By HAROLD S. MAY

Long-time ago Lauderdale County Superintendent of Education, Homer L. Reeder, we are told, would have been present at the Florence State breakfast in Birmingham during the AEA. Presented to the great group by President E. B. Norton, we learn that our esteemed friend took over and from the oh's and ah's that were heard around the room as he quoted stanzas of poetry one after another, it was soon seen that the women in the audiences were the most thrilled.

Rear engine cars enable a lot of motorists to put their troubles behind them.

Two men, who had come to know each other a short time before this chance meeting, had visited in each other's home. This day, one of them carried a package that he was unsuccessful in his efforts to hide. Finally, he just came out with it: "I got this bottle of brandy for my mother-in-law." "Golly," he remarked, "what a marvelous exchange."

The best measure of a gentleman is his respect for those who can do nothing for him.

Then there's the story about the American and the Dutchman who were busily engaged in discussing their respective flags. "The Netherlands flag, the Dutchman explained, has three stripes—red, white and blue. 'We say,' he went on, 'the colors have a connection with our taxes. We get red when we talk about them, white when we get our tax bills, and we pay them until we are blue in the face. 'Don't try to be funny,' the American said. 'That's the way it is here except we also see stars.'"

It's awfully hard to be amusing when you're suffering from a cold, sore throat, aching muscles and joints and the thermometer is registering 103°.

The young swain was truly down in the dumps. He hung his head, sighed repeatedly and was in the most dejected mood anyone could imagine. Finally a friend asked the romantic young man the trouble. He explained that after all these months of heavy courting, he had asked his beloved to marry him—and she refused. "Cheer up," advised the friend, "a woman's 'No' may often turn out to be 'Yes.' 'I know,' replied the grievously disappointed one, "but not when she added 'Aw phooey!'"

Some people hand out a compliment as if it was some sort of a reciprocal agreement.

A youngster was high-tailing it through a pasture, after breaking the window of a neighbor, and right behind him gaining all the way was a policeman, who, incidentally, was all winded. "What's the big idea breaking that window?" asked the law. The boy looked at the officer, then looked down at that big 44 hanging at his side and answered: "I was clearing my slingshot and it went off."

There's no problem spelling radar backwards.

Property Appraisals Completed

Widening Of North Pine And Overpass Approved

Two resolutions dealing with proposed work on North Pine Street which will be sent to the State Highway Department were approved Tuesday afternoon by the Florence City Commission when they agreed to give the state control of traffic during construction and that all traffic controls after construction must be approved by the state according to Mayor E. F. Martin. The matter is merely routine, and the resolutions have to be signed before the state will begin work.

The proposed widening of North Pine will begin just above West Irvine Avenue, following up North Pine to Cypress Mill Road, curving to the intersection of Houston, Cleveland and Sherrod Avenue with an overpass across Circular Road. Following the completion of work, no parking on either side of the street would be permitted since the widening is to give the city an alternate route through Florence to avoid traffic congestion along Wood Avenue and downtown.

The state has completed property appraisals along the street and will negotiate for rights-of-way with condemnation proceedings expected since some houses along the street are in the proposed rights-of-way.

The commissioners also approved of a $18,697 contract with Houston & Callahan Construction Company for curbs and gutters along Huntsville Road which are planned from a point 85 feet west of the west line of Blair Street eastwardly to Franklin Street and from North Crown Street to Wilson Dam Road.

A public hearing was conducted at the conclusion of the meeting on the proposed Bunting Hill sanitary sewer which the commissioners approved; only three of sixty property owners had previously protested the sewer project which will cost approximately $3.87 per front foot, according to city engineer, William A. White.

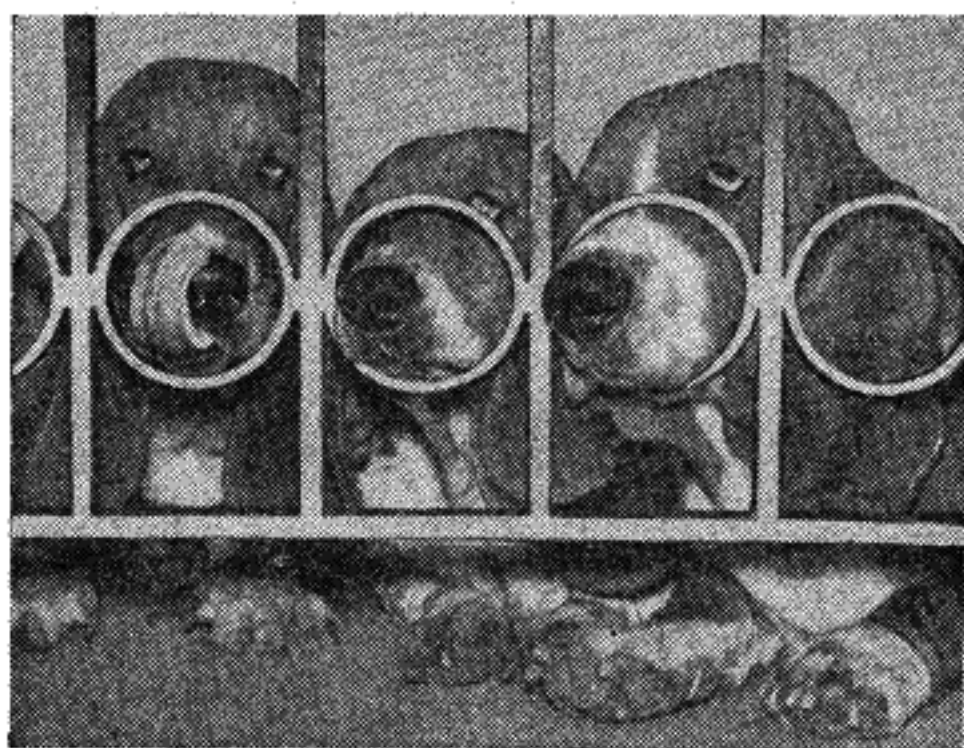

Annual F-Day Game Saturday

Florence State Lions To Show Wares In Annual Kiwanis-Sponsored Tilt

The Florence State Lions football forces have been practicing hard in preparation for the F-Day football game when they will take to their rival Purple and Gold squads and get ready to square off in Coffee Stadium Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Although the pairings haven't been made, Coach Self will try to get the best combinations he can to give the fans a tossup bout, however, offense will probably steal the show as is normal in most spring games because of the lack of emphasis on defense.

