The Passing Parade

By HAROLD S. MAY

It seems only yesterday - not 100 years ago as of 4:30 a.m. yesterday - that Johnny Reb took a potshot at Fort Sumter in Charleston harbor and thus ignited the most terrible blaze that ever swept over any country. Confederate General P. G. T. Beauregard was the old boy who gave the command to fire on the United States garrison of 100 men holding the Fort, and a steady fire lasting 30 hours silenced the Yankee guns and brought about formal surrender of the remnants under Major Robert Anderson on April 14, 1861. The following day, President Lincoln called for 75,000 militia to serve for 90 days against "combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings." And thus the War Between the States was born - a war that brought death and destruction on the South, a war that was felt by our people until after World War II when the South truly began to rise again.

• This year will be tougher than 1960 - it has twice as many Fridays the 13th.

• A preliminary review of the post card poll asked by Muscle Shoals TV Cable Co., reveals only one thing: "Most people do not read their mail!" Well, they may read it but certainly a large portion do not digest it. It is appalling to note that a great portion of the "voters" selected Preference No. 1 - which means they want three channels giving them the same program simultaneously. By this vote, they also say that they do not want to view such programs as Perry Mason, Father Knows Best, 20th Century, Lassie, Dennis the Menace, Ed Sullivan, Jack Benny, Candid Camera, What's My Line?, Red Skelton, Gary Moore's, I've Got A Secret and dozens of other fine CBS programs that will be lost if your vote remains for Preference No. 1. Our preference is No. 2 but you may prefer No. 3 - but, certainly, you don't want No. 1! With No. 1 you will have Channels 6 and 8 with the same network programs and Channel 15 carrying a good portion of the same programs, too.

• Once upon a time the headquarters of a beat generation was the woodshed.

• Nearsightedness may not be so terrible in some cases, especially one we just heard about - according to a young lady's mother. Preparing to go out on a date, her mother noticed that she was not wearing her glasses and she worried that something not so good might befall her. "Darling," she said, "you do not have on your glasses." "I know, mother," the dutiful daughter replied, "but Jim says he thinks I look better to him without them; and I know he looks better to me."

• Sign on an executive desk: "It's too late to agree with me. I've changed my mind."

• It's odd how otherwise intelligent people will fall for a come-on ad that promises something risqué. For example, a short time ago a small ad appears in a certain newspaper, which shall go nameless for the time being, which reaped rich reward for the book seller who inserted it. The ad read: "What every young girl should know before she marries. Profuse-ly illustrated, specific instructions included and sent in a plain envelope." Thousands sent in the required sum, and, no doubt, waited breathlessly for their purchase to arrive. And arrive it did just as advertised. Every eager soul who clipped the coupon received a good cookbook.

Act Would Curb Excessive Rates

Alabama Bankers Back Installment Loan Bill

To put teeth into Alabama's Usury Law, is, in a nut shell, the big reason for the Alabama Bankers Association backing the proposed Installment Loan Act, according to Howard J. Morris, Jr., Executive Vice President.

A summary of the bill explains that on all lending not covered by the Small Loan Act of 1959, the present law is so outmoded and ambiguous and calls for so little penalty that virtually all installment credit lenders operate without regard for it.

The proposed law will curb excessive while providing for a fair rate ceiling to all reputable lenders. They will be required to furnish the borrower with an itemized list of all loan charges.

The legal rate of interest in Alabama in the absence of a contract rate is 6 per cent simple interest. By agreement between lender and borrower the rate may figure a maximum of 8 per cent. The proposed law will clarify what is legal interest and will also modernize Alabama's installment credit law bringing it in line with national practice.

There will be little adjustment except for unscrupulous lenders who will be adjusted downward sharply to fit the new legal ceiling. In other words legitimate lenders rates will not be affected and the average borrower will see no change in his rate.

The question is asked will the passage of this act put the banks in competition with small loan companies? The answer is, only to the same degree they now are since good banking practice has always called for small loans to worthy borrowers of $100, $50, and even $25. They lend at lower rates because of their higher selectivity and the loan companies at higher rates because of their lower selectivity.

The question is asked will the Installment Loan Act affect small loan licensees under the Gilchrist Bill (the Small Loan Act of 1959)? As a matter of fact the Installment Loan Act will put teeth into the law governing interest above the lawful $300 ceiling by including a fine of $1,000 and loss of twice the interest by anyone who exceeds the provisions of the Installment Loan Act. Any small loan licensee lending in amount greater than $300 would be governed by the (Continued on Page 2)

Germans Jailed In Lewis Death

Motive For Killing Of Rogersville Man In Germany Said Robbery

Wilhelm Linbarh, 33, of Darmstadt, Germany, was arrested in Cannes, France for questioning in the slaying of U.S. Army Pvt. David G. Lewis, 20, of Rogersville. Linbarh was transferred to Nice, France for later extradition to West Germany along with Annelise Laufenburg, 34, and her daughter, Bridgitte, 17, who deny taking part in the killing.

According to their account, Bridgitte attracted Lewis to her mother's apartment where he was given drugged drinks and fell asleep after which he was strangled with a rope by three men, a German soldier, Juergen Pfau, 20, an American soldier, Pvt. Jesse de Armond, 23, of Ponchatoula, La. and a German civilian, unidentified.

Mrs. Laufenburg and her daughter, along with Linbarh, drove to Cannes in Lewis' car after his body had been disposed of in a pond near Darmstadt.

All are now under arrest and being held for questioning. Police said the motive for the slaying was robbery, although it netted only a few dollars.

New Wilson Lock To Close April 18

Work On Removal Of Lock No. 1 In Canal Started By Authority

Vincent P. Carlson, Colonel, Corps of Engineers, District Engineer, Nashville, announced Saturday the TVA will close the New Wilson Lock, mile 259.4, Tennessee River at Muscle Shoals at 7 a.m. Tuesday, April 18, during which time the new lock will be underwater and inspections made to the operating machinery.

