The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

Very seldom does this column enter into local politics, that is, endorse a candidate for city or county office. But we feel that it is important to the progress of the City of Florence that Mayor E. F. Martin be reelected in Monday's municipal election by an overwhelming majority. His two opponents are splendid gentlemen, we are certain, but the selection of a man to fill a post on the City Commission must be based on more tangible things. Mayor Martin, a part-time city official as are all our fine Commissioners, has the know-how, the ability, the leadership and the desire to be of service that sets him apart in this race. A growing city such as Florence must select the best possible man for the office to be filled Monday and we recommend that every voter in the city go to the polls and show this fine public servant our appreciation for the splendid leadership he has already given us and on whom we can count to lead us safely through the next three years. Florence has a potential voting strength of more than 8,000 votes. Let's for once turn out in full strength and give Mayor Martin the complimentary vote he so richly deserves.

Memory is what reminds you you've seen the face—but doesn't tell you the name.

Last Sunday afternoon we stood on the great New Wilson Dam lock and marveled at the wonderful engineering and construction job before us. As we walked around the huge installation, a small boat with outboard motor putt-putted up to the east lock gate and signaled to be locked through. In the little boat was a young man and, we presume, his wife and daughter. Following his signal, the U.S. Engineers Corp. went to work. Buttons were pressed, lights were lit and soon the great $35,000,000 lock began to fill. In a little more than 15 minutes, the lock was filled, the east gate was dropped and the boat moved into the lock and tied up to a float just inside the gate. Again a different kind of action began as the water dropped fast until in another 15 minutes it was on the level of the river below. At this point the great downstream gates swung open and, as hundreds watched, the motor was cranked up and the boat sped out of the lock. We remarked to one of the attendants: "It just shows that Uncle Sam looks after all his nieces and nephews, great and small. I'm sure this single operation cost the government more than the value of the little boat." The attendant just smiled a little, then said: "It's just as well. If the government didn't spend its money this way, Eisenhower would give it away to foreign countries." Yes, the attendant is a Democrat—and a good one.

The man who said money isn't everything must have gone through a woman's purse.

We read where two Catholic nuns were traveling to Milwaukee by train and upon being seated in the dining car were delighted to find that the menu offered "Old Fashioned New England Boiled Dinners." Both selected this delicacy and the one ordering, for brevity, wrote on the menu card: "Two Old Fashioneds." And that was just what was served them—in two Old Fashioned glasses.

A Swede was brought into court last week charged with spanking his wife with a live eel. He admitted his guilt and was fined $5 for cruelty—to the eel.

Big Six-Day Event

26th North Alabama Fair Will Open Next Monday

The North Alabama State Fair, featuring a showcase of exhibits under the general headings of agriculture, domestic art, handicraft, livestock, conservation, hobbies and many others, will present its 26th annual edition at the North Alabama State Fair grounds Sept. 19-24.

For the past 26 years, more than a million people have passed through the gates at the fair grounds and this 26th anniversary fair is slated to be the biggest and best yet, with "something for everybody."

Interest in the fine livestock department has increased steadily each year, which resulted in the addition of facilities to house more exhibits. This year, as before, livestock from Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky, as well as from many points in Alabama, will be featured.

Two new departments, ceramics and china painting, have been added this year, following the recommendation of numerous fair patrons, and is in keeping with the fair's policy of offering premiums for activities in which there is currently a wide interest. Also, in keeping with this policy, two departments, that of poultry and of individual farm exhibits, have been discontinued due to lack of sufficient entries to justify their being retained.

The poultry barns have been replaced with a fire-proof structure which will be used to exhibit farm implements and automotive exhibits.

Entertainment on this year's grand stand show, which will be presented at 1:30 and at 7:30 p.m. each day, will feature a multitude of exceptionally fine talent, among the acts being the appearance of The Three Synners, wizards of the trampoline; the Eriks, marvels of the spinning wheels, and Odette and her trained dogs and Adam's chimpanzees, certain to delight children in attendance. Other acts appearing on the show will be a unique comedy team, Low, Hite & Stanley, Chai and Somay, oriental wonder workers, Miss Rietta, queen of the air, and the Flying Zeechins, America's foremost artists on the flying trapeze. A most entertaining program is promised.

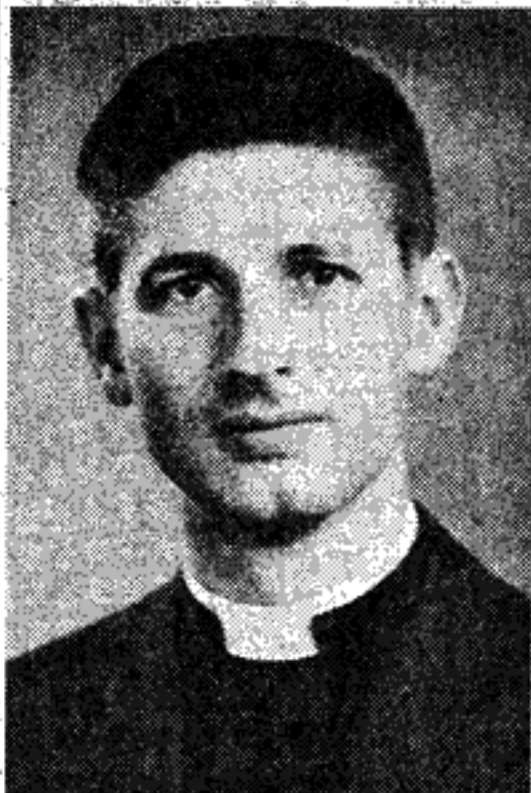

As usual, plenty of shows and rides will jam the midway, furnishing pleasure for all. Another exciting event of this year's fair will be the presentation of the third annual Youth Talent Contest, on Tuesday, Sept. 20. Featured in this contest will be Northwest Alabama's finest youth talent, providing wonderful entertainment for grand stand spectators. The top local winner will be awarded an all-expense paid trip to Memphis to compete in the Mid-South Fair's youth talent contest, Sept. 23-Oct. 1.

Friday, Sept. 23, will be School Day. All students and teachers will be admitted for 10c until 1 p.m., and for 25c between 1 and 4:30 p.m. Ride prices will be reduced at this time.

Mrs. J. L. Meeks, Sr., plans to leave the latter part of this week for Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for a visit with her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Lois Nell Gibson, and Mrs. Dwight Mosley.

Triplett Returns As Superintendent

Changes In Area Methodist Posts As Result Of Conference

In appointments read Sunday at the closing session of the North Alabama Methodist Conference in Birmingham, it was announced that Dr. Minar L. Triplett was returned as Florence District Superintendent for the third year.

In other appointments, Dr. R. L. Archibald was appointed pastor of the Florence First Methodist Church for his fourth year; Dr. T. J. Chitwood was assigned to the North Wood church to succeed Rev. E. M. Barnes who was assigned as district superintendent of the Albertville district. Mrs. W. J. Penegar, the first woman minister in the conference, will serve the Winnville Circuit in the Albertville district.

The conference also appointed Rev. Phillip Huckabee, a Vanderbilt University graduate, as director of the Wesley Foundation at Florence State College.

Other appointments are as follows:

United Fund Campaign Plans Near Completion

Lauderdale County Budget Committee Sets Goal At $122,446

United Fund leaders for Lauderdale County are completing plans for this year's campaign with dozens of volunteer, unpaid workers determined to reach a goal substantially larger than last year.

Lauderdale County's goal is $122,446, up from last year's $112,500 goal.

The goal was set by a citizen budget committee, men and women like yourself, who took a long, hard look at the work of these United Fund agencies, past and future.

In the Lauderdale County United Fund there are 13 such organizations doing a fine job.

Joining together in the Lauderdale County United Fund are: Alabama Association for Mental Health, American Red Cross, Lauderdale Society for Crippled Children, Lauderdale County Department of Pensions and Security, Maud Lindsey Free Kindergarten, the Girl Scouts, the Boy Scouts, Muscle Shoals Mental Health Center, Muscle Shoals Regional Library, Salvation Army and the Muscle Shoals Association for Retarded Children, Workshop for Handicapped and Young Men's Christian Association.

Overall Lauderdale Co. United Fund chairmen are Kenneth Darby and Marshall Smith. Other leaders are: Forrest Brice and James Koonce, Commercial Committee; T. M. Rogers, Industrial Committee; Morris Kilbano and Cris Moore, General Division; Charles Pollnitz and Dr. L. C. Price, Professional Division; Karl T. Tyree, Jr., County Division; E. B. Haltom Jr., Public Employee Division; Otis Peacock, Education Division; Mrs. Preston Reeder and Mrs. H. C. Booream, Residential Division; W. H. Mitchell, Speakers Bureau; Preston Reeder, Planning Committee; L. M. Huff, Audit Committee; Jewery Reed, David Young and C. G. Leslie, Colored Division and John Whittleman and Bob Holloway, Publicity Committee.