The Florence Kiwanis Club and the FSC Circle K Club is sponsoring the game with proceeds to go to the club's various charities.

More Planting Of Cotton Predicted For Lauderdale

Five Hundred More Acres Released Than Last Year In County

All indications point to a heavy-planting of cotton this year in Lauderdale county, buoyed by the slightly higher support prices and the fact that many growers must plant after two non-planting years in order to retain acreage allotments.

Thursday afternoon, county ASC office managers were reporting totals to the State ASC office, where they were tabulated and determination made as to which, if any, counties are given additional acreage. Lauderdale county was given slight amounts by the State last year, however, this appears unlikely this year, in the face of the growing tendency to plant and not release acreage.

Without any acreage from the State, the local county cotton growers should raise more cotton this year than last due to increased basic allotments given earlier. For instance, while Lauderdale received a plus 3,000-acre increase in allotment this year, they received only 1,100 extra acres from the State last year when there was more inclination to release than this year.

All of the local counties showed heavy requests for extra acres at the March 15 deadline, while only Lauderdale had as many acres released as last year. The figures in Lauderdale showed 3,869 acres released, 500 more than last year, while 6,733 acres were requested by farmers wanting more cotton.

Beard Growing Contest Planned

Merchants Offer $100 For Best Set Of Whiskers Grown For Centennial

A number of interesting contests are planned by the Colbert-Lauderdale Civil War Centennial Committee prior to the main observances scheduled in May. Now the least of these is the beard-growing contest announced by the merchants committee of the Florence Chamber of Commerce.

With a reward of $100 posted for the best-looking and most luxurious beard grown by a local citizen, sponsors feel certain there will be a considerable turnout. Men who have already started beards are eligible but those who regularly wear beards are not. They must be grown by non-wearers and judging will take place at the Confederate costume ball which will culminate the week of commemoration on Friday night, May 19, at the Coliseum in Florence. Anyone may attend the ball and beards are not compulsory, however all must be dressed in costume.

Another contest will be the choosing of the "Queen of Love and Beauty" with the coronation to take place at the pageant at Desher Stadium in Tusculum on the nights of May 17 and 18. The queen will be chosen from contestants from both counties with details of this contest to be announced in the near future. She and her court, chosen from runners-up in the contest will be presented at the ball.

Dr. Milton C. Dunn, chairman of the committee on civil war relics and displays, has announced that commemorative 50-cent pieces will be struck for the local observance and these will be distributed to merchants through the chambers of commerce for distribution to the general public. The coins will contain a memorial inscription for the Confederate State of America and the Muscle Shoals Civil War Centennial commemoration. Merchants desiring the coins should apply in writing to the Chamber of Commerce by April 1.

It is felt that the coins will be in great demand by the general public as keepsakes. They may be obtained in change when making purchases outright, it was stated.

American Legion To Meet Tonight

The meeting of Florence-Lauderdale Post No. 11, American Legion will hold a most important meeting at the Legion Home at 7:30 o'clock when plans will be made to bring the current membership campaign to a successful close. W. T. Shelby, adjutant, announced.

The local post joined with posts throughout the world last Friday night to observe the 42nd anniversary of the organization in Paris, France on March 15-17, 1919. Howell Heflin, Tusculum attorney and state leader in Legion affairs, made a most interesting and enlightening address.

Mr. Shelby asked that all who possibly can be to present tonight for this very special meeting.

Watershed Project On Cypress Creek Strongly Backed

Election Expected After Approval Of Subdistrict By Conservation Board

The Cypress Creek watershed project again received strong backing Thursday night at a meeting at Cloverdale school, when forty-seven of 75 landowners attending, including several hill land owners who did not suffer water damage last week, voiced approval of the flood control program and asked for the creation of a sub-district.

Approval of the sub-district is needed and expected from the Board of Directors of the Lauderdale Soil Conservation District after which an election will follow on creation of the sub-district with public polling places set up and the public notified of the election.

If the sub-district is approved, an application is filed with the State Soil Conservation Service for a charter after which formal application for federal funds is made and a state committee establishes the priority of the watershed.

The program which will take from four to seven years to complete would be carried out through a series of earthen dams and land treatment programs on 96,640 acres in Lauderdale and 42,000 acres in Wayne County, Tenn. at an estimated cost of $2,500,000.

Contracts Delayed On Armour Plant

Negotiating Expected To Continue Through April; Ground-Breaking Set

Officials of the Kellogg Company announced late Friday from New York negotiations on three major subcontracts to be let by the M. W. Kellogg Company of New York City in connection with the Armour Agricultural fertilizer plant in West Colbert County will continue through April due to delays and changes in the plans.

Some 100 acres must be graded under the contract on which a number of bids have already been submitted, with ten bidders having already forwarded proposals on the second major sub-contract which will include a dozen different buildings. The third sub-contract will be for six additional structures, including the administration building at the plant.

Hugh J. Schuck of the Kellogg Company said officials of the New York concern were planning to be in Colbert County for the ground breaking ceremony scheduled for Monday, April 17 and said he expected the construction contract on the first structures to be awarded within the next few days and the last contract around mid-April.

Circuit Court Judge Clifford C. Delony has scheduled validation proceedings on the $25,000,000 industrial development bond issue in Colbert Circuit Court for Saturday, March 25.