Colonel Carlson stated the duration of the closure will depend upon the condition of the machinery and whether or not repairs will be required; a subsequent notice will be issued upon completion of inspection of the machinery. Tows that cannot clear the lock by 7 a.m. on April 18 will be instructed by the lockmaster to pass through the Old Lock at Wilson Dam. The channel leading into the lower lock approach is restricted to a width of 140 feet at project depth and is clearly defined by buoys and the clear dimensions of the old locks are 60 feet by 300 feet, lower chamber, and 60 feet by 292 feet, upper chamber.

TVA has started work on the removal of the small Dam at Lock No. 1 at Florence, 2.6 miles below Wilson Dam which has not been needed since completion of the new 100-foot lift lock at Wilson Dam and the deepening of the old locks.

Florence will be placed in prime position to bid for new industry using a combination of railroad, barge and highway transportation for the first time in history because of the removal of the old dam which will eliminate a serious impediment to the development of upstream industrial lands.

SOVIETS ORBIT MAN, RETURN HIM SAFELY

Moscow reported to the world Tuesday that Russia had successfully launched the first man in orbit and brought him back alive. According to the story the first astronaut was in space an hour and 48 minutes including an hour and 29 minutes in orbit. A five-ton space ship carried Maj. Yuri Alekseyevich Gagarin, 27, and father of two daughters, aloft at 9:07 a.m. Friday and returned at 10:55 a.m.

The orbit, according to the Soviets reached a maximum of 188 miles and dipped a minimum of 110 miles above the earth before descent to a pre-arranged target in the Soviet Union.

The route of the space ship was not disclosed but Moscow said it received radio messages from Gagarin twice during the trip, one when he was over Africa and the other from South America.

The Soviet victory over this country in the race to put a man in space was lauded by Russians from the man in the street to Khrushchev himself, it was stated. The pilot, later reported to be suffering from "reactions" to the trip, is said to have reported he was well and this was blared over loudspeakers on the streets of the Soviet capital.

Moscow and all Soviet propaganda agencies went into full blast following the safe return of the astronaut.

In Washington President Kennedy issued a statement congratulating the Soviet Union on the achievement. James E. Webb, chief of the U. S. Space Agency said it was a splendid achievement and expressed the hope the Russians would share their findings with the rest of the world.

Khrushchev said that the Soviet Union, the land of triumphant socialism, "had opened a new era in the development of mankind... we place the Soviet achievement not in the service of war but in the service of peace and the security of the peoples."

Men Missing In Search For Others

Former Florence State Student One Of Trio Possibly Drowned

Granville Coffee, 20, along with two others, Jack Jacques, 30, of Arab, and Harold Honeycutt, 21, of Huntsville, who have been missing since Sunday night when they left to search for the husbands of two women who later turned up in good health, are still being searched for. The three men were looking for two others who had failed to return from a fishing trip in the Guntersville area and have not been seen since, however, the two men in the meantime showed up unharmed.

Coffee is the husband of the former Paula Donaldson of 606 Puritan Street, Muscle Shoals City whom he married on December 22 of this past year. She was formerly from Petersville community in Lauderdale County.

He was employed for an uncle, Dick Coffee, Inc., in Huntsville as a salesman and had formerly attended Florence State College.

Their boat, overturned and with the ignition off, was found Monday; the only other possible trace turned up by searchers was a life preserver that apparently had washed ashore, however, searchers were unable to say for sure it belonged to the missing men.

The new Burrell-Slater High School was the recipient of the Florence Exchange Club's Freedom Shrine at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Earle Darby, Exchange president, making the presentation.

The impressive ceremony opened with the presentation of colors by the color guard of the Florence-Lauderdale Post No. 11 of the American Legion, Laverne Tate, commander, followed by the pledge of allegiance. Musical selections were rendered by the Burrell-Slater band after which the Rev. G. W. Nelson gave the invocation.

Following the singing of America, Professor W. H. Lewis, principal of the school, introduced the band, chorus and the audience.

Mr. Darby, who was introduced by Rufus G. Hibbert, superintendent of Florence city schools, explained the significance of the National Exchange Clubs Freedom Shrine, which he described as "our answer to Communism." In making the presentation Mr. Darby said in part:

"It is a distinct honor, on behalf of the Florence Exchange Club, to appear here on this auspicious occasion, and to bring you greetings from all of its members. It is even a greater honor to have the privilege of presenting to Burrell-Slater High School the National Exchange Club's Freedom Shrine.

You may well ask: "What is the Freedom Shrine?" It consists of twenty-eight of the most important documents in American history, reproduced directly from the originals, the reproductions of which right now are permanently installed on yonder wall of your magnificent school, the location of which I am informed, will be henceforth known as Freedom Hall. Until now, relatively few Americans have been privileged to see these priceless manuscripts, either the originals or accurate reproductions. There is a continuous need for Americans to familiarize themselves with these great documents of freedom, and the need will continue through generations to come. The ideals and precepts set forth in these documents constitute our most precious legacy. They are our answer to Communism.

"Your teachers of history and social sciences will want to make use of the exhibit in connection with their classes. Therefore, please try to prevent your Freedom Shrine from falling into disuse. Try to plan events from time to time to focus attention on your Freedom Shrine. It is now my great pleasure to present the National Exchange Club's Freedom Shrine to Burrell-Slater High School of Florence."

The Shrine was accepted by Professor Lewis.

The Alabama Legislature will meet on May 2 to face a legislative grind that promises to be concerned mainly with the tough problem of reapportionment with Black Belters out to block it. There are growing indications that such issues as small loans and quickie divorces may be used as ammunition to preserve South Alabama's balance-of-power role in the Legislature though their main strategy yet remains to be seen.