Here are the Lauderdale budget committee members who took the hard look at the work done by United Fund organizations; who said "These budgets, these goals are the least they can squeeze by on." They are: Fred Moore, O. P. Herm, LeRoy Doster, Fred Long, Charles Green, Louis Rosenbaum, Julian Bailey, Mrs. Joe Meade Sr., Mrs. George McBurney, R. C. Barnes, Leonard Johnson, Henry Carr, C. H. Jackson, Mrs. Thomas Reeder and Mrs. Mort Levin.

If you don't know all those people, they represent a pretty good cross section of our county. There are labor union and plant officials, bankers and housewives, people who run or fix machines and people who hold political office in our towns and county.

FSC To Offer Noon Classes This Term
Florence State College will offer classes during the noon hour this semester because of the growing enrollment.

This move was necessary in order to provide classrooms for the expected 1,850 students, although a $3,300,000 building program is now in progress on the campus.

Special, part-time, graduate and other students who do not fall into the regular program of registration which began Monday, can register until noon, Sept. 29. Such students can apply for registration in the registrar's office.

Fine Recreation Center
Fountain Lane, truly "The South's Most Beautiful Bowling Lanes" today announce their Grand Opening for Saturday and Sunday in their handsome new building on Florence Boulevard.

Owned and operated by Dr. J. T. Gordon, whose attractive home on Shoals Creek is one of the district's show places, the spacious new building housing Fountain Lanes has brought many compliments as to its appearance, facilities and opportunities offered for healthful recreation. Bob Miller is manager of the lanes and already has proven a most courteous and efficient administrator.

With 32 lanes, the new bowling palace is equipped with every modern contrivance for the enjoying of the popular game. Also featured is a modern restaurant and snack bar; a completely equipped nursery staffed at all times by adequate attendants; lockers for both men and women; a league room for meetings of the various league personnel; and every type

LATE BULLETIN

Hurricane "Ethel" following close on the heels of Donna, which dwindled into a rainstorm off the shore of New England Monday night, now rages 350 miles south of the Louisiana coast, moving northeast at the rate of 15 to 20 miles an hour. The intensity of the hurricane is estimated at 150 miles an hour. Storm warnings were issued along the Mississippi Gulf coast Wednesday night as the progress of "Ethel" was closely watched.

Police Issue Warning To Teen-Age Parkers

A warning to teen-agers against parking in secluded areas late at night was issued by Detective Captain Jim Carter of Florence City Police Monday, following the report of a second instance in less than a week in which masked Negro assaulted a teen-age youth, but was driven off after a scuffle. Carter reported the youth came to the police station early Sunday morning and reported being beaten by the Negro at approximately 2 a.m. near a bathhouse in McFarland Bottom. He had been parked in that vicinity with a Florence girl at the time. The boy said that the Negro broke into the side of the car where he was sitting and struck him over the head with a piece of pipe. However, the youth managed to fight him off, and the assailant escaped.

On Sunday night, a week before, a masked Negro assaulted a couple who had pulled in front of a house, with butcher knife. The youth wrestled the knife away from the assailant but received lacerations in the struggle. The Negro ran away as lights in the neighborhood were turned on.

Allen Silverberg has registered at the U of A School of Dentistry.

At Listerhill Plant

Reynolds Produces First Silicon Metal This Week

By ROBERT D. HOLLOWAY
Regional Public Relations Officer

A brilliant shower of sparks marked the tapping here this week of the first silicon metal ever produced in a Reynolds Metals Company plant.

The massive new electric furnace at the Reynolds Listerhill Reduction Plant has 5,000 tons rated annual capacity of silicon metal.

The silicon will be used, Plant Manager R. B. Newman said, to meet the demand of the foundry industry for silicon aluminum alloys. Automotive castings, for example, usually require aluminum alloys containing from 5 to 12 percent silicon.

Initial production will go to meet the needs of this aluminum producing plant, largest of all the Reynolds reduction plants, but silicon metal is also expected to be shipped to other Reynolds plants from this furnace, he said.

Housed in a gleaming aluminum building as tall as an eight story office building, the new plant is designed with auxiliary equipment to permit the addition of other furnaces later.

In operation, electric arcs sizzle some five feet between three huge carbon electrodes suspended in a mix of quartzite, wood chips, coal and green petroleum coke. The extreme heat produced causes the oxygen in the quartzite (silicon dioxide) to combine with the carbon in the wood, coal and coke forming CO-2 and leaving pure silicon metal in a molten state.

The silicon metal is tapped from tap holes near the bottom of the round open-topped furnace with an electric "stinger." High amperage electric power is fed to the "stinger" which arcs through in a dramatic shower of sparks to the carbon electrodes inside the furnace releasing the flow of molten silicon metal.

So great is the heat generated that all electrical connections in the furnace area, the metal jackets which hold the giant carbon electrodes and even the hood above the furnace are water cooled. Some 750 gallons of water per minute in 42 separate cooling lines are required.

Power is supplied from TVA lines through a 10,000 KVA water cooled transformer in the silicon plant.

The furnace shell resembles a large metal bowl and revolves slowly on a wheeled track during operations. The 40-inch diameter 40-foot-long carbon electrodes are fixed except for adjustments to move them lower and insert new sections as they are consumed.

Three-foot thickness of refractory brick are used to line the top six feet of sides of the furnace bowl which is approximately 25 feet in diameter at the top. The bottom three feet on the sides have an additional lining of two-foot-thick carbon blocks while the bottom has two and a half feet of refractory bricks plus two feet of carbon blocks.

The furnace bowl is about 20 feet in diameter by some 10 feet deep.

More than 32 miles of wiring was needed with some of the water-cooled buss ranging up to two inches in diameter.

Aluminum power lines serving the silicon plant can carry enough electricity to serve more than 2,000 homes.

The silicon plant superintendent is Delbert A. Truman.

Alabama lumber mills are currently supplying all the wood chips and after the initial run with North Carolina quartzite, the plant staff plans to develop sources of Alabama quartzite for blending.

Coal used must meet unusual specifications and to date no Alabama-produced coal has been found with the necessary analysis available.

The United States stands firm today on the restrictions placed around the visit of Nikita Khrushchev and Fidel Castro, as well as other leaders of the Communist bloc, when they arrive in New York as heads of their respective delegations to the meeting of the United Nations General Assembly.

The U. S. State Department sent a firmly worded reply Tuesday night to Soviet Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov, shortly after a formal protest of the restriction of the Soviet leader to Manhattan Island, in which it was stated that the protest was rejected because the restriction was "in strict fulfillment of the obligations" which the U. S. Government has to insure the safety of U. N. delegates. The note added that the action will assure Mr. Khrushchev "the unhindered fulfillment of his mission to the United Nations."

Moscow had termed the U.S. action as "unfriendly and designed to hinder the work of the Soviet delegation at the U. N. general assembly Sept. 20."

Castro Included

Following the pattern set regarding the Soviet leader and his satellites, the U. S. government Wednesday ordered Cuba's Fidel Castro restricted to Manhattan Island when he joins his Communist friends in New York for the U.N. General Assembly meeting. The same reason for this move was expressed by the State Department as in the case of Khrushchev.

Observers pointed out that travel beyond the area of Manhattan Island in no way contributed to the work of the various delegations to the U.N. and praise for the action of the State Department was general in its prompt action to prevent an incident that could lead to a fighting war.

Khrushchev will arrive in New York Monday and is expected to be escorted promptly to his headquarters on Manhattan Island. Those accompany him as heads of delegations will be treated in the same manner, it is announced.

It is understood that restriction of radio and TV use by the visitors to the U.N. will be ordered.

Extension Courses Offered By FSC

Each Class Carries Three Semester Hours Of College Credit

Florence State College Extension Department announced the first group of fall extension courses to be taught in the North Alabama area.

Three courses will begin on Saturday, September 24. Art 312, Lettering, will begin at the high school in Hartselle at 9:00 a.m.; Measurement and Evaluation 401, Scottsboro High School at 9:30; and Educational Psychology 333, Haleyville High School at 9:00.

The Library in School and Community 354 will begin on Monday, September 19 at 4:00 p.m., in the College Library Science Department in Wesleyan Annex.

A fifth course, Science for the Elementary Teacher 361, had its first meeting in Hackleburg High School on Saturday, September 10.

Each course carries three semester hours of college extension credit. The Library Science class will meet for two sessions each of one and one-half hours per week. Others will meet for one weekly period of three hours.

