined in the operation.

The exercise was designed to train both nations' anti-submarine forces and to perfect techniques used in this type of warfare.

Longest Telephone Call Ever Made

A long distance telephone call was placed recently that traveled around 480,000 miles.

Scientists from Bell Telephone Laboratories were doing the calling and using the moon to bounce the telephone signals from New Jersey and California.

The experiment, witnessed by members of the press, was the first public demonstration of a two-way "Moon-Bounce" conversation.

The successful demonstration was another step in the aligning and testing of radio transmitters and receivers designed for use in satellite communication experiments. These experiments will be conducted in cooperation with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

The successful completion of these experiments would be a major step toward the eventual establishment of a satellite communication network to carry telephone calls and television programs throughout the world.

A plan for such a network was outlined recently by the Bell Telephone System in testimony filed with the Federal Communications Commission. The plan calls for about 50 active satellites in random polar orbits at an altitude of 3,000 miles. Such a system, say Bell officials, could provide communications facilities between the United States and "all areas" of the world.

In last week's demonstration of the "Moon-bounce" conversation, the signal from Holmdel traveled at a speed of light but still took almost three seconds to complete the trip of nearly one-half million miles to Goldstone, California. It took the same amount of time for the signals from California to New Jersey.

Revisions Made In Farm Housing

The U.S. Department of Agriculture announced today a change in regulations governing farm housing loans made under Title V of the Housing Act of 1949.

Effective immediately a farmer who owns a farm that will annually produce for sale or home use at least $400 worth of commodities based on 1944 prices, if he meets other eligibility requirements, may be able to obtain a farm housing loan.

Previously to be eligible an applicant had to own a farm that would produce a substantial amount of the operator's income.

Farm housing loans are made by USDA's Farmers Home Administration and are used to construct and repair needed farm houses and farm service buildings. USDA said its experience demonstrates that there are farmers who can properly use and repay this type of credit but whose income from farming operations does not constitute a substantial part of their total income.

Other eligibility requirements for farm housing loans remain unchanged. These requirements are that the applicant lacks the resources needed to obtain credit elsewhere, be a citizen of the United States, and have sufficient income from farm and other sources to pay farm operating and family living expenses and meet payments when due on his debts.

To make the best cider use two or more apple varieties together.

TVA News Letter
From The Office Of Tennessee Valley Authority Knoxville, Tenn.

The average rate paid by home users of TVA electric power edged down to an alltime low in the fiscal year which ended June 30, TVA reported today.

This average was just under one cent a kilowatt-hour for customers in the TVA service area. Residential users of electricity across the Nation pay an average of about 2½ cents a kilowatt-hour.

Average annual use of electricity in homes served with TVA power also set a new record during the fiscal year—8,806 kwh. That is 15 times as much as was used in the average home in the area when TVA was established in 1933.

Residents of the TVA service area take advantage of electricity's uses in the home on a large scale. The 8,806-kwh consumption level here is nearly 2½ times the national average.

TVA has begun microfilming its large-size engineering records, on a trial basis. If this process is successful, more than five million TVA drawings and manufacturers' prints will be recorded on microfilm.

The possible saving in records storage space has not yet been determined at this stage of the experiment, but TVA said it would be "considerable."

In the microfilming process, all drawings will be photographed on filmstrips about an inch wide. One set of microfilm images will be mounted on IBM cards, prepared for mechanical handling so that drawings needed at a given time can be found quickly in the files.

Microfilm of drawings which are vital to TVA operations or to national defense will be stored in a special location outside of probable attack areas.

TVA has recently revised and reprinted 20 of its navigation charts for the Tennessee River reservoirs, sixteen small size charts (one inch equals one mile) and four large size charts, one inch equals a half mile).

The revised charts show changes in navigation aids, sailing lines, terminals, boat docks and launching ramps, and recreational areas. They cover portions of Kentucky, Pickwick, Wheeler, Guntersville, Chickamauga, and Watts Bar reservoirs.

Copies of the new charts are on sale at the TVA Map Library in Chattanooga, and at the TVA Maps and Engineering Records Section in Knoxville. The small charts sell for 20 cents and the large ones for 50 cents.

Rainfall and runoff for the Tennessee Basin, below normal the first half of the year, continued low in July. Average rainfall for the entire Basin was 3.32 inches, more than 1½ inches below the 70-year average for July.

Particularly low rainfall totals included .99 of an inch at Kentucky Dam, 1.24 at Wilson Dam and 1.38 at Hiwassee Dam. High spots were 8.39 inches at Nottely Dam and 5.95 inches at Boone Dam.

July runoff amounted to 1.03 inches for the upper Tennessee Basin (above Chattanooga), about one third of an inch below normal. Runoff in the lower Basin was .69 of an inch, compared to a normal 1.04 inches.

TVA announced award of the following contracts:

Colbert Steam Plant—Worthington Corporation, Cincinnati, stationary air compressor, $165,417; Blaw-Knox Equipment Division, Pittsburgh, steel floor grating and nosings for powerhouse, approximate total, $154,263.

Wilson Dam—Tennessee Valley Sand and Gravel Co., Sheffield, Alabama, indefinite quantity term contract for silica gravel for chemical production, approximate maximum total, $200,000.

Sunbeam Focus Week Program:
Mrs. Glenn Campbell, leader of the Sunbeam Band of the Baptist Church, presented her Sunbeams in a program on Wednesday evening.

A dramatization of the story of Moses by the children with Mrs. Campbell as reader and a Bible quiz game were the features. Other phases of the work were presented by Mrs. Campbell in a most impressive service. The entire church enjoyed refreshments in the basement after the program.