In the forefront of the important reapportionment fight is Lauderdale county's E. B. (Bert) Haltom, Jr., who is just as determined to see North Alabama's legislative power at least equal to the rest of the state.

With respect to the coming legislative session, Senator Haltom, who is the author of a fair and equitable reapportionment bill, this week had this to say:

"It is my opinion that the Legislature of Alabama will pass both reapportionment and congressional redistricting bills this year either in regular or special session. There will be much controversy, many filibustering threats, some filibustering, and a lot of talk from a goodly number of legislators before these matters are approved by the Alabama House and Senate. However, before we return home this fall both of these controversial issues will be settled in an equitable manner.

"The matters of reapportionment of the legislature and congressional redistricting cannot and should not be separated. North Alabama legislators will not, I predict, allow them to be separately considered. If we are to regroup our congressional districts, we must at the same time reapportion the membership of the state legislature. If congressional redistricting passes, reapportionment must pass at the same time. If one fails, the other must fail also.

"If the Alabama Legislature fails to enact a redistricting bill, our congressional delegation at large in the 1962 elections. If this happens, it is my sincere hope that North Alabama will for the first time in its history stick together at the polls and elect all eight congressmen from the northern half of our state. If it is fair for the Black Belt and certain other areas of South Alabama to control our state legislature, then it is equally fair for North Alabama to control our congressional delegation in Washington.

"Our Black Belt friends are good people but they respect us politically only in one respect and that is our power to outvote them at the ballot box. If we in North Alabama will stand together and unite all the way in this redistricting and reapportionment fight, we will win our political battle for an equal voice in the administration of our state government."

Lauderdale's veteran member of the lower house Robert H. (Bob) Broadfoot, in commenting on the coming session said he felt that the problem of redistricting and reapportionment would "just about take up the whole session."

On the question of taxes, Mr. Broadfoot said he thought the prospect of any additional taxes was remote as far as the State Legislature passing any new taxes was concerned.

Rep. Charles G. Long also said it was his opinion there would be no new taxes since the governor is against any new tax legislation. "Without the governor, I don't believe the Legislature will get anything passed in the way of taxes," Long stated. He added that there may be "some enabling legislation to make it more convenient for the people to vote additional local taxes for schools" but no new tax laws.

Both representatives were of the opinion that a reapportionment would be the big issue at the new legislative session.

National FHA Week

FHA or Future Homemakers of America is the national youth organization for girls studying home economics in junior and senior high schools. The overall goal of the organization is to help individuals improve personal, family and community living, now and in the future. Its members are taught the principles of leadership, self-sufficiency and citizenship. Most of all in developing these attributes FHA develops character as well. This can be seen in the FHA Creed:

We are the Future Homemakers of America
We face the future with warm courage,
And high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.
For we are the builders of homes,
Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything
That is good and fair.
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.
We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage,
And high hope.

And so a salute to the Future Homemakers of America in Lauderdale County and throughout the land.

Are You Fighting A Losing Battle?

The late John Foster Dulles may be criticized for many things but never for shirking his job. As a matter of fact the main fault with Mr. Dulles' handling of our foreign affairs was that he had too much to do and too little to do it in.

If this sounds a bit facetious let us remember that his was a one-man show. Not that Mr. Dulles was a showman . . . far from it . . . but the foreign policy of this country plus its commitments to other nations, rested largely on Mr. Dulles' shoulders. However, there was one thing in his favor and that was he never wavered in his decisions and the Communist world felt his weight in many parts of the world.

With all of Mr. Dulles' mistakes, he learned one basic fact in dealing with the Communists which he tried to impart to official Washington and that is there must be something besides the power of mass retaliation in dealing with the encroachment of communism among the smaller nations.

Ever since World War Two we have seen nation after nation gobbled up without so much as a nuclear warhead being fired. And so the question poses itself now . . . are we going to see the Reds conquer the world while we build missile bases for the final showdown?

Fortunately Mr. Kennedy sees eye to eye with the late Mr. Dulles on that score. He knows that territory by the thousands of square miles is falling into the communist camp by the simple expedient of jungle warfare. They conquer nations by supplying the revolutionist element with guns and ammunition and in some cases they go a step farther and train these revolutionists in the latest military tactics. They supply jet fighter planes and train both pilots and paratroopers. Nuclear weapons are out . . . they don't need them in their war of little wars . . . they are saving the big weapons to use when only the big game is left.

Today there appears to be but one answer to the growing Communist menace to world peace and that is a stronger United Nations with the power and the authority to enforce the peace and protect existing governments from being overthrown by outside forces or influence.

It seems futile to send a UN force into places like the Congo and see their authority flaunted by pro-Communist terrorists who now have the effrontery and insolence to call for the resignation of the UN Secretary-General.

The UN must be given the force and the authority to crush these revolts at their outset. Unless it is there will be other situations like the Congo and Algeria and Laos arising to threaten the peace of the world and advance the cause of Communism.

Large Audience Home Speaker

India's Role In World Affairs Told By Noted Lecturer And Writer

A large and responsive audience attended the Conventions presentation of Miss Santha Rama Rau, writer, lecturer and world traveler, speaking on present day India at Kilby auditorium April 10th.

Dressed in a pink silk sari, Miss Rama Rau's appearance was as delightful as her sense of humor which immediately captivated her hearers. Speaking on the political dilemma of her native country, Miss Rama Rau told of the progress made in the 13 short years of independence. She said that although a great majority of Indians are illiterate they are not ignorant, and thoroughly understand the problems confronting their country.

India is a very old country with a very ancient civilization and a tradition of stressing the importance of the individual's rights. Miss Rau pointed out. India does not want Communism, but wants to take the best from each world government and formulate its own policy. India desires Democracy but knows it cannot afford American Democracy, and is striving to set a pace not only for its own country but for all of Asia; because any world ideology must be acceptable to the peoples of Asia first since they comprise more than half of the world's population.