State May Make Study Cotton Mechanization

Land Bank Meet Set Friday 10 A.M.

TVA Agricultural Expert To Speak On Activities Of TVA In Shoals Area

L. N. Thompson, Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Florence, announced this week that the annual meeting of the stockholders will be held at the Florence-Lauderdale County Coliseum, Florence, Friday morning, at 10 o'clock.

An interesting program has been planned and Dr. Lewis B. Nelson, Manager of TVA's Office of Agricultural and Chemical Development will be the principal speaker. Dr. Nelson coordinates the activities of TVA's Fertilizer-Munitions Development Center at Muscle Shoals, and the nationwide programs of education in the use of fertilizer. His topic will be "Activities of TVA in Muscle Shoals Area."

Alabama may undertake a long range study of cotton mechanization looking toward a greater return to the state's cotton producers, in the plans of the Legislative Cotton Committee work out. They have the endorsement of Gov. John Patterson, who has promised his full support following a detailed outline of the plan by the committee's chairman, Rep. Bob Gilchrist of Decatur. The committee is seeking an appropriation of $100,000 to make the study.

Lt. Gov. Albert Boutwell, in commenting on the proposal, said "only substantial progress in mechanization can keep Alabama planters in business."

Chairman Gilchrist said that research on cotton mechanization so far has been in areas with climate and geography that did not compare to Alabama's. He added that mechanization offers growers in Alabama their "only way to compete with the cotton farmers of the far west."

Alabama's commissioner of agriculture, R. C. Bamberg, has endorsed the measure, it was stated.

Plans include the purchase and development of some 500 acres of land near Auburn to become the center of the research program and with the work to be carried on by the Extension Service with money provided to a large extent by the National Cotton Council. The committee has also launched a program now being carried on at four of the Extension Service's sub-stations. Ginners, warehousemen, seed crushers, fertilizer firms and so on, are being asked to donate toward a goal of $28,275 for the current year.

Expenditures would be made at the Tennessee Valley sub-station, the Sand Mountain sub-station, the Wiregrass sub-station and the main station at Auburn University. The money would be spent on research to improve the efficiency of mechanical cotton picking and weed control.

To expedite the delivery of large quantities of coal to the Tennessee Valley Authority the L&N Railroad on February 1 announced that it would construct an unloading terminal at Florence capable of handling a million tons of coal annually. This followed a rate agreement between the L&N and the TVA, and the agreement, it was stated, would allow TVA to satisfy its need for additional fuel at Colbert Steam plant at present undergoing a large expansion program.

The building of the unloading terminal also opened up other possibilities in the area of large bulk transportation as well as additional industrial possibilities, not the least of which is the completion of the State Docks and an agreement by the State to dredge a full-depth channel 100 feet wide for the length of the waterfront upstream from Dam No. 1 provided that the dredging costs are not prohibitive.

In cooperation with the state and other interested agencies involved the TVA's Maps and Survey Branch is undertaking an investigation to determine the amount and type of material to be removed from the bottom of the channel. This would determine the type of equipment the State would need to dredge the channel bottom in the least amount of time. It was stated that the TVA's analysis would be available in a few days.

State Docks Director Earl McGowan promised that he would do everything possible to open up the Florence waterfront and complete the local dock facilities as well as those on other navigable streams in the state. Such development, it was pointed out, would make available valuable sites for industry interested in utilizing waterfront and dock facilities.

The Court of County Commissioners, it was announced by Probate Judge Estes R. Flynt, Monday voted to sell a 25-acre tract along the waterfront to the city of Florence for $17,000. The county had purchased the tract in 1957 from the U.S. Pipe and Foundry Company for that amount in 1957 to keep it out of "speculation" and make sure it would be available for industrial development in that area.

Mayor E. F. Martin said Tuesday that the transfer of the property to the city had been completed. He also said that the city has agreed to deed approximately half of the property to the state in return for the development of the channel and waterfront facilities by the State Docks Department. Since the area is now being de-watered by the TVA which is in the process of developing its barge loading facilities, state engineers have stated that it is the ideal time to do the state's part in dredging the waterfront channel.

It was stated also that the eventual removal of Dam No. 1 has been considered by TVA because it will be of no further use and will present a hindrance to navigation.

The River Committee of the Florence Chamber of Commerce which initiated the dredging proposal is composed of Louis A. Eckl, chairman, H. M. Bobo, B. H. Craig, Jr., Dr. W. C. Doss, Charles Green, Dr. Fred J. McCallum, W. Howard Jones, E. A. Nelson, J. C. Roberts, James F. Thomas and Allen M. Northington.

Cost of the track and unloading facilities will cost in excess of $500,000 it was stated. L&N will haul the coal from Kentucky to the terminal where TVA will transport it in barges the 11 and one-half miles to the Colbert Steam Plant.

Let's Look Into The Past

In this technological age when mass production has brought shorter hours and working conditions never dreamed of a half century ago, we take for granted our high standard of living with its television, deep freeze, electronic cooking, high powered automobiles and jet planes. When something new comes out we buy it, many times when we don't even need it.

And so that we might appreciate this push-button age we live in just a little bit let's take a look at what some of our forebears had to put up with.

The following notice was actually posted in an American factory in 1872 as a policy statement for employees of the Mount Cory Carriage and Wagon Works:

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES

Effective September 15 the following rules will apply:

Office employees will daily sweep the floors, dust the furniture, shelves, and show-cases.

Each day fill lamps, clean chimneys, and trim wicks. Wash the windows once a week.

Each clerk will bring in a bucket of water and a scuttle of coal for the day's business.

Make your pens carefully. You may whittle your nibs in your individual taste.

This office will open at 7 A.M. and close at 8 P.M. daily, except on the Sabbath, on which day it will remain closed. Each employee is expected to spend the Sabbath by attending Church and contributing liberally to the cause of the Lord.

