UN Hand Strengthened

A resolution authorizing the U.N. General Assembly to use force in preventing intervention by the U.S. in the Korean crisis was expected to pass today. The resolution, sponsored by the U.S. and China, was approved by the U.N. General Assembly on Friday, and it was expected to be adopted today. The resolution was supported by 53 countries, including the U.S., and it was opposed by 14 countries, including the Soviet Union, China, and the U.N. Secretariat.

Negroes Hit at UN

On Wednesday, Negroes in the U.N. General Assembly building were asked to leave by the United Nations Security Council. Negroes had been protesting the UN's failure to adopt a resolution condemning racial discrimination and apartheid. The protesters were told to leave by the United Nations Security Council, which was meeting in emergency session. The protesters refused, and they were told that they would be arrested if they did not leave.

Memphis Reappraisals for TV Power

The Memphis Light, Gas & Water Division of the City of Memphis has been re-evaluating its power plant plans. The re-evaluation is part of a larger effort to ensure that the city’s power plants are as efficient as possible. The re-evaluation process includes an analysis of the city’s power generation and distribution systems, as well as an assessment of the city’s energy demand.

OCTOBER PEACOCK

The date of October 1, 1946, is significant for me and me because it was at that time when we came to North Alabama, the City of Florence and Florence State College. We are happy to live in such a fine and progressive community and to be associated with a college that does more than to teach the sons of men in this area. Our work at the college is an important part of our lives, and we feel that we have made a valuable contribution to the community.

Restrictions On Sunday Selling

To Be Outlined

The Florence City Commission will consider a resolution on Sunday selling at its meeting this week. The resolution will outline the regulations that will apply to Sunday selling in Florence. The commission has received a number of complaints about Sunday selling in the city, and it is expected that the resolution will be discussed at the meeting.

ROGERSVILLE

At a recent meeting at the Christian Women's group, a new chapter of the church was organized with Mrs. Velma Vaughan, Mrs. Wilma Bibb, Mrs. Valma Roberson, Mrs. Mildred Shaw, and others attending. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Faye McCord, who is the new Director of the group. The group is now being held at the Rogersville Baptist Church. The meeting was well attended and the group is now being held on the second Thursday of each month. Among those attending were Mrs. Faye McCord, Mrs. Doris Bibb, Mrs. Valma Roberson, Mrs. Velma Vaughan, and Mrs. Wilma Bibb.

STORCH DIAPER SERVICE
For Sale.

With the end of the year, many families are looking for ways to save money on diapers. Storck Diaper Service offers a solution by providing high-quality diapers at an affordable price. The service is available to families in the surrounding area and offers a range of options to suit different needs.

THE FLORENCER ADVANCE
Thursday, February 21, 1961

The subject is Mrs. Mary Dorsey of Florence. When she had committed the money to the local church, she decided to start a diaper service to help others. The service has been very successful and has helped many families save money on diapers.

The story is of a woman who, after her husband passed away, decided to start a diaper service to help others. She was able to save money on diapers and pass it on to others who needed it. The service has been very successful and has helped many families.