National Library Week April 16-22

Displays In Regional Libraries Depict Theme "Wake Up And Read"

"Wake Up and Read" is the slogan for National Library Week, April 16-22, and everyone is urged to do just that, also to see the attractive displays in the libraries of the Muscle Shoals area. They are very attractive to say the least.

Those libraries which are displaying attractive settings are Leighton Library, Sheffield Library, Helen Keller Library of Tusculum, and Florence-Lauderdale Muscle Shoals Regional Library, headquarters for the region.

In Leighton, there is a banner across the main street proclaiming National Library Week with the main project to get people to buy books from the Leighton Library; at Sheffield, an alluring window display using mobiles is displayed, using the theme, "Wake Up and Read;" at the Helen Keller Library an exhibit of books of the 1800's and 1900's for children are on display and quite charming while at the Muscle Shoals Regional Library in Florence, the window displays a miniature copy of the library and also one of a bookmobile, and in the background, a silhouette of a school, church, farm and industrial plant stressing the different occupations the people of Florence are associated with and the theme, "Your Public Library Helps You."

Eight men were aboard the bomber, three of which lost their lives.

He became the first foreigner to ever win the Masters Golf Tournament and netted himself $20,000 in prize money.

regulations of the Act and subject to these penalties.

It was also pointed out that banks under the Alabama constitution may not be allowed to charge a greater interest rate than any other lender . . . any law which includes banks must, therefore be open to all other lenders.

Normal charges such as credit life insurance or ordinary hazard insurance such as fire, theft, liability are allowed. All such charges are specified in the bill and no other charges may be made.

A vigorous battle in the legislature is expected, opposition being expected from unscrupulous lenders who are currently lending in excess of the rates specified in the proposed bill. Small loan companies, it was pointed out, who are now able to lend up to the present ceiling of $300 will not object to the passage of this act.

He stressed the importance of the Freedom Shrine, containing copies of such immortal documents as the Declaration of Independence, The Bill of Rights, and the Constitution, which he said are our guarantees of freedom and security and which we should guard and cherish as did the founding fathers of this nation.

The program was concluded with the rendition of the Star Spangled Banner by the Burrell-Slater band, chorus and audience, the retiring of the colors, and benediction by the Rev. C. D. Fox.

JESSE ALBERT KELLER

Following a most enlightening discussion on the progress of Florence and the wonderful people who have contributed to making it a most delightful place in which to live, Mr. Keller stressed the fact that his principal interest, next to that of his law practice, was serving education in Florence.

"Of all my civic activities - and I trust that some of my efforts have been fruitful - I have enjoyed my work with the Board of Education the most," he said. "This service has been rewarding as well as challenging and I look forward to having a part in the steady growth and improvement of our educational system."

"I must add," Mr. Keller said, "the smartest move I ever made was deciding to locate in Florence. The community offers everything one could desire."

Jesse A. Keller was born in Montgomery, December 16, 1927, the son of Charles S. and Byrd Oldacre Keller. When he was two years old, his father moved to Abbeville where he attended elementary school and was graduated from Marion Military Institute in 1945. While at Marion he was a sergeant and squad leader.

Following his graduation from Marion, Mr. Keller entered Auburn and remained there for two semesters but interrupted his education in 1946 when he entered Army service. He received his basic infantry training at Fort Jackson, Columbia, S.C., later being assigned as a machine gun squad leader. In 1947, he was ordered to Korea where he remained until 1948. After this term of duty, he returned to the States and in March, 1948, was discharged at Seattle, Wash. with the rank of Corporal.

After his discharge, Mr. Keller re-entered Auburn where he continued his studies in pre-law. While at Auburn, he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity, Tau Kappa Alpha, National Forensic honorary fraternity, Lambda Epsilon Chi, honorary pre-law fraternity and Alpha Phi Omega, National Service honorary fraternity. He also was a member of the Varsity Debating Council.

After completing his pre-law work in 1949, Mr. Keller entered the University of Alabama law school and received his L.L.B. degree in 1952. While attending the University, he was a member of Quadrangle and was an honor military student. Following his graduation, Mr. Keller came to Florence where he entered into the practice of law.

Mr. Keller was married to Betty Boulter, of Thomasville, August 30, 1951. They have two daughters, Nan, 5, and Cindy, 3.

He is a member and past president of the Kiwanis Club, member of the City Board of Education, past co-chairman of the Red Cross fund campaign and has served on the speakers' committee of the United Fund. He is president of the Florence Chamber of Commerce and is past president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. During his term as president of the Jaycees, he headed the campaign that resulted in bringing voting machines to Lauderdale county, a project of which he says he is very proud to have had a part. He is a member and director of the Saddle and Spur Aquatic Club and a member of Turtle Point Yacht and Country Club.

Mr. Keller is a member and past president of the Lauderdale County Bar Association, member of the Board of Zoning Adjustment, member of the State Docks Board and aided in the organization of the local Legal Aid Society.

He is an active member of Woodmont Baptist Church in Edgemont and teacher of a Sunday School class.

He enjoys reading books that have a historical background and spends much of his spare time in searching out the nation's historical records.

Mr. Keller has made an important place for himself in the scheme of things in Florence. He is active in civic and church affairs and is a leader in the improvement of our educational facilities. In all of his efforts for the betterment of our community, he is recognized as a sound thinker and an able contributor to things worthwhile.

Miss Darnall, Mr. Champion Say Vows In Trinity Church

Tapers glowed at the altar and against the stained glass windows of Trinity Episcopal Church, Florence, and groupings of greenery accented arrangements of white blossoms to fashion the setting on Saturday evening for the nuptials of Elizabeth Glenn Darnall and Jasper Knight Champion of Montgomery. The Reverend Edward G. Mullen, rector of the church, was the officiating clergyman.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Theodore Gerber of Florence and the late Marcy Brawshaw Darnall; the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McWhorter Champion of Hayneville.