Men employees will be given an evening off each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week if they go regularly to church.

After an employee has spent 13 hours of labor in the office, he should spend the time reading the Bible and other good books while contemplating the Glories and building up of the Kingdom.

Every employee should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of his earnings for his benefit during his declining years, so that he will not become a burden upon the charity of his betters.

Any employee who smokes Spanish cigars, uses liquor in any form, gets shaved at a barber shop, or frequents pool and public halls, will give me good reason to suspect his worth, intentions, integrity, and honesty.

The employee who has performed his labors faithfully and without fault for a period of five years in my service, and who has been thrifty and attentive to his religious duties, is looked upon by his fellowmen as a substantial and law abiding citizen, will be given an increase of five cents per day in his pay providing a just return in profits from the business permits it.

On The March

The development of the Florence waterfront along the old canal site is one of the most important undertakings to the growth of the area in recent years. The opening of new sites for industry interested in water-rail transportation and shipping facilities is a forward step since Florence has been weak in the past with respect to this type of location for prospective manufacturing.

The development of the coal terminal by the L & N Railway and TVA and the dredging of a deep water channel and the completion of state dock facilities by the state, combine to bring to Florence inland waterfront advantages second to none in the state. Such expanding facilities tend to invite industry and it should not now be too difficult to convince prospective investors that Florence has what they need with respect to ideal location combining climate, river, rail, air and highway transportation, low cost electricity and freedom from floods.

However, this is no time for complacency. Industries will not come without work. Competition is keen in the Tennessee Valley and other sections of the south and Florence can only get her share by intelligent and intensive effort. With the added impetus of the waterfront development and important industries constructing plants in the vicinity, Florence should be definitely on the march.

TVA, A Going Concern

Each passing year the value of TVA becomes more apparent. Now with the agency's new bond financing system for new construction and expansion, TVA and the great valley it serves will move forward toward greater uses of electric power, increased utilization of its waterways, expanded recreational advantages and through resource planning more forest-product industries and a greater utilization of the valley's raw materials.

Flood control has effected a major saving to cities along the TVA lakes and tributary rivers.

The agency's contribution to the nation's defense is dramatically emphasized when it is pointed out that one of the two atomic energy plants operated in the valley consumes more electricity than the entire state of Texas. The two plants, one at Oak Ridge and the other at Paducah, took almost half of the entire 59.3 billion kw's sold in 1960.

The TVA is a going concern as seen in its substantially healthy financial reports, the Authority making regular payments to the U. S. Treasury on its original loan, each year cutting down both interest and principle. The TVA is not only self-amortizing but self-financing.

With a Democratic president working in conjunction with a Democratic congress, certainly a healthier climate prevails. What has too long been the nation's "football" should at long last come into its own.

Key Club Charter Program Tonight

The Coffee High School and Mars Hill Bible School Key Clubs will jointly hold their charter night program tonight at 7:00 p.m. at Coffee High School Cafeteria, sponsored by North Florence Kiwanis Club.

"Youth Serves Youth," the title given the program, will have featured guest speaker J. L. Nisbet of the University of Alabama who will give the address. Also on the agenda will be the installation of officers, members, presentation of chapters, banners and gifts and entertainment provided by each of the schools and Key Club members.

Carroll Reece Dies of Cancer

Republican, B. Carroll Reece, 71, of Tennessee, former Republican national chairman and long a power in that party, died Sunday of lung cancer. He entered the U. S. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Louise Goff Reece, and one daughter, Louise, now the wife of Col. George W. Marthens, of Washington.

Feds Smash Gambling Ring

Federal authorities smashed an alleged half million dollar a year gambling ring at the Pentagon last Wednesday, climaxing three to four months of super-secret investigation which showed that organized crime could force its way into even such a closely-guarded operation as the Defense Department. Their weight was estimated from 2½ to 3 pounds each and are in satisfactory condition, having been placed in isolettes. The couple has two other children.

State Ups Cotton Acreage

The Agriculture Stabilization Committee reported Friday 149,365 acres of cotton were released by 26,418 farmers in Alabama for reassignment to other farms during the year. The number of acres released for 1961 is approximately 14,700 acres more than was released in 1960. The additional acreage requested by other farmers is approximately 60,000 acres more than was requested last year.

Patrols Hunt "Leopard Men"

A joint patrol of Maylayan and Congolese soldiers left Kindu in Kivu, Sunday, for the district of Kasongo in a rare display of cooperation to join UN troops to stalk a band of cannibal "leopard men" who are threatening death to 31 white missionaries. The combined force had orders to drive the leopard men, members of the pagan Kitawala sect who are taught that whites have supernatural powers, and if they are slain and eaten, their powers are assumed by the cannibals, from the area.

Negroes Ordered Put on Voter List

Federal Judge, Frank M. Johnson, Jr., directed Macon County registration authorities to put the names of 64 Negroes on the voting list immediately along with a blueprint telling them how to go about it, after which he stated registrars will be under court order to treat all applicants alike, white and Negro, and to see that everyone who is qualified by law is given a chance to vote.

● The Air Force has charged Col. William M. Banks, Maj. William A. Sheppard, and Maj. Reginald L. Stark, with neglect of duty in connection with the deaths of 28 men on January 15 when a Texas Tower radar station tumbled into the Atlantic during a howling gale. The charges were based on the way the men "performed their duties immediately prior to the disaster" off the New Jersey coast, the Air Force stated.

● Cosby Johnson, one of three members of the Macon County voter registration board, submitted his resignation to Governor John Patterson, Tuesday without explanation, in the wake of a federal court order to allow all qualified Negroes to register. Despite his departure, the board can still function without him as under Alabama law two of the three members can perform the duties of accepting and processing applications of prospective voters.

Johnson said he felt his most urgent need at present was in providing a home for his family.