Garden Club:

An annual affair on the Rogersville Garden Club calendar is a picnic at some favorite outdoor spot, this year the place was Wheeler Park. A much needed rain on Thursday did not bring about a cancellation of plans but only dampened spirits a bit, and the group reported a delightful time as usual.

Come to Church for Services

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Proverbs	15	10
Monday	Psalms	53	1-2
Tuesday	Proverbs	22	24-35
Wednesday	Luke	17	33
Thursday	John	14	1
Friday	John	15	7-8
Saturday	Epistles	3	19-20

A desperate run... a frantic slide... the feel of the bag against your cheeks... the belated tag of the shortstop's glove. Then a voice, clear, certain... final!

And though the cheers may be laced with hoots and screams of disapproval, you're safe. And nothing can change that fact!

Equally dramatic — and far more important — is the adventure that brings earnest men and women into the Church.

There is a point when we realize the inertia of half-believing. We plunge forward desperately, leaving behind yesterday's skepticism, seeking frantically the Truth that promises meaning and purpose for our life.

Then there's the thrilling moment — the dust of worldly confusion still all around us — when we know in our hearts we have found our faith. And always, above the strains of the organ, even above the clamor of a world unconvinced, there is a Voice, clear, certain... final — confirming our Faith.

Year's Earning Shows Good Gain

International Minerals & Chemical Corporation, including their Florence Branch, reported a 21 percent gain in earnings on a 10 percent gain in sales for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1960.

Record-breaking sales totaled $123,870,000 compared with $112,-

560,000 last year, the previous peak. Net earnings were $7,481,000 or $3 per share on the 2,365,164 common shares outstanding, compared with $6,189,000 or $2.47 per share last year.

Thomas M. Ware, IMC president, said all divisions of the company operated profitably. Major earnings gains were contributed by the Agricultural Chemicals Division, which produces fertilizer ingredients, he said.

Trellis Tomatoes A Quality Fruit

Trellis-grown tomatoes are not new in Alabama. And some producers are raising a better quality fruit by using this method.

Cecil Smith of the Chandler Mountain area in St. Clair County planted six acres of Manalucie variety tomatoes last year and 10 acres this year. And Extension Horticulturist John Bagby says he followed the trellis method.

The farmer made his trellis by setting posts at 20-foot intervals and running a wire on them about five feet above the ground. He used a length of baling twine to run from the wire to the base of each tomato plant.

Bagby states that the purpose of trellising is to produce a better quality, cleaner tomato. Trellising also helps prevent rots that develop when the fruit comes in contact with the ground. The specialist adds that this method requires more labor than unstaked tomatoes but is compensated for by better prices for vine-ripened, good quality fruit.

PEACHES, WATERMELONS AND TURKEYS PLENTIFUL

Peaches, turkeys, watermelons, and summer vegetables are still plentiful at food markets this month.

Although most of the southern peach crop was marketed by the end of July, supplies from other regions of the country are heavy during August. The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates this year's peach crop at nearly 77 million bushels, or three per cent ## more than last year.

The early summer watermelon crop, three per cent larger than last year, is later than usual this year. And the USDA says this will cause a more than normal marketing overlap when the large late summer crop begins moving to market.

According to the USDA report, the number of turkeys marketed during August is expected to run about a sixth greater than last year.

Order Trees By September 1

Trees can put dollars in pocket-books.

More than a million acres of the commercial forest land in Alabama are bare of trees, according to Extension Forester Ike Martin. And about three million acres of scrub timber land aren't producing any income either. Martin says by planting better trees on this land, raw materials for wood products can be provided and land can be protected from soil erosion.

When planting seedlings, land owners set out the kind that grow well in their vicinity. Longleaf and slash pine grow well in South Alabama while both loblolly pine and yellow poplar do well throughout the state.

The Auburn forester says orders for forest trees are sent in by the first of September every year. It takes 1,000 seedlings per acre if they are set six by seven feet apart and 700 to 800 per acre at six by 10 feet.

Automatic Washer Frees Homemaker

The modern homemaker has been liberated from washday drudgery.

There are four different types of automatic washers on the market today, according to Elizabeth Bryan, Extension economist in home management. And many brands of these washers fill the appliance stores, but no one brand has all of the advantages. They vary from 30 to 45 minutes in the length of time required to run through an entire cycle. Total water used per cycle will range from 25 to 55 gallons, while the spinner speed is somewhere between 500 to 1100 revolutions per minute. And in hot water used per load, they vary from 10 to 30 gallons.

In choosing the type or brand of washer to buy, Miss Bryan says economical homemakers will check the tub capacity, total gallons of water used in the full cycle, number of rinses, the number of revolutions of the spinner per minute, the length of the washing cycle, the flexibility of the control dial, and the cost of the machine.

S. and Canada.

Milk Cancels Dental Cavities

Recent experiments with white rats show that consuming milk, chocolate milk, ice cream, and cheese may cancel out dental cavities, according to A. W. Jones, Extension marketing specialist.

Just-weaned female rats were used in a Harvard University test, and half of them were fed a diet that was heavy in certain carbohydrates which cause cavities, says Jones. The others were fed the same diet plus milk products. After 24 weeks the test rats were bred to male rats with a high susceptibility to cavities. When the test was repeated with the offspring, the result was that rats which had the high amount of milk and milk products in their diets had higher resistance to cavities.

LAUDERDALE COUNTY HUMANE SOCIETY

New 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>% interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new 3<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>% interest rate benefit me?
A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?
A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?
A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra <sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub>% from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?
A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?
A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?
A: No. The automatic <sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub>% increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?
A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?
A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).
H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?
A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?
A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?
A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?
A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.