Thomas N. Smith, Jr., and Richard Parker, Jr., served as acolytes and music was presented by Mrs. John Den Boer, organist.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Theodore Gerber, the bride wore ivory peau de soie with low squared neckline, deep yoke of pearl-embroidered Alencon lace and short, shirred sleeves distinguishing the bodice, and godet panels of the same lace complementing the skirt. Her heirloom veil was brought from Brussels by her aunt, Mrs. Arnold Smith of Montgomery, for her own wedding and has since been worn by each family-bride. Her only ornament, a single strand of pearls, was a gift from the bridegroom and she carried white orchids clustered with Stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Franks of Nashville was her sister's honor attendant; bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald C. Duor, San Francisco; Mrs. Everett E. Searcy, Birmingham; Mrs. Robert L. Scarbrough, sister of the bridegroom, Montgomery; Miss Marilyn Wilson, Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania; Mrs. George Elmore, Florence; Mrs. Thomas Suratt, Birmingham; Mrs. Edwin Jantz, Atlanta; and little Deborah Franks, niece of the bride was flower girl.

They wore floor-length gowns of Hawaiian cherry silk organza with close-fitting bodices and bell-shaped skirts. Of muted print taffeta were their obi sashes and of white roses and feathered carnations their cascade bouquets. Bits of veiling detailed their tiered headresses.

Mr. Champion was his son's best man; groomsmen were his brother, Stewart Champion, Jr.; the bride's brother, Marcy Bradshaw Darnall; Robert L. Scarbrough, Montgomery; James Terrance, Demopolis; Donald Fuller, Kenner, La.; Charles Haigler, Jr., Fort Deposit; V. J. Thacker, Tuscaloosa; Harold Pate, Lowmesboro; and Robin Wade, Birmingham.

For the wedding and the reception to which she and Mr. Gerber were host immediately afterward at Florence Golf and Country Club, Mrs. Gerber, mother of the bride, chose a gown of pastel blue chiffon; Mrs. Champion's gown of taffeta was also of blue and white orchids were pinned at the shoulder of each.

Assisting with the reception courtesies were Mrs. Frank Perry, Mrs. Van Arnold, Mrs. David Harrison, Mrs. George E. Roulac, Mrs. Edward A. O'Neal, Mrs. Thomas N. Smith, Mrs. Clifford Simmons, Mrs. Emerson Lucas, Mrs. Walter Matthews, Mrs. Morton Levin, Mrs. Morris Shipper, Mrs. George Ellis, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Palmer, Mrs. Jack Dabney, Thomas Scheussler, Fred Osborn, Jr., Mrs. Guy Franks, Mrs. W. H. Comer, Mrs. Albert Martin, Mrs. Charles Poelnitz, Mrs. J. Thomas Reeder, Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Mrs. Fred Osborn and Mrs. John Perry Dabney, Jr.

Before leaving for their honeymoon in Gatlinburg, Mrs. Champion changed to a beige ensemble with which she wore matching accessories.

Following the rehearsal of plans on Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Champion, parents of the bridegroom, entertained the wedding party, family members and out-of-town guests at The Town Club. The supper table was arranged for forty.

Here for the event were Col. and Mrs. Howard Clauch, Mr. and Mrs. Larue Hagler, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. C. Haigler, Mrs. Maurice Marlette, all of Hayneville; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Champion, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. James Aiken, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Maida Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Scarbrough, all of Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. W.

C. Bragg, Dabney and Martha, Fayette; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leathwood, Jr., Selma; Miss Elizabeth Shelton, Newman, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Miller, Huntsville; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith, Athens.

Miss Ellen Joy White Bride Of Dr. Preston S. Trousdale

In a late afternoon ceremony on Saturday, April eighth, Miss Ellen Joy White became the bride of Dr. Preston Simpson Trousdale in Florence's First Methodist Church with Dr. R. Lambuth Archibald, minister, reading the half past four o'clock vows. Nuptial music was presented by Walter Urban, organist, and John H. Voorhies, vocal soloist.

Against a background of glossy magnolia foliage the altar was lighted by cathedral candles and marked at the chancel by arrangements of Easter lilies intermixed with white stock. Tall white tapers nestled with greenery against the sanctuary's stained glass windows.

Daughter of Mrs. William McKinley White of Huntsville and the late Mr. White, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, William Legg White of Athens. Of her own handiwork was the gown of candlelight silk organza over peau de soie which she wore for her wedding occasion. A high round neckline, tapering sleeves fastened to midarm with tiny self-covered buttons and a wide crushed cummerbund distinguished the bodice, while the skirt, falling straight at the front and back, gathered fullness from soft pleats at either side and extended into a small train. A French rose of organza was the headpiece from which her veil of triple illusion fell and she carried a bouquet of white roses and wore a bracelet which was a gift to the bridegroom's mother from his father during their courtship of a generation past.

Mrs. John W. Rheney, Jr., of Orangeburg, South Carolina, twin sister of the bride, and little Elizabeth Joy Rheney, her niece and namesake, were her attendants. They wore identically fashioned frocks of Dior blue silk organza, ankle length in front and sweeping to floorlength at the back, and matching flat-bow headresses with wisp veils. Nosesays of Better Times roses were their bouquets.

Dr. Trousdale, son of Mrs. Albert Johnson Trousdale, Sr., and the late Mr. Trousdale, was attended by his twin brother, Albert J. Trousdale, as best man and groomsmen were his brother-in-law, Warden Harold Cook of Lake Orion, Mich., William Shepard King and Dr. Carl Freeman Luckey.