Medical Mirror

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:

Blood Test for Heart Attacks

- Pinworms
- Simple Explanation
- Bloody Urine
- Cold Milk

Q. Will you please write about the blood test for heart attacks?

A. You are probably referring to the "transaminase test." Various body tissues contain substances (enzymes) which seep into the blood stream when tissue is injured. The heart muscle, for example, contains transaminase, which is released following certain types of "heart attacks." By testing the blood for transaminase, doctors are able to better diagnose, treat, and follow the patient's progress.

Q. In Medical Mirror you said that pinworms are transferred from person to person. How?

A. Pinworms leave the lower intestinal tract of an infected person and lay eggs on the skin around the anal opening. Other people pick up the eggs from the patient's clothing or objects handled by the patient, or by swallowing airborne eggs or in various other ways.

Q. Is it harmful for a person to "put off" going to the bathroom to urinate?

A. Probably not, for males. For females it might definitely be harmful. The reason is that the female urethra (tube leading from bladder) is short. Unless it is frequently flushed out by urination, time is allowed for bacteria to get up into the bladder and cause infection. This would be less likely to occur when the urge is respected.

Q. If bloody urine turns normal after a day or so should you see a doctor?

A. Yes. You should have a thorough examination if you ever have blood in the urine. Otherwise, you are risking what could be a symptom of a serious condition requiring prompt treatment.

Q. Does the chilling of milk affect the vitamin and protein content?

A. No.

Our primary function is to provide prescription and related health services of the highest quality.

RAY PHILIP REED

"Loving the sport of fishing as I do, it was this that first attracted me to Florence," said Ray Reed when asked why he selected Florence as his home. "I was invited to take part in a fishing expedition, if such it might be called, below Wilson Dam and was so pleased with the results plus the sales talk of a friend who saw Florence as the most promising of all cities in Alabama, that Mrs. Reed and I decided that here was the place we should drop anchor," the former Navy man explained.

Ray Philip Reed was born in Fayette County, November 23, 1918, the son of Luther and Carrie King Reed. He attended Hubbertville Elementary School and was graduated from Lamar County High School at Vernon in 1937.

Following his graduation, he entered the U. S. Navy and received his boot training at Norfolk Naval Training Station. Following his employed by a medical laboratory as a technician. He continued in this position until December, 1941, when the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor, whereupon he returned to Vernon and enlisted in the Air Force. Mr. Reed applied for cadet training, passed the examination and was accepted for service in March, 1942, but was not called until August of that year.

Just before reporting for duty, Mr. Reed was married to Tommie Jacobs, of Sulligent, March 27, 1942. They have two children: Phillipa, 11, a seventh grader; and Gregory, 8, a second grader.

Mr. Reed was ordered to Santa Ana Army Air Base in California for his basic training. Developing an arthritic condition, he was transferred from cadet training and placed in the Air Force Hospital as a laboratory technician. On October 10, 1943, he received a medical discharge.

During the two years following his discharge, Mr. Reed was employed at various places as a laboratory technician, making use of the skills he had learned while in service. Not being satisfied with his progress and seeing the great strides the beauty culture field was making, he and Mrs. Reed enrolled in Reno's University of Beauty in Long Beach, Calif. They were both graduated in 1947.

Shortly before his graduation from Reno's University of Beauty, Mr. Reed won first place in competition sponsored by the Los Angeles-Hollywood Coiffure Guild and received a trophy for excellence in hair styling. He also holds first place awards won a number of years later at the Regal Andre Beauty Show at Birmingham and at the Mid-South Beauty Trade Show in Tennessee.

Later in 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Reed returned to Alabama and scouted several cities such as Birmingham, Gadsden, Anniston and Guntersville before deciding on Florence as the place in which to locate.

Immediately after this decision, they were employed by Karr's Beauty Salon on West Mobile Street until 1948, when Mr. Reed purchased the business and began its operation under the name of Ray's House of Beauty. He established Ray's University of Beauty in connection with the beauty salon in 1951, when he found the need for such a school. In January, 1959, he moved the salon and school to the Greater Alabama Building, 412 South Court Street, their present location.

In 1958, Mr. Reed purchased Nashville Beauty School which he now operates under the name of Nashville University of Beauty.

Land Bank

This will be a good opportunity for Federal Land Bank Association members to lend the financial affairs of their association, elect directors, and other interesting Farm Credit information for people of this area.

Several hundred dollars worth of door prizes are to be awarded at this meeting and free hot coffee and cold drinks are to be offered to all attending.

Shortly thereafter, he established Ray's House of Beauty in connection with the salon. In 1960, he purchased New Providence Beauty School at Clarksville, Tenn., and changed the name to Ray's University of Beauty.

Mr. Reed is a member of the Official Hair Fashion Committee of The National Hairdressers Association; was organizer and first president of Alabama Hairdressers Association, first president of Alabama Cosmetology Schools Association and is a member of National Association of Cosmetologists Schools. In 1955, 1956 and 1957, he was educational director for a nationally known manufacturer of beauty products and appeared as a guest artist in major cities throughout the United States.

Mr. Reed is a member of the Church of Christ and of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

In his spare time, of which he has little, he enjoys fishing during the summer months and in the winter, pheasant and quail hunting.