Your Vote Is Important

Next Monday is an important day in Florence. Qualified voters of this municipality will go to the polls to express their choice for City Commissioner.

The election of a candidate should never be taken for granted because only by voting can there be a real expression of the electorate. If the vote represents a substantial percentage of the registered voters only then can the candidates feel there has been a mandate from the people.

Another important thing to remember is that citizenship begins at the community level and voting is an expression of freedom . . . a proof of our citizenship in a free nation . . . a privilege many millions in the world do not have.

So go to the polls Monday and vote for the candidate of your choice. We have one of the finest communities in the entire South and we can keep it that way only if we take enough interest in its well being.

Voting is the one way we can continue to protect our community, secure its future and promote its growth.

We Should Hang Our Heads

Dr. Benjamin Fine, Education Editor, North American Newspaper Alliance, says that the Soviet Union is now spending 7 percent of its gross national product for education while the United States is only spending 3.5 percent. "It means," says Dr. Nicholas DeWitt of Harvard, "that a country half as rich as we are is spending twice as much on education."

There is this basic difference in goals, however. Our educational system is directed at the fullest development of the individual hoping that the enlightened young men or women will benefit, not only themselves, but the country as a whole. They have complete freedom of choice in choosing their field of education.

On the other hand Russia is concerned in training its young people collectively for the State's benefit and they must in the process of their education become ardent champions of the Communist doctrines and policies.

The figures as given by Dr. Fine are impressive. Under a seven year plan dated January 1, 1959, Russia is to graduate by 1965 some 125,000 engineers, 23,000 medical doctors, 35,000 agriculturists and 150,000 specialists in other fields. This is no willy-nilly classification. Students in the Soviet Union are carefully screened for their talents in the various fields so that each, theoretically at least, will become a master in his profession.

What are we doing in America? We are annually graduating 35,000 engineers of various kinds, 7,000 doctors and some 25,000 agricultural experts. Our colleges graduate a great many more but the other 300,000 graduates holding liberal arts degrees are comprised of (Dr. Fine points out) "football heroes, husband hunters and campus playboys."

The foregoing does not present a bright future despite the billions now being spent on educational facilities in this country.

However, we can take heart in that our leading educators are aware of our defects and steps are being taken to weed out the shortcomings in our educational system, particularly in our colleges.

More stringent entrance requirements, better student counseling and screening are becoming a must as well as better finance plans for educating the talented student who has insufficient means to attend college.

It can now be said that almost any student with exceptional ability in any field can find the means to attend college. Spending for education is the one investment that will pay the biggest dividends in the future.

The People Are Thinking

Senator John Kennedy in a recent speech spoke out unmistakably in favor of public power . . . in the advantages of developing natural resources for the benefit of the people. It is not the first time he has so spoken and such a pronouncement is encouraging to the people of the Tennessee Valley where the TVA has had "rough sledding" during the Eisenhower administration.

Thus far candidate Richard Nixon has not touched on the issue of "Public versus Private Power" but it will be interesting to hear his views, which on other matters, have deviated but little from the policies of the Eisenhower administration.

The Eisenhower administration has seemed to lack one great essential and that is a devotion to the common good. In a free society this is neither good nor excusable. It has exhibited the typical Republican attitude that money is the great panacea for all ills. At home and especially abroad it has been the greatest spendthrift administration in the nation's history.

Billions have been spent on solving the farm problem without solving it . . . billions more have been spent on foreign aid with world tensions still increasing . . . billions more have been spent at home with prices still spiraling higher than ever.

The people appear to be waking up and in the not far distant picture the leaders of this nation are going to have to produce . . . they are going to have to recapture the sense of the mission that our survival demands.

Will it be Kennedy or Nixon?
Only time will tell.

Killen Mayor Has No Opposition

Larry Gautney, mayor of Killen who is seeking re-election in the Sept. 19 vote, faces no opposition.

During Gautney's administration, the town of Killen has finished plans for a municipal water system, with a water board composed of Floyd McPeters, Mallon Wilson and Larry McCabe being appointed.

Candidates for the five-man Town Council are James Tank, Earl Gray, Larry McCabe, Billy Alexander, L. C. Tays, A. E. Blackburn and Floyd Tays.

Other town officials are W. B. Kidd, clerk; James Mauldin, recorder and Bernard Richardson, police chief.

Misses Daisy and Helene Sonnenfield, of Nashville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. May, N. Wood Ave., over the week-end.

Eisenhower Dedicates Space Center In Huntsville

President Eisenhower paid tribute to the late Army Chief of Staff and Secretary of State George C. Marshall last Thursday morning in Huntsville before a huge crowd of military, governmental and National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials as he dedicated the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center. A polished red granite bust of Marshall, "a man of war, yet a builder of peace," was unveiled by his widow after the brief address by Eisenhower.

Nancy Anne Fleming Miss America 1961

Nancy Anne Fleming, a pretty brunette from Michigan, Saturday night was named Miss America 1961 at the annual Miss America pageant held in Atlantic City, N.J. Tears of joy mingled with a smile as the 18-year-old winner walked down the runway to the hearty applause of more than 18,000 people. Runnersup in order were Miss California, Miss North Carolina, Miss District of Columbia and Miss Indiana.

HST Invited To Speak In Decatur

Probate Judge Charles C. Adams of Tallapoosa County, chairman of the Alabama Democratic presidential campaign, said Sunday that former President Harry S. Truman has again been asked by seven counties to speak at Decatur to Eighth Congressional District Democrats. Truman said that he would speak in Alabama if it could be worked out. Adams suggested any date from Sept. 26 to Oct. 8 or on Oct. 18, 19 or 20. The talk is planned as a Southeastern states Democratic rally with official delegates from Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Nation's Security Hurt, Declares Kennedy

Sen. John F. Kennedy said Sunday that the Republican Administration is endangering national security by failing to supply jobs for skilled defense workers who drift on into other work. The Senator said, "When these skilled production workers scatter to other jobs and other locations, our national security is the loser."

Hurricane Donna Labeled Major Disaster

Hurricane Donna smashed into the heavily populated metropolitan area of New York Monday with high winds and heavy rain, then smashed across Long Island into New England. The hurricane, which cut a 3,000-mile path of destruction and took 137 lives during the last 10 days, lost some of its punch as it veered into New Hampshire and Maine. Donna, one of the century's worst hurricanes, has been labeled a major disaster by the Red Cross.

Congo Crisis "Put On Shelf"

Patrice Lumumba came roaring through the streets of Leopoldville, the Congo, Monday shouting "victory" only two hours after he was arrested and then freed. The ousted premier then sped to Leopoldville radio station after a tour of the African communes, but was not allowed to speak. Meanwhile, the UN Security Council decided to put the Congo crisis on the shelf temporarily in the hope that the situation in the African republic would be clarified.

Srygley, left, who is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman, received their Masters of Arts degrees simultaneously from the graduate school of Bible and Religion at Hardin College, Memphis. Both are former residents of Florence.

Freeman, Srygley Receive Degrees

Owen Freeman and Edgar V. Srygley, both formerly of Florence, recently received their Master of Arts degrees from the graduate school of Bible and Religion of Harding College, Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Freeman, a graduate of Coffey High School, attended college at David Lipscomb, Nashville; Freed-Hardeman, Henderson, Tenn., and Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Tex., where he received his B.A. degree.

A graduate of Sheffield High School, Mr. Srygley attended Freed-Hardeman College and David Lipscomb in Nashville, receiving his B.A. degree from the latter institution.

Mr. Freeman is presently the minister of the Savannah, Tenn., Church of Christ, while Mr. Srygley is an instructor at Florida Christian College and preaches for the Church of Christ at Cherry Sink, Florida. Mr. Srygley is married to the former Betty Ruth Freeman of Florence.

Mr. Freeman and Mrs. Srygley are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Freeman, of Florence.

Carr Decedents Hold Reunion

When Alabama was in its infancy, a rugged and youthful man from the Carolinas forded the Tennessee River and established the first business in Florence. The exact date is not known, but it was about 1800.

This individual was Jack Carr, whose wife was the former Elizabeth Womack. Carr built a blacksmith shop, from logs hewn out of river bottom trees. This business establishment was located overlooking the river, at the present site of Coca Cola Bottling Company.

After several years, and as the family increased, the Carrs purchased some land near the present site of Stony Point Church and built a two-story log house. This original house has just recently given away to a modern brick home.

Five daughters and one son were born to this union. They were Martha, Margaret, Elizabeth Ann, Josephine, Mary and William. Each married, and from these new families have come a number of decedents, who have scattered into most all sections of the nation, but who have never forgot their birthplace.

For the past five years, these

JUDGE ROBERT M. HILL

"My hobby is closely allied with my work, particularly in the adoption of better court practices and better detention procedures," said Robert M. Hill, who is now serving a third term as Circuit Judge of Lauderdale County.