Mrs. White, mother of the bride, wore ice blue silk organza with matching small hat and accessories and Mrs. Trousdale, mother of the bridegroom, chose Dior blue with hat of braided silk and white accessories. White Philadelphus orchids were pinned at the shoulder of each.

Assisting at the reception to which the bride's mother was hostess at The Town Club immediately after the ceremony were Mrs. Carlos Moore, Mrs. Charles E. Boudreau, Mrs. Hilman H. Holland, sisters of the bride; Mrs. William L. White and Mrs. James M. White, her sisters-in-law; Mrs. Warden Cook, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Albert J. Trousdale, his sister-in-law; Mrs. Robert O. Cox, Mrs. E. B. Halton, Jr., Mrs. William S. King, Mrs. Raphael Thompson, Mrs. Richard Baxter and Miss Marie West.

For travel, the bride wore a beige and white cotton brocade suit, bone accessories and a corsage of cream cymbidium orchids. Dr. and Mrs. Trousdale will be at home upon their return at 800 Sannoner Avenue, Florence.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Trousdale and Mr. and Mrs. Warden Cook were hosts to a bridal dinner at The Town Club on Friday evening at six, using stock, tulips and narcissi to decorate their table and including thirty family members of the bride and groom in the invitations.

Philip Read Curran Weds Miss Grandin Of Australia

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Patrick Curran of the marriage of Miss Shirley Joy Grandin of Sydney, Australia, and New York City and their son, Philip Read Curran, also of New York.

The bride is Fashion Coordinator for a television network and Mr. Curran is director of Client Relations for United Press International.

The April fifth ceremony was performed locally as a courtesy to the bridegroom's parents and, after a brief visit with them, the couple left Saturday to be at home in New York.

Party-Filled Calendar Precedes Saturday's Vows

Beginning with the announcement of her engagement several weeks ago, Betty Darnall (Mrs. Jasper Champion, as of Saturday evening) continued in a party whirl up to, and through, her wedding day.

Coming from Nashville to serve as her sister's honor attendant, Mrs. Robert Franks arrived well in advance of the event to attend prenuptial affairs and to co-hostess with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Guy Franks of Sheffield, at a punch party on Tuesday afternoon, April 4, where white tulips, blossoming dogwood and tall white tapers fashioned the decorative background.

bert Martin, aunts of the honoree, assisted with the courtesies, Mrs. Arnold welcomed arriving guests and Mrs. Martin presiding at the serving table where punch was dipped from the top of a great silver epergne with blossoming dogwood filling its lower section.

The bride-elect wore a beige silk frock fashioned of material sent from Japan by a former Lindenwood College classmate. Guests numbered thirty.

Also a pre-wedding courtesy to Saturday's bride was The Town Club brunch to which Mrs. Morton Levin and Mrs. Morris Shipper were hostesses on Wednesday, the fifth, including in their round dozen guests Mrs. John Perry Dabney, recent bride of the honoree's cousin, and marking the two bride-places with tiny white nosesays and miniature bridal couples.

"Spring bonnet" centerpieces on the serving tables were colorful with tulips and lilac "trimmings" and, at smaller tables where guests were seated, pastel covers and mixed bouquets were the appointments.

The honor guest wore natural linen with tangerine accents.

Mrs. Thomas N. Smith and Mrs. David L. Harrison curtsied to the bride with an afternoon tea on Wednesday, appointing the rooms of the Smith home on Hermitage Drive with pink and white flowering arrangements and welcoming sixty guests between the hours of four and five-thirty.

Thursday's party, a shower, was hosted by bride-to-be Betty's aunt and cousin, Mrs. Albert Martin, and daughter, Mrs. Everett Searcy, at the Martin home on Kendrick Street.

Taken completely unawares was Betty's mother, Mrs. Theodore Gerber, whose birthday on the sixth was also remembered by the eighteen gift-bringing guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Overton Dabney honored his granddaughter and her fiancé with a luncheon at The Town Club on Friday, including in their hospitality to the bridal party and family members, out-of-town wedding guests and a few close friends.

Two luncheons were noontime features of the wedding day (Saturday)—Mrs. Van Arnold's at The Town Club where she used bouquets of lilacs, pink tulips and yellow narcissi and included on her guest list the out-of-town contingent, and Mrs. Frank M. Perry's at her home on North Pine Street where she welcomed the bride and her 'maids in a courtesy reminiscent of those extended prior to the bride's parents' wedding day, and on her sister's.

The wedding took place at eight o'clock in the evening.

THE SPILLWAY

Call it news, or call it rumors,
Concerning so-and-so.
But we ALL want to be Among those in "the know."

(WHICH PLEASES US NO END, since it is the raison d'être for your truly) Reminding us . . . it was called to our attention (by an unknown informant) that in mentioning the beards among us in last week's column, we left out the Big Boss of the Centennial here in Lauderdale County, which was an even more blatant oversight since Mr. Chairman is sporting one of the most handsome of the bearded faces . . . SO we want to call attention, with warm admiration, to the name and face of our Rebel friend, "Rut" Cunningham. Under such able leadership the Centennial celebration should be an outstanding event, and it should follow that "the South's gonna rise again."

OUR LOSS — and it's Gadsden's gain. We're many strong in lamenting the approaching departure of Norma and Otto Burton, who haven't been with us nearly long enough. The professional life of our city will suffer the loss of "the Doc," we're sure, but we've heard lots of regrets among their many friends, and we personally hate to see their lovely home in Hickory Hills "disrobed" of the charming furnishings which they've collected on their sojourns all over the world, making their home one of outstanding beauty.

WHICH REMINDS US that we want to welcome Carrie Jean and Bill (also Doctor) Rye, who're now established in their home out on Lamar street — and Bill is the new pill-pusher (no disrespect intended) out at Reynolds Plant.