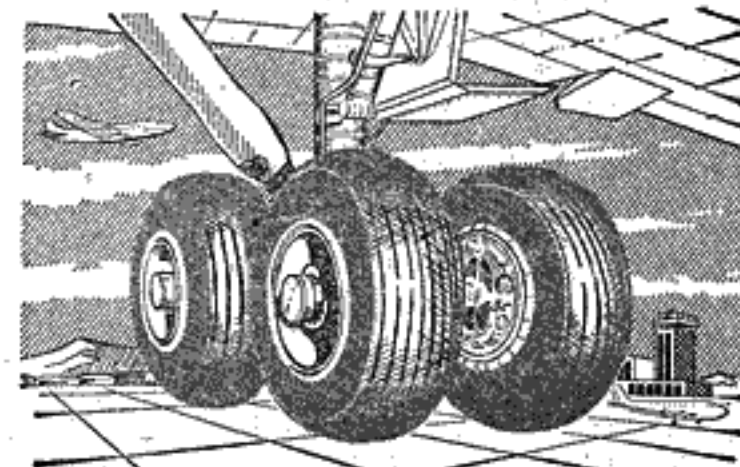

Ray Reed, today, is possibly the best known name in the beauty culture field. His hair styling sets a pattern for the rest of the industry to follow and his beauty schools attract the largest enrollments of any in the entire South. Especially is his University of Beauty in Florence held up as an example of the best in the industry. The graduates of this school, records show, are in demand throughout the nation.

Stem rust which attacked wheat came from barberry bushes imported by early American colonists. The fungus was first mentioned in 1726.

Gatlin-Sides Vows Pledged Rogersville Methodist Church

Banked with greenery and decorated with arrangements of white and orchid-colored gladioli, the altar of Rogersville Methodist Church was lighted by myriad tapers for the wedding of Saturday evening, March eighteenth, when Barbara Lynn Gatlin became the bride of Billy Don Sides. The Reverend William W. Hitt, minister of the church, officiated in the seven o'clock ceremony and appropriate music was presented by Janie Baggett and Raymond Davis.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Goodwin and the late Horace Gatlin of Rogersville and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sides of Athens.

Mr. Goodwin gave his stepdaughter in marriage. Her floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and taffeta was designed with a close-fitting bodice and full-gathered skirt and distinguishing features were the mandarin collar, long pointed sleeves and appliques of lace re-embroidered with sequins and pearls complementing the skirt which extended to form a small train. Her veil of double illusion cascaded to fingertip length from a headpiece of matching lace and her bouquet, carried with her Bible, was of feathered carnations showered with lilies of the valley and centered with a white orchid. Mrs. Cecil Hudson was her sister's honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Ella Ree White, Miss Judy Slaton, Miss Dianne Patterson and Mrs. Neil Shuller, sister of the bridegroom. Their frocks of organza and taffeta, worn with veiled headpieces, continued the wedding's lavender color theme, as did their chrysanthemum bouquets.

Patty Linville and Danny Ray Goodwin served as flower girl and ringbearer, respectively.

The bridegroom was attended by Billy Lovell as best man and by Cecil Hudson, Gerald Lovell, Bobby and Jimmy Sides as ushers.

Mrs. Goodwin chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of white lace over blue taffeta and Mrs. Sides, mother of the bridegroom, was in silk organza and taffeta. Each wore a cymbidium orchid at her shoulder.

Assisting at the reception which immediately followed the ceremony were Miss Brenda Smith, Miss Gene Davis, Mrs. Genevieve Bedingfield and Mrs. Fay Bedingfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Sides have returned from a brief wedding trip and are now at home in Rogersville.

Miss Linda Bohnstedt Bride Of Thomas Joseph Van Sandt

Family members and close family friends were present at half past four o'clock on Thursday afternoon, March sixteenth, when Linda Ann Bohnstedt and Thomas Joseph Van Sandt exchanged vows in Our Redeemer Lutheran Church, Florence, with the Reverend Martin Buerger, minister, reading the half past four o'clock service following a nuptial prelude by Mrs. E. T. Tonn, organist, and Mrs. Buerger, vocal soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert John Bohnstedt of 403 Wildwood Avenue, Florence, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Van Sandt of 702 Olive Street, Florence.

Mr. Bohnstedt gave his daughter in marriage before an altar arranged with vases and standards of white gladioli against a background of Oregon huckleberry, leather leaf fern and Southern smilax. Her wedding gown of organza over bridal taffeta featured a rounding neckline outlined by appliques of hand-clipped Alencon lace re-embroidered with sequins and pearls, short sleeves and a floor-length skirt with butterfly pouff at the back. Her veil of silk illusion was caught to a jeweled crown and she carried a cascade of Bride's roses.

Mrs. Robert Charles Bohnstedt, sister-in-law of the bride, was her honor attendant and Miss Marjorie Bohnstedt, her sister, served as junior maid. They wore pale pink street-length frocks of silk organza over taffeta, as did bridesmaids Miss Janet Price and Miss Ann Huffman. Short sleeves and soft pleated skirts detailed their dresses, worn with tiny veiled headpieces embellished with pearls and complemented by their bouquets of shaded pink pompons.

Mrs. Bohnstedt chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of blue lace, matching accessories and a white gladioli corsage. Mrs. Van Sandt, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in mauve French silk and she, too, wore matching accessories and white gladioli.

Leaving later for their honeymoon, the bride was wearing a jacket dress of periwinkle blue, small matching hat, black patent accessories and a corsage of bouquet blossoms.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts following the rehearsal of plans on Wednesday evening, entertaining members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests at The Town Club.

Spring-time arrangements of white and yellow blossoms decorated the club rooms and centered the lace-covered party table where tall white tapers lighted the festive scene. Mrs. Charles Porter, aunt of the bridegroom, assisted with the courtesies.

For the occasion, Miss Bohnstedt wore a pink faille sheath with matching accessories.

Arriving for the nuptial event were Mrs. Clyde Baker of Indianapolis; Mrs. C. T. Hallier and daughter, Connie, of Pittsboro, Ind.; Mrs. Charles Porter and daughter, Lee, of Jackson, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Sandt, Chattanooga; Mr. and Mrs. Urban Quinby, Jasper; Mr. and Mrs. John Ed Willoughby, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Sam McClendon, Moulton.

Miss Carolyn Mae Daniel To Wed John Solomon, Jr.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Larimore Daniel, 618 Sannover Avenue, Florence, of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Mae, to John Wesley Solomon, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon of 2544 Gulf of Mexico Drive, Sarasota, Florida.