"In dealing with youthful offenders, the courts should be instrumental in creating good citizens rather than placing emphasis on punishment alone."

My idea in sentencing both adults and youths is with emphasis on treatment and not punishment," continued Judge Hill, one of forty judges over the nation who comprise the Advisory Council of Judges of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency. This organization, supported by private foundation funds, is dedicated to the work of improving our criminal court practices and procedures.

Robert McCrellan Hill was born August 23, 1904, the son of George H. and Jessie Odum Hill. He was born in Birmingham but grew up in Leighton, where he attended elementary school.

The family moved to Florence when he was 16-years-old and he entered Coffey High School, being graduated with the class of 1921. While attending Coffey, Judge Hill was a member of the Boys Hi-Y and the Debating Club. He was catcher on the baseball team and had the male lead in the Senior Play.

Following graduation from Coffey, Judge Hill entered State Normal College (FSC), graduating in 1924 and later attended the University of Alabama Law School, being graduated from the latter school with his LL.B. degree in 1929. While at the University, he was a member of ODK and the Jansons, honorary fraternities and Phi Kappa Sigma social fraternity. Interested in various campus activities, Judge Hill was executive secretary of the YMCA; secretary-treasurer of the Student Government Association and served as president of the Southern Federation of College Students, an organization of student bodies of Southern colleges and universities. Judge Hill was awarded the Panhellenic Trophy in 1929, an honor recognizing the male student who rendered the greatest service to the University that year.

Upon graduation from Alabama, Judge Hill began practicing law in Florence, continuing in that capacity until 1935, when he was elected Judge of the Law and Equity Court of Lauderdale County. In 1939, Alabama organized its new modern State Board of Pardons and Paroles and Judge Hill, having become interested in pardon and parole problems while serving as Judge of the Law and Equity Court and having written several articles on the matter, was recognized for his studies and was appointed by Governor Dixon an associate member of this board. ## Late News

● Discoverer XV roared into polar orbit Tuesday with a capsule to be caught near Hawaii today, in what is hoped will be the third in a row for the American side in the world "space ball" game. The rocket shot aloft at 3:13 p.m. from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., and in less than two hours later it was announced by the Air Force that its second stage had gone into orbit. The satellite races around the earth's poles once every 94 minutes, and its course takes it as far out as 472 miles, returning it as close as 130 miles over the missile base.

● An American Airlines Electra turboprop plane, carrying 70 passengers and a crew of five, from Boston, hit a dike while landing at LA Guardia Airport Tuesday. The plane flipped over and burst into flames, however, no one was reported killed, but some passengers were injured.

● President Eisenhower flew from the White House to Arlington National Cemetery Monday to perform his brief and silent part in honor of the memory of the commander in chief of the first great American military action in Europe. It was the 100th anniversary of the birth of General John J. Pershing. The day was set aside by Congress to commemorate the deeds of the highest ranking officer in the U.S. Army history.

● The Air Line Pilots Association said Tuesday that it will begin backing up striking Southern Airways fliers today with a sympathy movement designed to paralyze commercial air traffic in the Southeast. The movement will begin at Huntsville, Dothan and Baton Rouge, La., at midnight tonight and spread to a total of 21 airports by Oct. 6.

● President Eisenhower Monday signed into law the bill setting up a new federal-state program to help pay medical expenses of needy persons over 65. It is estimated by sponsors of the legislation that 12.4 million of the 18 million Americans over 65 will be eligible for benefits, under the medical care provisions.

Thorton Honored For Services To Retarded Children

Certificate Presented County Superintendent At Montgomery Banquet

In appreciation for services rendered mentally retarded children in Lauderdale County, Allen Thornton, supt. of the county school system has been awarded a Certificate of Appreciation by the Alabama Association for Aid to Retarded Children.

Presented by Dr. E. C. Overton, chairman of the awards committee at a banquet at the Whitley Hotel, Montgomery, last Friday, it was a feature of the two-day convention of the association. Signed by Donald C. Smith, president of the association, the citation pointed out the contributions made by the recipient to assure the success of the retarded children program.

Mr. Thornton was selected to receive this award by the members of the Muscle Shoals Association For The Aid to Retarded Children. He was recognized for his untiring efforts to promote the work of the association and helping to establish classes for mentally handicapped educable children in the Lauderdale Co. School System, having established three special classes as provided for under an Act of the Legislature in 1955.

He was further cited for helping to establish the Hope Haven School, a special school for retarded trainable children by the Muscle Shoals Aid For Retarded Children, a volunteer organization supported by public contributions. Mr. Thornton received his award along with one member from each Association.

Mr. Thornton served as the Treasurer of the State Association during the year of 1960 and was reelected to serve in this capacity for another term. The office of Treasurer automatically makes Mr. Thornton a member of the Board of Directors of the State Association of which he was a Director before becoming Treasurer. He is, likewise, a member of the board of directors of the Muscle Shoals Association, which is composed of five members.

Mrs. Callie Williford

Services for Mrs. Callie Bell Williford, 72, 519 Simpson Street, Florence, who died Sunday at ECM Hospital after a brief illness, were conducted Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Pine Street Church of Christ, with Lamar Plunkett and Robert Darnell officiating. Burial followed in Florence cemetery.

Mrs. Williford was the wife of the late Harvey Williford and a member of the Church of Christ.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Joseph O. Walker, Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Paul Light, Florence; a son, B. O. Williford, Florence; nine grandchildren, two great grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Hester Gist, Iuka, Miss, Mrs. Mattie Franklin, St. Joseph, Tenn., a brother, Waymon Henson, Russellville.

Spry of Florence in charge of arrangements.

Van Leslie Lovell

Services for Van Leslie Lovell, Sr., 77, Route 3, Florence, who died suddenly at ECM hospital Sunday, were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Woodlawn Church of Christ, with E. W. Stovall officiating. Burial followed in Thorton-ton cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Lovell; six sons, Henry, Lexington; Curtis, Florence; LeRoy, Florence; Leonard, Florence; Van Wesley, Florence and Clinton, Florence; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Stacy, Florence and Mrs. Louise Conley, Florence; 18 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Bertha McDaniel, Snyder, Tex., Mrs. Lula Patterson, Talco, Tex., and Mrs. Ella Canerday, of Killen.

No Decision On Courthouse Site

Present Suit Must Be Settled Before Title Of Property Assured

No decision as to the location of the new Lauderdale County courthouse has yet been made, and will not be made until a suit to quiet title is settled, said Chairman Doyle Young of the Lauderdale Public Building Authority at a meeting held Tuesday morning.

Mr. Young further stated that a courthouse could be built on the present site and be insured without the suit, "but we feel the suit should be settled in the future for commercial purposes." The site cannot be sold at present because a title company will not insure it without court proceedings since no deed showing the status of the tract has been found. All that has been found is a deed from Cypress Land Company which apparently gave the land for the courthouse site. A suit on the decedents was filed July 14 and is pending in Circuit Court at Florence.

Insects—primarily the boll weevil—destroyed 15 per cent of Alabama's potential cotton crop last year. And the cost was above $22 million.

Home Ceremony Marks Vows

Karen Jackson, John Hakola

Only family members were present for the afternoon ceremony of Saturday, September tenth, when Karen Annette Jackson became the bride of John Arvid Hakola at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Jackson, on Hermitage Drive.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Andrew Marvin Brown and the late William Charles Jackson and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arvid Hakola, Bailey Springs, Florence.

Improvised around the living room mantel, the altar was fashioned against a background of greenery centered with a fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioli and tuberoses and flanked by tiers of burning tapers. Miss Janet Jackson, younger sister of the bride, was candlelighter.

The Reverend James Northcutt,

First Methodist Church, read the vows at four o'clock following nuptial selections presented by Miss Vicki White, pianist, and Mrs. R. O. Gardner, vocalist.

Mr. Jackson gave his granddaughter in marriage. She wore a street-length dress of white lace over taffeta detailed with a round-neckline, short sleeves and full-gathered skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of pearls and she carried a single white orchid showered with fleurs d'amour and lilies of the valley.

Wearing beige brocade designed with rounded neckline and brief sleeves in a fitted bodice, Miss Priscilla Pittman was the bride's honor attendant. A bit of veiling caught to a bow of matching material was her headpiece and a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses, her flowers.

The bride's mother wore blue lace over taffeta and a corsage of white carnations and Mrs. Hakola, mother of the bridegroom, was in beige with brown accessories. Bronze chrysanthemums were at her shoulder.