WITH MIXED FEELINGS, we must admit, we heard of the trip made this past week by Noel Morse, the Youth Director at the First Presbyterian Church. We are glad that she had such a pleasant journey (and we hear that she returned home with the most becoming stars in her eyes), but, if the well-known bells are being polished, we just hope that we'll be welcoming a groom and not waving farewell to the bride.

THE HOSTESS WHO WASN'T THERE was Mary Nell Harrison, whose "abed-mend" out at ECM kept her from the party she and Edna Earle Smith had planned to honor bride-Betty Darnall. . . . But we understand that pinch-hitters were volunteering on all sides, and that the party, at the Smith home on Hermitage Drive couldn't have been lovelier, lacking only Mary Nell to greet her guests. (We are glad to report that Mary Nell is reported on-the-mend, and promises no "repeats.")

"A DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE" would have been more than an understatement out at John (Dr.) Rice's place on the lake when he and his professional partner Quint Langstaff had a medically-stag party for the groom-doctor Trousdale. It seems that Aline (Rice) and Ann (Langstaff) were on hand to prescribe and administer delicious food, so there's no wonder that the party is still being diagnosed as a successful operation.

OUR BEST WISHES and sincerest congratulations to Maxie and Bill Eastep upon the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary observed last Sunday when fifty members of the two families . . . which included the honorees . . . gathered to celebrate the wonderful event that brought back cherished memories to the very, very happy couple. . . .

AND IT WAS NOT ONE BUT TWO beautiful weddings we had on Saturday last when Betty Darnall and Joseph Champion were married at the Trinity Episcopal Church, and when Joy White and Preston Trousdale were married at the First Methodist. Betty was carrying on the tradition of being a radiant bride in the Brussels lace veil, which was first worn by her aunt (and our good friend) Dorothy (Dabney) Smith, now of Montgomery . . . And our other bride, Joy, won the admiration of all, not only because she was a beautiful bride, but because she had designed AND created her exquisite bridal gown.

A FAVORITE HOME AMONG US has long been the Ada Coffee home on East Tuscaloosa street, so we're "muchly" pleased to see that its present occupants, William and Rachel Graham, are making it even more attractive with some modernizing work going full speed. We're watching the work progress with interest, and looking forward to seeing the final results.

HOPE YOU WERE THERE, and we must admit, we didn't make it this time. But we hear that the Boy Scout Exhibit which was held on two nights last week proved what a smart and active group of boys we have around us, with displays and demonstrations which were the result of much work and planning . . . on the part of the boys themselves, and also on the part of the volunteer adult leaders.

CONGRATULATIONS to the local concert association on their excellent program planned for next season . . . and especially if they bring, as we've heard they MIGHT, the Broadway production of "The Miracle Worker," which would be such an appropriate presentation here in Helen Keller's birthplace. We hear that membership is still open, and we might add that we feel that this is a group that deserves our civic backing and our personal endorsement and support, in return for which we can receive real pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastep Feted On "Golden Wedding" Day

Only family members were included in invitations extended by Mr. and Mrs. Sid Waller to an informal afternoon tea on Sunday, April 9, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Eastep, were honor guests on their Golden Wedding Anniversary was the party inspiration.

The long time Eastep family home (Mr. Eastep is a native Floridian) at 515 North Poplar Street was a bloom for the occasion with Spring bouquets in the entrance hall, pink glads in the blue-walled living room, and a centerpiece of yellow roses on lace over yellow satin appointing the party table.

Mrs. Eastep (the former Maxie Ramsey of neighboring Colbert County) greeted arriving guests wearing Dior blue silk and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Assisting were Mrs. Wayland McKinney, Mrs. Reed Friar, Mrs. Odie Ramsey and the hosts' daughter, Miss Kathy Waller. Hours were from three 'til five and well wishers numbered about fifty.

New Members MSSL Presented At Ball

The Presentation Ball of eighteen new members who have completed their provisional training for membership in Muscle Shoals District Service League took place at Florence Golf and Country Club on Friday evening.

An oriental decorative theme prevailed in the ballroom. There were great golden butterflies posed against a black-lacquered backdrop; there was a Japanese bridge; and there were multi-colored lanterns suspended from the ceiling and a tea-house from which the new members were presented by Jack Coursey to League president Mrs. Howard Johnson, each receiving a fan to which a nosegay of pastel blossoms was pinned.

Lanterns and flower bouquets marked each small table and an array of exquisite dolls from Mrs. Dan Tallman's collection decorated the buffet and mantel.

Presented on this occasion were Mrs. Maurice Allen, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Wm. R. Cadenhead, Mrs. George Ellis, Mrs. R. D. Holmway, Mrs. Robert O. Hyde, Mrs. James H. Johnson, Mrs. O. T. McFarland, Jr., Miss Polly Wade, Mrs. William Shelby, Mrs. Henry Tyree, Mrs. Lewis Biggerstaff, Mrs. Robert G. Mullen, Mrs. Warren Nesmith, Mrs. E. Paul Stephenson, Mrs. Winston Whitfield, Mrs. James Patterson and Mrs. Charles Tomlinson.

Music for the occasion was by Virginia Robbins' orchestra.

Mrs. Barnes Hostess Florence Garden Club

Florence Garden Club members named officers to serve during the year ahead at their meeting of Wednesday, the fifth, when Mrs. R. C. Barnes was hostess in Holiday Inn's Patio Room. The slate includes Mrs. I. S. Davidson who will serve a second presidency; Mrs. Frank H. Perry, vice-president; Mrs. Earl Stamps, secretary; Mrs. R. H. Old, treasurer; and Mrs. Charles VanBibber, parliamentarian.

Mrs. H. E. Pope and Mrs. Glenn Kirk were welcomed into club membership during the business session, and a special outstanding contribution to the Fragrance Garden at Talladega was made in honor of three outstanding members, Mrs. D. T. Wilcoxson, Mrs. H. E. McCool and Mrs. VanBibber.