The bride-elect, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. England and of A. R. Daniel and the late Mrs. Daniel, all of Florence; attended Florence State College.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Florida where he was a member of Delta Tau Delta social fraternity and of Sigma Tau and Tau Beta Pi honorary scholastic fraternities. He is the grandson of Mrs. John W. Solomon of Eufaula and the late Mr. Solomon.

The wedding will be an event of May twentieth.

Miss Le Nita Jo Chandler Affianced To Glen Holden

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Chandler, Jr., of Greenville have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Le Nita Jo, to Glen Holden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holden of Florence.

Shiloh Church of Christ is to be the scene of the June nuptial vows.

Miss Dorothy Ann Vessell To Be Early June Bride

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vessell, 1112 Bluff Street, Florence, of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Ann, to Albert Nathan Rickard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rickard of Tusculum.

The wedding will take place on Friday, June second.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Mark Golden Wedding Anniversary

At the Campbell family home near Rogersville to which Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell repaired following their marriage vows in March of 1911, the bride and groom of fifty years ago reminisced with relatives and groups of longtime friends on Sunday afternoon, the nineteenth, when they celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary with "Open House."

Golden-hued bouquets of roses and gladioli filled vases throughout the rooms where the hosts received informally, joined for the occasion by "their children," Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trousdale (Mary Lee Campbell), Mr. and Mrs. Nalan Campbell of Center Star, and Dr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell of Florence.

Also present were the hosts' sisters and brothers and in-laws including Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Grisham, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grisham, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Thornton and John Campbell, all of Rogersville; Mrs. Alex White of Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Grisham of Leoma, Tenn.; and Dr. and Mrs. William Slaton of Florence. Regrettably absent was Frank Slaton of Nashville.

Covered with a cloth of lace, the candlelight refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of yellow gladioli, mums and hyacinths with a tiered and decorated "wedding cake" at one end and the punch service at the other.

To greet the hundred or more well-wishers who called, the hostess wore blue lace with a corsage of white carnations be-ribboned in gold at her shoulder.

Hours were from three 'til five.

Birthday Dinner On 19th Honors Anderson Resident

Friends and family members came from far and near to be present on Sunday, March 19th, to celebrate with A. E. ("Lige") Owens who was marking his eighty-third milestone at his home in Anderson.

Provided by providence was the warm sunshine of a near-perfect Spring day, making possible the "al fresco" setting decided upon for the bounteous dinner spread where about ninety guests were feasted.

Exchanging experiences of the past and present and "a lot of catching-up on everything" continued long past the dinner hour for groups gathered for the occasion from states as nearby as Tennessee and as far away as Indiana. Congratulations and gifts accompanied by birthday wishes were heaped upon the honor guests.

C., for a brief visit with longtime friends, Mr. and Mrs. Unland Redd. Mrs. Dowe's Alabama trek was occasioned by the arrival of a new granddaughter, little Allison Dowe.

THE SPILLWAY

"The flowers that bloom in the spring,
Tra-la,
Breathe promise of merry sunshine."

AND WHEN Nanki-Po sang this little ditty, we hope she was talking about Florence, Alabama... 'cause it seems to us that the rains have out-weighted the sunshine of late! But maybe we shouldn't complain when everything LOOKS so pretty. Have you driven past Russell Hightower's home on Lelia Street to see the lovely fruit trees in bloom, along with the forsythia and tulips? And for tulips combined with white candy-tuft, drive by Ralph Roberts' home on West Tuscaloosa... also worthy of note is the blooming and rolling lawn around Fulton Huff's home on Jackson Road, and around Frank White's home on Hickory Avenue. We're just glad that we joined the "parade" of nature-loving sightseers this past Sunday.

"ISN'T IT A SMALL WORLD?" must've been the first remark of the John Carters and the B. J. Daileys this past week, when they met in Ocean Springs where they'd both gone for a short vacation. Neighbors here at home, they just didn't expect to meet so far from the home base. And the Dude Ranch where they were visiting must've been pretty much enlivened by Jeff, Tom and Mike Carter and Jesse Dailey.

HAPPY TO SEE such a nice family living in the attractive John Gordon home on Oakview Circle. Hear that Tom and Lorena Frith with their three small-ry are all settled and receiving callers now... while John is also comfortably (and attractively) settled in his apartment which is a recently finished addition to the home of daughter-Irene and John Hutchinson on Arnold Circle.

TRAVELIN' AGAIN will be Sue and Wilder Watts, who're now planning a three month tour of Europe. We're wondering if there're any places "over there" where they've NOT been, or if this trip will be made up of return visits... ALSO hear that Catherine Norton plans a trip over this summer—especially to visit son-Larry, along with Judy and the little Nortons, in Heidelberg.

MEANWHILE, most of the traveling from here still goes Florida-bound. Latest on the list is Geraldine Fouts, who has gone down for some sunny days... Just back are Gilman and Mary Frances Doss who brought home a fascinating collection of shells.

BEGINNING YOUNG, and so cute... the newest social club we know of is the Knitting Club, the membership comprises a charming group of fourth graders who meet once a week to wield the needles and catch up on the latest news... numbered among them are Corinne Rogers, Sara Smith, Nancy Stewart Celestine Mitchell, and Cruse Nolan.

NICE TO SEE Olan Anderson

over from Decatur for the week-end... and we know his visit must have cheered Mama-Mabel, who's to be confined to her hospital bed for a while due to a recent fall. Our wishes for a speedy recovery.

RUMORS OF ROMANCE—Can't tell names AND tales, but know you'd be interested if we could... she's well-known for her beauty, and he's well-known for his professional prominence.

ON THE AVENUE—both making pretty white sights... the Charles Poellnitz family in a Thunderbird, and Bill Slaton in a becoming model.