A reception at The Town Club immediately followed the ceremony, with family friends included among the guests. Assisting were Mrs. William Blair, Miss Mollie Jackson, Mrs. James Williamson, Mrs. Allen White, Miss Gail Quigley and Miss Cordelia Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Hakola have returned from a brief honeymoon and are at home in the college apartments at Florence State where they will continue their courses.

An after-rehearsal party at The Town Club, with the bridegroom's parents as hosts, was a feature of Friday evening.

White flowers and candlelight marked the club's decor and Mrs. Weakley Cunningham presided at the party table.

Marcus Edward Neese Takes Sheffield Bride

First Baptist Church of Sheffield was the setting for the mid-afternoon ceremony of Saturday, September tenth, when Shirley Jane Grissom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Killough of 105 Park Boulevard, Sheffield, exchanged vows with Marcus Edward Neese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Neese of Florence.

In the vestibule, an epergne of white gladioli and tall white tapers marked the large church Bible which was opened at the ceremonial scripture. Fern trees intermingled with arrangements of white gladioli, pompons and stock decorated the candlelighted altar before which the vows were spoken. Jackie Grissom, brother of the bride, and Harry Joe Neese, brother of the bridegroom, were candlelighters.

The Reverend Dr. N. Roscoe Griffin officiated in the three o'clock ceremony following a program of nuptial music presented by Miss Mary Winn Murray, organist, and William Adair, vocalist.

Wearing a gown of pure silk French organza over tulle and bridal silk, the bride was given in marriage by her step-father. The molded bodice, fastened with tiny buttons, was distinguished by a portrait neckline embroidered with seed pearls and crystals, long sleeves buttoned from the elbow to points over the hands, and an elongated waistline. The skirt, with jeweled motif continuing down the front, swept to great fullness at the back. A crown of lace re-embroidered with pearls and crystals held her tired veil of double English illusion and with her white Bible she carried a white orchid encircled with tuberoses and stephanotis.

Miss Patsy Grissom was her sister's honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Mary Virginia Curry, Miss Mary Nell Danley and Miss Nancy Marsh, all of Sheffield, and Miss Patricia Donaldson of Tusculum. Blue silk chiffon over peau de soie fashioned their frocks designed with capelets, shirred cummerbunds and billowing skirts. They wore matching veiled headresses and their bouquets were of pompons and lilies of the valley.

Misses Peggy and Jenny Neese, twin sisters of the bridegroom, wore identical frocks of white, lace-trimmed nylon to serve as flower girls. Matching headpieces and wristlets of white carnations completed their attire.

Charles Neese of Florence and the University of Texas was best man for his brother. Groomsman were Stuart Wood of Ft. Bragg, N. C.; James Moore, Thomas Arthur, Jay Griffith and Robert Stephens. Michael Killough, brother of the bride, was ringbearer.

Mrs. Killough, mother of the bride, wore white crepe with mauve accessories and Mrs. Neese, the bridegroom's sister, was in satin-trimmed aqua lace with matching satin headpiece. An orchid corsage was pinned at the shoulder of each. Mrs. Thomas Neese, grandmother of the bridegroom, was costumed in lace and chiffon with matching accessories and her flowers were white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Killough were reception hosts following the ceremony, entertaining in the church parlors.

For travel, the bride wore a Swiss chocolate two-piece suit with matching suede accessories and the orchid from her bouquet as her corsage.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in the Carolina mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Neese will be at home at 1300 North Annapolis Avenue, Sheffield.

Donaldson-Liles Vows Said In Late August

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Donaldson of Florence, Route Six, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Floyce Jean, to Homer E. Liles, Jr., on Saturday August twenty-seventh. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Liles, Sr., of Gunwaleford Road, Florence.

The Reverend Frank Martin, minister of Central Heights Baptist Church, officiated in the home of the bride's parents.

Now serving with the United States Navy, Mr. Liles has returned to his station at Great Lakes, Illinois, and his bride will continue to be at home with her parents until she completes her senior year at Central High School.

Recent Bride Is Party Feted

A bride of early August, Mrs. Thomas Rains (Marie Robison) was honored on Friday evening with a gift party at the Woodrow Erwin home, 973 Midway.

Hostesses with Mrs. Erwin were a group from the Guild and WSCS of St. James Methodist Church of which Mrs. Rains' father, the Reverend J. Hubert Robison, is pastor. Included were Mrs. Huey Fritts, Mrs. Earl McPeters, Mrs. Clyde Bohannon, Mrs. John James, Mrs. E. F. Capley, Mrs. Logan Dandy, Miss Sue Gamble, Miss Evelyn Clemmons, Miss Nancy McPeters, Miss Virginia Flynt and Miss Martha James.

Blue and white were the colors noted in the flowering background and in the centerpiece which decorated the candlelighted refreshment table. The same colors were echoed in the corsage worn by the honoree at the shoulder of her white corduroy frock.

Mrs. Robison and another daughter, Miss Joan Robison, greeted guests with Mrs. Rains.

Mr., Mrs. Tyree Hosts In Hickory Hills Home

Keeping in touch since their graduation from the University of Alabama with the Class of '49 has meant many pleasant experiences for Karl T. Tyree, Jr., and his college roommates, Roscoe Roberts of Huntsville and Perry Given of Birmingham.

Their reunions now include without exception the wives and, upon occasion, their small fry — the Tyrees' mixed three, the Roberts' two and two, and the Givens' two young misters.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyree were hosts to the two couples during the past week end and on Saturday evening introduced them to local young-marrieds who called at their home, 115 Hickory Hills Court.

Altruist Club Has Al Fresco Meeting

Prior to beginning their program meetings of the Fall and Winter months, members of the Altruist Club gathered on the first Friday of the month, their customary meeting day, on the lawn of the Lake Tate home at Lauderdale Beach for an informal planning session and an exchange of Summer experiences.

Officers of the coming season are: Mrs. Hewlett Jackson, president; Mrs. Julian Bailey, vice-president; Mrs. Grady Williams, secretary.

Hostesses with Mrs. Tate were Mrs. Dewey Mitchell and Mrs. Bailey, and Mrs. Cora Jones of Rogersville, mother and house-guest of Mrs. Weaver Fuqua, was a special guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Williams left Saturday for a two-weeks' vacation in the West. Their tour will include many points of interest.

Prenuptial Compliment

Bride-Elect Louisa Jones

Luncheons and dessert parties and bridal showers are filling these pre-wedding days for Miss Louisa Jones, bride-elect of Lt. William Lee Painter of Richmond, Va.

A delightful courtesy of Saturday was the luncheon to which Miss Adele Jackson, who will be maid of honor in the Sunday, September twenty-fifth event, invited twenty members of the just-out-of-college set to The Town Club.

Pink was the color theme used by the hostess who fashioned her oblong centerpiece from several shades of blossoms intermingled with greenery, and chose matching name cards with which to mark places.

Miss Jones wore a brown two-piece of polished cotton with lizard accessories.

On the afternoon of the same day, Mrs. Thomas Ashcraft courted to Miss Jones with a shower of kitchen gadgets.

The Ashcraft home on West Lelia was the party setting and gladioli and tuberoses the party flowers. An arrangement of yellow and white blossoms centered the teatable where Miss Adele Jackson assisted in serving the fourteen guests present.

The honoree's smart striped frock was of blending browns and greens.

Mrs. John Clement (Helen Sed-enquist) and Miss Gail Hershey honored the bride-to-be on Thursday, September eighth, with a dessert bridge, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Clement's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sed-enquist on Bluff Street.

Bowls of roses lent additional charm to the party rooms where the honoree and hostesses were joined at small table by Mrs. William Crabbe, Mrs. John Archer, Mrs. Edward Cutshall, Mrs. Kenneth Cantrell and Miss Adele Jackson.

Golden Wedding-Open House Fetes Mr., Mrs. Hollander

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Hollander were honored on Sunday, September fifth (their fiftieth wedding anniversary), with open house in the home of Albert Hollander, the son with whom they make their home at 619 South Richard Street, and his family.

Other hosts were the remaining sons and daughters of the honorees including Alden, Gene and Howard Hollander who arrived from their homes in Detroit for the occasion; Louis and Lawrence from Whiting, Ind.; William from Cypress Inn, Tenn.; Mable (Mrs. Wilma Mad-dox) of Muscle Shoals City; Thomas Hollander of Sheffield and Joseph and Louise (Mrs. W. T. Wells) of Florence; and their families. Thirty-one grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren were also among the party group. Absent were the youngest family member, four-days-old Charles Randy Hollander, and his mother, Mrs. Thomas Hollander of Sheffield.

Early Fall flowers were used throughout the rooms where guests, calling in groups during the day, were served punch and "wedding cake."