The program, in two parts, was presented by forester J. E. Gibbons who showed the life story of pine trees in film, and Mrs. McCool who discussed acid and alkaline soils and the suitability of plants for each.

Mrs. Quinton Mays was a special guest for the program and the refreshment hour which followed.

Current Events Club Hears Guest Speaker

Members of Current Events Club gathered last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. T. Hackworth on Chisholm Road to hear Miss Nell Peerson, guest speaker, discuss the work which is exceedingly close to her heart and to which she gives both time and effort, the Literary Program.

Among other experiences, Miss Peerson told of attending the White House Conference on Education in Washington, a few weeks ago. She spoke of the world situation which has made necessary utilization of every human resource; of the lack of knowledge (even of the ability to read and write) which exists to a marked degree in the Southeast; of the TV project for research purposes; and she gave levity to her talk with anecdotes of happenings with which she and her volunteer workers are often faced. Next year's slate of officers was named as follows: Mrs. Jewell Archer, president; Mrs. B. V. Bender, vice-president; Mrs. Fred Long, secretary.

First Methodist Sets New Record

New Members Added During 185 Successive Sundays To Church Roll

Florence First Methodist Church has set what some of the officials feel is a record of consecutive Sundays of having persons join their Church.

Easter Sunday made a total of 185 Sundays in succession that at least one new member has been added to the Church roll. "As a matter of fact," Dr. R. Lambuth Archibald, Pastor, said, "during this time we have had 576 new members for an average of more than three each week."

It all started on September 22, 1957, the date of Dr. Archibald's first Sunday in his current appointment. Mrs. Archibald was the member announced at that time, coming as a transfer from East Lake Methodist in Birmingham.

The newest members, joining on Easter, are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gandy, 1977 Holiday Drive, Florence. They came from West Park Methodist in Jackson, Mississippi. The Church membership now totals 2,567, making it among the large churches of the North Alabama Conference. There are 830 active family units.

Come to Church for Services

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER—STAYS TOGETHER"

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

| Day | Book | Chapter | Verses |
|-----------|----------------|---------|--------|
| Sunday | I Corinthians | 12 | 12-21 |
| Monday | Zechariah | 4 | 1-5 |
| Tuesday | Matthew | 6 | 1-4 |
| Wednesday | Psalm | 24 | 1-4 |
| Thursday | II Corinthians | 12 | 14-15 |
| Friday | Genesis | 49 | 48-49 |
| Saturday | Matthew | 28 | 18-20 |

When someone says, "It's for you," our minds begin to buzz with questions. Who is it? What do they want? Good news? Bad News? Work? Pleasure?

It's for you! Commanding words that summon our immediate attention. And those words apply as well to the Church as they do to a telephone call.

The Church is for you! Its services of worship, its program of religious education, its comforting ministrations in time of spiritual crisis... all for you!

And the Church has a vital message—good news for a discouraged world. It has a glorious work before it—a happy fellowship for men, women, and children of noble purpose.

The Church deserves your support. It's for you!

LOSS CAUSED BY BRUISED ANIMALS

The $50 million that the livestock industry loses annually because of animals being bruised is an unnecessary waste.

Otis Russell, Auburn Extension livestock marketing specialist, says that the Alabama Meat Packers Association is urging the cooperation of livestockmen in reducing this waste. The association recommends that canvas slappers replace sticks and bludgeons in livestock yards and that padding be placed on loading and tagging chutes, cornerposts, and other places where animals are likely to bruise themselves.

Russell adds that care in loading, unloading, and hauling will also protect animals from bruises.

Parents of the Future Farmers of America and the Future Homemakers of America were guests on April 6 at a fashion show and an award presentation service in the high school auditorium.

With Cora Sue Waddell at the piano and Judy Howard narrating, the girls modeled their frocks with the poise and experience of professionals and their various outfits themselves looked as if they had been made by professionals. Members of the adult sewing class which met after school added an interesting note to the show by modeling the things they had made with their children appearing with them.

The parents and guests were welcomed by James Lard, president of the F.F.A.

Clara Gautney gave the devotion. Linda McGill and Dwight Middlebrooks sang.

Nelda Romine, F.F.A. president, was selected as the most outstanding member of the local club and was introduced by Mrs. Jerry Albers, her instructor. Judy Dollar, Miss F.F.A. was recognized and her picture will be in the yearbook.

During the brief intermission between the programs, Roger Burch and Earl Walden entertained the guests with songs and amusing imitations.

In a panel discussion led by Lonnie Smith, the F.F.A. members discussed "Why Boys Should Take Vocational Agriculture."

Awards were presented to Larry Lovell and Larry Bailey for corn growing; Harris Holoway the Farm Electrification Award; Jerry McMasters the Farm Mechanics Award; Alton Bedingfield and James tied for Thor Research Certificate of Merit in Farming Mechanics; The public speaking award went to James Jackson; Donnie Bills received the DeKalb Agricultural Accomplishment Award; James Lard was named the chapter's Star Farmer and also received the Home Improvement Award. James Barnett, local citizen, who is associated with the soil conservation program in the county spoke briefly on same and stated that county wide soil judging team was in second place. Donnie Bills of the judging team was recognized. C. J. Pennington is the Vocational Agriculture instructor. The Home Economics and Vocational Agriculture departments were open after the program and work done by both groups was on display.

From a large refreshment table, overlaid with blue cutwork cloth with yellow tapers burning, guests were served from huge trays of tiny sandwiches and cookies. A fruit julep was served with them by Nelda Romine, Judy Dollar, Judy Howard and Judy Felker. Special out-of-town guests for the occasion were Miss Sue Dawson, Northwest District Home Economics Supervisor for Alabama; Miss Louise Comer and Miss Lillian Haygood, Guidance Counselor for Lauderdale County.