JUST HEARD an interesting story about "Preacher Bing" Summerell. Seems that when he was in Scotland last summer, he and his family obtained visitors' tickets to the celebration on the day that Queen Elizabeth visited there. Thinking that this day was only a pleasant memory to him now, he was recently surprised to receive in the mail a picture of himself standing near the queen. The photographer while "snapping" the queen, happened to get a picture of "Bing" also, and upon seeing the finished picture this photographer took the trouble to refer to the list of visitors who'd registered for the celebration and sent the picture to the subject. International friendship in action!

CANTERING ALONG LOCAL bridge paths on Sunday afternoon... and looking very stunning in their chic riding habits... were Edna and Henry Lamar and a group of their across-the-river cronies... the Dr. Trapps and Julian Olim... Conspicuous by her absence was (Julian's other half) Marge Olim who just DOESN'T like horses... but who put in her charming appearance to sup with the equestrians and chit-chat during the evening at the Lamar Camp at Bailey Springs (too bad Edna's new-and-becoming red bonnet is not a part of her equestrienne attire...)

GO FLY A KITE might have been the urge that took five young (?) fathers and one grandfather plus sons and grandsons Saturday to the playing field back of Florence Junior High where they took advantage of the favorable winds to fly kites... the young grandfather, Julian Wade also gives out the info that daughter Peggy and her mate, Dean Cruse soon will go to Saudi Arabia where he will instruct in the missile school... he's now at Redstone...

WE'RE THRILLED over rumors of two weddings that will unite two couples... who have been seeing much of each other in recent months... and who might be considered elderly but not by their actions...

HOPE TO SEE YOU up at Rogers Hall sometime this weekend at the three-day Art Festival, which is being sponsored by the Kilby PTA in cooperation with the college Art Department. We predict that this is to be something out-of-the-ordinary, and that it's the kind of thing we should all support, as well as enjoy.

UNTIL MORE NEWS COMES THROUGH THE SPILLWAY, IT'S GOODBYE FOR NOW!

Highland Baptist Damaged By Fire

The Highland Baptist Church of Florence was damaged considerably Sunday, when fire ravaged four classrooms, an audio-visual room and equipment.

Reverend L. E. Kelley, pastor, said the fire started on the second story of the new educational building just behind the auditorium in the young married couples department and was discovered at 7 o'clock in the morning, however, definite cause of the fire was not determined.

All of the classroom walls were burned out and also the wall connecting the choir room with that department; smoke damaged church offices and the auditorium. The main building was not harmed. Reverend Kelly stated the entire building would have to be redecorated.

Alabama Wire Company and the Florence Jaycees combined their efforts Thursday night to make a large group of needy children happy when they furnished tickets, program.

55 children to attend the Grand Ole Opry show at the Florence coliseum. Grady Gaunt and John Waddell were chairmen for the event, one of several projects in the Jaycees program.

Some Fish Like To Live At Home

Here's a good fishing tip which the veteran angler knows, but which has now been proved by research. "If you lose a whopper bass, try for him again later in the same area," says Earl Kennamer, Auburn Extension Service fish and wildlife specialist.

In a recent study, biologists captured and marked green sunfish and bass in one corner of a pond. The fish were then released in other areas of the pond, and 9 of 10 green sunfish and 7 of 10 bass swam back to the very spot where they had been captured.

In another study, the same general procedure was followed using smallmouth black bass captured from stream pools, Kennamer says. Sixty per cent of the tagged bass returned to the spot of capture. More probably would have returned home if low water levels had not created shallows through which they could not swim, the specialist adds.

The South has about 8 million sports fishermen.

IT'S SURE GOING TO COST A LOT IN CASE ANYONE ASKS US TO GET MARRIED!

I WAS JUST THINKING...

...MAYBE WE BETTER TURN DOWN A COUPLE OF FELLOWS FOR AWHILE!

Come to Church for Services

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

LIGHT AMONG THE SHADOWS

There is a deep gloom that sometimes enshrouds the human soul. It comes silently, and usually without warning. Like an evening fog it seems to rise out of the marshes and imprison us in its chill tentacles.

Men call it by many names. To one it is UNCERTAINTY. To another, WORRY. To the most harassed, FEAR.

But always it hides the brightness in life... and makes us feel the surrounding shadows.

There is a gleam of faith that is capable of penetrating the gloom. It seems to leap time and space to unite the soul with God. Men call it PRAYER.

And whether in the quiet of meditation, or in the thrilling unison of a congregation at worship, it pierces life's shadows. It lights our next step!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

DURING THESE DAYS OF THE RACE TO SPACE we often hear people lamenting that the United States lags behind the Soviet Union. Others say we're ahead. Well, I'm not an expert on space but there's one field in which I know we're ahead and that's in telephone service. There are 133,600,000 telephones in the world. We here in the United States have 70,821,000 or 53% of them while the Soviet Union has only 4,023,000 or 3% of the total. This figures out 39.51 telephones per 100 persons in the U.S. and only 1.9 telephones per 100 persons in the U.S.S.R. We not only have the most, we have the best! There's certainly no TELEPHONE LAG!!

CHUCKLE, ANYONE? Thought you'd get a kick out of this little story I ran across the other day. A little boy called the operator every five minutes and asked the same question, "Please, Operator, what time is it?" Something about the boy's voice told the operator this was no childish prank. Finally she asked him to call his mother to the phone. "She can't come," he said. "My little sister swallowed a button this morning and my mother had to take her to the hospital. And she told me not to dare leave the house till twenty after eight. I looked and looked and honest, Operator, I don't see any twenty on that clock. And I'm afraid I'll miss my school bus." Happy ending is that the operator called the little boy at 8:20 and he met his bus.

BARGAIN HUNTING? Who isn't! Remember you get extra bargains on Long Distance calls after 6 p.m. weekdays and all day Sunday. So, enjoy the pleasure often of a telephone visit with friends or family out of town and call during bargain rate time.