Mrs. Hollander, who was a bride at thirteen, received wearing a

A Personal Message

E. F. Martin

As election day approaches, I want to express my deep appreciation for the many words of encouragement given me by our citizens in my campaign for re-election to the Board of City Commissioners. It is heart-warming to me that I find my efforts appreciated by so many and it gives me an added incentive as I seek another term in our city's government.

Possibly the most important single item that has taken place since I assumed my duties on the board nearly three years ago, is the placing of the city's finances on the firmest basis in all our history. Our bonds are sought in the open market and the rate of interest we are called on to pay is one of the lowest of any city in our state.

The program that was adopted for the progress of the city at the time I took office, has progressed more than satisfactorily and today we are far advanced on the goal we set. However, progress as far as the City of Florence is concerned is a continuing thing and each week we are planning ahead to meet the great challenge that is ours.

On Monday, you will go to the polls to elect a commissioner to serve you during the coming three years. As a candidate to succeed myself, I trust that I warrant your vote and support. My record in office is my platform and is open for your careful inspection. Although there are many additional things I'd like to see accomplished, I do feel that wonderful progress has been made and I must confess that I am pleased with the great strides that our city has made during the past three years, but this is only a start and even greater plans are in the making for the years ahead.

It is important that you go to the polls Monday and cast your ballot. Only by your expression at the polls can our city continue its splendid program of service to our citizens. May I urge you most sincerely—GO TO THE POLLS MONDAY AND VOTE YOUR CON-VICTIONS.

I trust that the vote you cast will be an approval of my efforts and that I may have the privilege of serving you during the coming term. I pledge that I shall strive at all times to promote what is best for you and the citizens of Florence as a whole.

Respectfully yours,

E. F. MARTIN

When the "chips are in,"
Are the ones who'll BABY-SIT!

AND IT SEEMS that hereabout, we have many such, and we'll put them in our little book for top rating... it meant a Florida vacation for Ann and Barry Hibbett while Grandmother Martha (Griffin)... who didn't look the part... baby-sat the "Little Chip"... And the J. L. Goyer home often teams with the activities of Lawrence's small-fry (from Birmingham) and of Julianne's (Simmons) daughters (of Jasper)... we think of Ann (and Leo) King, who always appear to be enjoying themselves, along with Betsy and Susan, when they make a happy foursome... then there are those lucky youngsters like Martha Ward (pre-teen daughter of Forest and Myrt)... she has her grandmother Ward "built-in"... and many more grandmothers could be listed in this "HONOR ROLL"...

WHILE ON THE SUBJECT, Madame Spillway saw a very, but veree, interesting sight a few nights ago in one of our local restaurants... one of Florence's proudest grandmothers was being dined by one of our MOST ELIGIBLE gents... with seemingly great pleasure... understanding upon investigation that we're a few months late to call this "hot news" (don't know where our alert snoopers have been)... but it's none the less exciting.

AND WE'LL HAVE to admit to tardiness on this story too... but it just came to our ears this week, so we're going to tell it, and think you'll be glad we did... seems that at the height of the rush at the formal opening of the First National Bank last spring, the president himself was called to the telephone... the call, strictly business... the caller, the nurse-cook in a neighborhood household who couldn't leave her "charges", so therefore could not get down to the bank for her "free souvenirs"... naturally, she wanted some "PUT IN TRUST" until she could get there to pick them up... and you must know it, our genial bank president promptly took time out to attend to this "business"... all proves, behind great banks, there are great men.

ANOTHER VIP who's been having interesting telephone calls... and this time we're speaking of the Electrical Frank Crow... we hear that he recently received the long distance ring from none other than the REAL Marilyn Monroe... but wife Gertrude was at home... answered the telephone... some quick thinking ensued... Frank said that Marilyn must've dialed the wrong number... these nation-wide dial systems can really foul us up! "ALL" HAVE ENJOYED hearing Mae Irvine, along with Julia Walker and Josephine Penney, tell of their recent visit in Cashiers, North Carolina, with the Albert Erskines... here's hoping that this means a visit soon from the Erskines, who're among favorite visitors.

BUSIEST OF OUR YOUNG MATRONS this past week is bound to be named Corrine Rogers... not only has she had a son to get packed off to Davidson College, and a son and daughter to enter local schools... this would have meant a busy household... but Corrine and Mims have had also a festive household... We're all charmed with the Reynolds who're visiting them from Sydney, Australia... and they've said they like us too... makes a winning combination...

ANOTHER DISTINGUISHED couple we've had in our midst from across the waters... Dr. and Mrs. Hartenau are here with the (Dr.) Dabbs for a business-pleasure vacation... all the way from Austria... so sorry we COULDN'T make the barbecue which the Dabbs had for them last Thursday... know a "fine time was had"...

IF MOHAMMED can't get to the mountains, then bring the mountains to Mohammed... this ancient maxim was put to practical use by a recent lovely bride... Dotty Adler, of Miami, where her marriage to Don Kayner (of Chicago) was held... since Grandmother (Mrs. A. F. Feldman) became ill and was not able to accompany Grandfather and Aunt Rosalie (Bertell) down for the wedding, Dotty and Don came by here to see her... hear Rosalie and Irving had a beautiful reception in the Rose Room of the Muscle Shoals Hotel, where long-time friends enjoyed a glimpse of the bride and groom before they made their way to Chicago where they will live.

HOPE ALL OF YOU enjoyed watching the Miss America pageant as much as we did... but you didn't know that you really had a personal interest in it... Miss North Carolina, Ann Herring of Winston-Salem, who looked so fetching in her Highland costume, and was one of the five finalists, is the cousin of OUR OWN Mabel Fuqua, wife of Weaver, our popular tax-collector... heard of an interesting conversation that went on at a viewer's (via Muscle Shoals TV Cable) party... where the consensus was that our fair city could place in the top ten with any number of local chaming lassies... anyone care to list them and hand in the results for reporting in this column?... 'twould make interesting reading.

AND NOW CHEERIO... Until more news comes through the Spillway.

Social

Mrs. Walter Y. Roberts and daughter, Miss Ann Roberts of Chester, Ill., were week end guests of Mrs. Roberts' father, W. L. Collier, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Collier, enroute to Auburn where Miss Roberts will begin her junior year. As she returns, Mrs. Roberts will again visit Florence relatives early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malone of Atlanta stopped Saturday with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Balles, who is a patient at ECM Hospital. They were enroute to Colorado Springs, Colo., to attend the funeral of Mrs. Malone's sister, Mrs. Thomas Maxwell, whose death in Honolulu occurred on the 8th.

Mrs. W. R. Arthur (Sandra Springer) and three-year-old David of Clearwater, Fla., are spending the ensuing two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Springer on North Pine, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hill on O'Neal.

Come To The Fair To Be Presented

Group Will Give Two
Benefit Performances
For MS Library Fund

Two benefit performances for the Muscle Shoals Regional Library Fund, of the new satire "Come to the Fair," by Ward Wagon, will be presented Thursday evening, Sept. 15, and Friday evening, Sept. 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the Coffee High School Auditorium in Florence. Producers Lyn Swann and Ward Wagon hope to raise $200.00 for the record shelves needed in the bookmobile and in the Library in Florence.

The new play is a satire on the values in the public school systems throughout the United States and will feature a talent show within the comedy.

Becky Wagon and Marlin Greene will both be backed by The Upsetters, a band just returned with honors won in Memphis. Other talent will include Dolores Johnson, The Rubarbs, Joseph and Beryl Paul, The Del Rays, Betty Kirkland and Jimmy Snead and his Band. David Green, just back from his trip to England with the

Construction Firm Signs Contracts On Florence Buildings

Bigbee-Morris Construction Company officials announced Friday that they have signed contracts for construction of two new commercial buildings in Florence, to cost a total of $112,000.

Work started immediately one of the buildings, to be erected by Bill Mangum, of Mangum Furniture Company, now located on East Tennessee Street. This $65,000 brick and steel building, to be located on the east side of the new bowling alley on Lee Highway, will be air-conditioned and will feature a modern aluminum store front, with all the latest facilities for furniture selection, room settings, on 10,000 square feet of floor space.

The new building is scheduled for occupancy about Nov. 15. The second contract calls for construction of a $47,000 building which will be occupied by Unit 2 of Hood Tire Exchange of Sheffield and will be located at the corner of Wood Avenue and Tuscaloosa Street.

Construction of this building will necessitate the removal of the three story residence now there, the former Brown Service Funeral Home. The structure, to be ready for occupancy about Dec. 1, will be 50 by 140 feet and will be of low pitch design of steel and masonry construction.

Mrs. James S. Robinson is convalescing from a recent illness at her home, 424 West Tennessee St. A guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tomlinson in Hickory Hills is his mother, Mrs. Alan Tomlinson of Whittier, Calif.

A recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Darby at their home on North Wood was her sister, Mrs. C. P. Bostick of Washington, D.C. Mr. and Mrs. J. Rivers Wiggins left Tuesday for a vacation in Canada and the New England states.

Arriving Sunday, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Lanier and daughter, Miss Andrea Lanier, of Newark, Del., visited for a few days with Mrs. Lanier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Darby, while enroute to Atlanta where Miss Lanier is entering Agnes Scott College.

Miss Jacqueline Buffalo and her mother, Mrs. Ethel Buffalo, are now at home at 1511 Laurel Ave., Knoxville, Tenn., where Miss Buffalo who, upon her graduation from Florence State in June was awarded a Fellowship in chemistry, will enter the University of Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis J. Lemoine, Jr., (Judy Lewis) of Florence are at home for the school year at 2808 Roberts St., New Orleans, La. Mrs. Lemoine is enrolled in Tulane Graduate School and Mr. Lemoine was transferred there by Retail Credit Company with which he is affiliated.

Mrs. Robert T. Binford of Birmingham is a guest of her cousins, Mrs. Carl O. Walker and Miss Josephine Penney on West Tuscaloosa.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder Watts are spending this week in Destin, Fla., accompanied by their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. George Calhoun of Seaford, Del., who came South particularly to enter their son, Reid, in University of the South at Seawane, Tenn. Mrs. Calhoun is remembered here as the former Juliette McRae, sister of Mrs. Watts.

Guests during the past week end of Dr. and Mrs. Lester Norvell, Jr., were her sister, Mrs. Charles Davis, and Mr. Davis of Tuscaloosa.

Oscar Lewis, a recent patient at ECM hospital, is now continuing convalescence at the family home on Olive St.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Eckl and two small sons, recently of Huntsville, are now at home in the Martin Apartments on Sannor.

ON DEAN'S LIST

Eleanor M. Dillard of Florence qualified for the summer quarter dean's list at Auburn University, according to Dean Marion W. Spidle of the School of Home Economics.

Let The Herald Print It!

Air Corps, will MC the talent show. Leading roles will be played by Gerold and Margaret Comer, John Cunningham, Dr. J. Wesley Jackson, Dr. Amos Jones, Mrs. Milton Cash, Mrs. Oscar Lewis and Rawson Coleman. Heading the teenage cast will be Ronnie Presley and Liz Boshell. Others will include students from Coffee High, Desher High, Sheffield High and Moulton High schools, as well as Florence State College students.

Scenery will be designed by Joe Douglas and state managers will be David Short and John Rogers. Special music has been written by Ruby Haddock.

Arrangements have been made with the Tri-Cities Community Theatre to honor their season ticket at either the Sept. 15 or 16 performance. An informal party for the cast and their friends will be held Friday night following the show, at the Naval Reserve Center in Sheffield.

Col. Thos. Arnett Enters Harvard

Native Florentine Is
Deputy Chief Of Staff
Personnel At Texas Base

Colonel Thomas N. Arnett, brother of N. L. Arnett, Director of Personnel at the Styton Plant here, has been selected by his commander to attend the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration in Cambridge, Mass. He entered the September 12 class.

Colonel Arnett is the Deputy Chief of Staff Personnel in the USAF Security Service headquarters in San Antonio, Texas.

A graduate of the Coffee High School, Col. Arnett then attended the Florence State College and on to the Georgetown University Law School.

A government attorney prior to World War II, the Colonel served in the So. Atlantic theater during the war. He commanded a Communications unit in Germany and the United Kingdom from 1950 until 1952. He went from there as Director of Military Personnel in USAF Europe for one year when he was returned to the states to attend the Air War College in Montgomery.

Upon completion of this course, Colonel Arnett was assigned to the Pentagon where he was Chief of Airmen Assignment in the Office of the Director of Military Personnel.

County Residents Congratulated

Lauderdale County residents were congratulated today for their part in swelling U.S. Savings Bond ownership to a new all-time high.

Fred Long, volunteer Lauderdale county chairman for the bond program in Alabama, said that nationwide holdings of Series E and H Savings Bonds stood at $42.8 billion as of August 31, according to official word sent to him from the Treasury Department in Washington. Of this total, Alabama residents own about $432,552,000 and Mr. Long estimated Lauderdale county's share of the total at approximately $4,844,582.

The report to Mr. Long came in the form of a congratulatory letter from William H. Neal, Assistant to the Secretary of the Treasury and National Director of the Savings Bonds program. In it Mr. Neal said that the new $42.8 billion total tops the World War II peak of E Bond holdings by some $12 billion, pointing out the steady growth which has characterized the bond program throughout the peacetime years since 1945.

"These statistical facts, however, are a comparatively minor part of the story," Mr. Neal told Mr. Long. "Of vastly greater importance are the accomplishments of millions of families in making dreams come true through systematic savings; and the patriotic contribution of Savings Bond volunteers like you in making our program not alone successful, but even possible."

"I know I speak for Secretary Anderson and Under Secretary Baird in expressing the Treasury's congratulations and thanks for your part in this newest Savings Bonds achievement."

Mr. Long said that one of every four Lauderdale county residents is a bond-owner—the national average.

Missionary Society:

The Missionary Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Dassah Sims with Mrs. Grady Butler presiding.

The program, "Field In Columbia, South America," was led by Mrs. Hubert Bedingfield with Mrs. G. V. Tucker, Miss Yvonne Myers, Mrs. Ishmael Perry, Mrs. Walter Ingte and Mrs. Butler taking part in the presentation, the devotional being given by Mrs. Bedingfield.

Mrs. Noble Tipper and Mrs. Ishmael Perry were named delegates to presbytery which will meet this week at Maude Church in Colbert county.

A dessert plate was served by the hostess.

An arrangement of yellow glads with white mums in a milk glass epergne was used for the centerpiece for the attractively appointed refreshment table when Mrs. Bobby Bedingfield entertained at her new home on the Lee Highway on Thursday evening with a gift tea for Mrs. Kenneth Wear, a recent bride.

The honoree chose for the occasion a black sheer from her trousseau with which she wore flowers.

Mrs. Bedingfield was assisted with the guests and gifts by Mrs. Bill Page and Mrs. Ralph Wear.

A golden punch, served by Mrs. Paula Jean Beasley, and white cake by Mrs. Sandra Massey Walker of Montgomery, repeated the colors used by the hostess throughout the lovely home for the occasion.

Mrs. Paul Massey of Phil Campbell was a guest.

Personals:

Mr. and Mrs. Oncal McLemore and family have moved from the Arthur Bayles home on Lee Highway to their new home on the Snake Road. The A. L. Finchers moved into the home vacated by the McLemores.

He has a Master's degree from the University of Alabama, and was, for a time, a teacher in the Robertsdale (Baldwin County) High School. He was communications officer aboard the USS Tingley during the Korean War, and holds a commission as a chaplain in the Naval Reserve. He was graduated in 1958, from the General Theological Seminary in New York City.

A welcome for Mr. Kearley will be held at Trinity Episcopal Mission, Darby Drive and Berry Street, on Sunday, Sept. 25, from 5 to 6 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

YES . . . HOW ELSE but by railroad could the giant steel tank pictured above, measuring 132 feet in length, 7½ feet in diameter and weighing 189,200 pounds, be shipped?

It's the same old story. When there's a really man-sized transportation job to be done, there's still just one form of transportation that can always be depended upon to do the task — the railroads!

For in contrast to our subsidized competitors who can pick and choose what they haul, the Southern — like all railroads — is a true common carrier. We serve anyone at any time for any freight that must be moved — be it large, small or in between. And in any weather, too!

This all-purpose, any-weather transportation service is indispensable to America's peacetime economy and vital to national defense in time of emergency.

Here on the Southern it is contributing to — and it is keeping pace with — the amazing industrial development of the young and fast-growing territory we serve. All in the South benefit!

RENT . . . A HAMMOND ORGAN FOR PENNIES A DAY!

Ideal : FOR THE HOME
: FOR THE CHURCH
: FOR THE CHAPEL

Organ music is the most relaxing of all music, psychologists maintain. And now, busy professional people who have never played music before are amazed to find they can enjoy themselves at the Hammond Organ.

The Hammond Organ is the most popular and most widely used of any organ in the church and the chapel . . . and the price is so attractive.

Popular, religious, even classical music is played beautifully on the Hammond . . . and it is so easy to learn. Ask us about our Free lesson program.

OUR RENTAL PLAN

Yes . . . just pennies a day will place a new Hammond Organ in your home, your church or your school. You learn to play as you pay so very little each month . . . then, if you decide to buy, every penny you have paid in rent will be applied to the purchase price. No such plan has ever been offered on the beautiful Hammond Organ.

COMPLAINANT
J. W. FIELDER, ET AL.
RESPONDENTS
LEGAL NOTICE
TO: GUS PETER NICHOLS, P. O.
Box 672, Fort Lauderdale, Florida; J.
W. FIELDER, if living, and his heirs or devisees if deceased, and any and all persons claiming any title to, interest in, lien, or encumbrance on the hereinafter described lands, or any part thereof:

NOTICE is hereby given that in the Circuit Court in Equity of Lauderdale County, Alabama, there is pending a verified bill of complaint filed on September 2nd, 1960, by Pauline B.
Summers against the following described lands situated in Lauderdale
County, Alabama, to-wit:
Lot 27 in Block 13, LAKESIDE
HIGHLANDS, according to the plat thereof recorded in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Lauderdale
County, Alabama, in New Plat
Book 1, Page 273-274. and against Gus Peter Nichols, and
J. W. Fielder, if living, and his heirs or devisees if deceased, and any and all persons claiming title to, interest in, lien, or encumbrance on said lands, or any part thereof.
Said bill being filed to establish the complainant's right and title to said lands and to clear up all doubts and disputes concerning the same.

In this cause it being made to appear to the Register that Pauline B.
Summers owns and is in the peaceable possession of said lands.
Gus Peter Nichols is over the age of twenty-one year and resides at Fort Lauderdale, Florida. J. W. Fielder is, if living, over the age of twenty-one years and is a non-resident of the State of Alabama, or if dead, his heirs or devisees are unknown and their names, ages, and residences cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry; that said complainant acquired title to said property by virtue of a deed of conveyance from H. L. Stutz, Judge of Probate of Lauderdale County, Alabama, said deed having been filed for record in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Lauderdale County, Alabama, on September 16, 1933, and recorded in said office in Book 243, at Pages 210-11.

That complainant claims to own the fee simple title to said lands in her own right by reason of said deed, and by virtue of her peaceable possession of said property; that title to said lands now stands in the name of complainant on the records in the Probate Office of Lauderdale County, Alabama; that complainant has been in the peaceable possession of said lands for over twenty years next preceding the filing of this bill of complaint; that the above named defendants claim or are reputed to claim some right, title, interest in, lien, or encumbrance upon said lands, and any and all persons claiming any title to, interest in, lien, or encumbrance upon said lands, or any part of said lands, are hereby given notice to appear in said Court and plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint by the 10th day of November, 1960, and specify their title, claim, interest in, lien, or encumbrance upon said lands or any part thereof, and show how and by what instrument the same is de-derived or created so that such claims may be adjudicated by the Court so as to clear up all doubts and disputes concerning the title to said lands, or otherwise a decree pro confesso will be rendered against them, and the said cause will be submitted for final decree as provided by Article 2, Sections 116 and 118, of the Constitution of the State of Alabama, as amended.

Done this 6th day of September, 1960.

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

there's more to be seen...

Deep in the human heart is the desire for greater and wider vision. It prompted early man to climb the trees and to scale the peaks. Every year it lures thousands to the top of the Empire State Building. It inspired the telescope and microscope, and eventually radar.

Similar to this yearning for vision, yet sacred in its powerful prompting, has been man's spiritual quest. Although there is much natural evidence around us to prove there is a God, we want to understand His mind, His power and will... His heart!

No human inventions are needed here. In the Church established by Jesus Christ, in the Truth taught by Jesus Christ, in the Life inspired by Jesus Christ — each of us finds that wider vision his soul craves.

Copyright 1959, Krister Adv. Service, Strasburg, Va.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

since the mid-twenties. Reports from farmers are the basis for the Government's official estimates of crop acreages. These reports are collected quickly and economically by rural mail carriers who travel the highways and byways. Reports from a good cross section of farmers in Alabama provide a basis for preparing reliable estimates.

To assure our county of being adequately represented in the Alabama survey, Postmaster Holt urges EACH patron receiving a card to fill it out and return it to his mail box.

Carriers participating in this acreage survey are: Horace Weems, Route 1; Norman Hall, Route 2; Roy Cooper, Route 3; Jack Romine, Route 4; and James Holland, Rt. 5; Eugene Townsend, Rt. 6; and Earl Lard, Star Route Contractor.

Hog Diseases Result In Loss In Income

Alabama hog producers are losing huge amounts of potential income annually as the result of diseases which could be reduced or virtually eradicated by proper diagnosis and control measures.

This was brought out at a meeting of the Alabama Farm Bureau Hog Committee, which also was told by Auburn experts and state veterinarians that farmers could help themselves a great deal by employing proper sanitation measures.

Dr. John Milligan, state veterinarian, said the complete eradication of hog cholera was an immediate goal, and much progress has been made toward this end. Then, he added, the public and animal health authorities hope to concentrate on such serious swine diseases as brucellosis, intestinal flu, and others which take a heavy toll.

"One of our greatest needs is a swine disease diagnostic laboratory," Dr. Milligan said. "What little diagnostic work now available is being done in poultry laboratories at Albertville and Auburn."

Committee members expressed the hope that such a laboratory might be established, possibly in southwest Alabama, the largest center of hog production. It was estimated that such facilities could be set up for about $75,000, and operated for $35,000 to $40,000 a year.

Dr. W. M. Warren, G. B. Phillips, and Ray Cavender, Auburn livestock men, also pointed to the need for an educational program touching the individual farmers, many of whom are losing swine through improper attention to disposal of diseased animals and other sanitary requirements. Another problem is the scarcity of rural veterinarians, and the difficulty of diagnosing diseases and thus preventing epidemics.

Dr. Milligan said the hog committee, working through Farm Bureau, had been "responsible for every major appropriation for swine disease control," but declared that additional efforts are needed if the industry is to reach its full potential in the state.

Grady Dunn, Samson, committee chairman, said the group would have recommendations to bring before the state-wide Farm Bureau resolutions committee at its pre-convention session in Birmingham Oct. 12-14.

County Farmers Receive $14,972.90 Gasoline Refund

Farmers of Lauderdale County saved $14,972.90 during the 1958-59 fiscal year as the result of the six-cents per gallon refund of the tax on gasoline used in their farming operations, according to figures released last week by Walker Brown, president of the county Farm Bureau.

Total refunds for the year throughout the state amounted to $777,649. In addition, farmers of this and other counties were eligible to claim refunds of the four-cent federal gasoline tax used in agricultural work. Based on the same number of gallons on which the state tax was refunded, this would have amounted to about $518,433.

Foods of the Future

SPACE-SHIP SHRIMP!

A tiny shellfish named daphnia magna, a form of shrimp, was found to be the "ideal" compact food for explorers of outer space. Even powdered foods were found to be too heavy for extended visits into space, so that's where these little shrimp proved so valuable.

They contain proteins, fats, vitamins and minerals, are light in weight, reproduce very rapidly in an algae-and-water home that turns carbon dioxide into oxygen — and these tiny fish taste like a blend of shrimp and avocado!

It may be a few years until you explore space, so you may have to postpone tasting this kind of shrimp. But other new and interesting foods will be developed, to be enjoyed with two "old favorites" — BEER and ALE. Changing styles in foods won't change America's preference for these two wholesome beverages!

Beer belongs... Enjoy it

BUY BETTER-THAN-EVER U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

A new 50-star flag now flies over the capitol of 50 states—symbol of a new America that's bigger and stronger than ever before. And there's a better-than-ever U.S. Savings Bond, too, to help keep our new America strong.

U.S. Savings Bonds are now better in two ways:

1. They mature 14 months faster than before. In E Bonds $18.75 now becomes $25 in just 7 years, 9 months.
2. They continue to earn interest after maturity. If you hold your bonds for 17 years, 9 months, you get $1.93 back for $1 you put in.

Other advantages of U.S. Savings Bonds

- You can save automatically with the Payroll Savings Plan.
- You invest without risk under a U.S. Government guarantee.
- Your money can't be lost or stolen.
- You can get your money, with interest, anytime you want it.
- You save more than money—you're helping your Government pay for peace.

Rid Home Of Old Medicines

Do you like to collect things? Then collect stamps, dolls, or money—not old medicines!

Elizabeth Bryan, Auburn University Extension specialist in home management, says illness or death can result from getting the wrong bottle out of the medicine cabinet; so it is important to know what is in every bottle stored there.

Rather than to take or give medicine that is unlabeled, the wise homemaker throws away the unlabeled bottle. And the whole family is safer if that unused portion of a prescription is in the garbage dump. Miss Bryan explains that a prescription is only for the patient.

tient and for his particular illness, not for the illness of some other member of the family.

Putting a lock on the medicine cabinet is a good safety measure when there are children in the house. And teaching them what is meant by "skull and crossbones" is no waste of time.
