Teen-Agers Need Help

It is not uncommon for an adolescent to rebel against family imposed restrictions and prohibitions. They want "freedom" and for them freedom means release from the need to conform to what they consider the burdensome demands of home and school.

One can generalize about teen-agers but one must come to certain conclusions nevertheless. One is that teen-agers are eager to be noticed and approved by young people of their own age and by those a little older. They often distrust adults and are confused about how they should act with members of the opposite sex.

The adult must realize that the average teen-ager will not accept force nor does he need force. He needs understanding and reassurance. First they need help in clarifying their roles and their aspirations. This is particularly true with respect to schooling. Parents should realize that they are doing a great disservice to their offspring by pushing them into something they are sometimes totally unfitted for. Many parents take the attitude that John must become a doctor because his father and grandfather were doctors. John may think altogether differently and indeed his talents may lie in another direction.

Parents must first realize that each adolescent is an individual and as such is entitled to an individual's right to think and act for himself as long as he is reasonable in his demands. When he is unreasonable then parents should be not only firm but should give him the reason why they cannot give in to his demands. Usually a man-to-man talk will do the trick. The teen-ager is made to feel that his request is at least important enough for a conference even if he loses. Every teen-ager needs to know that he fits into a family group where he is accepted for what he is and where there are others who have confidence in his ability to think and act for himself.

Our Aid To Education

Under the government's new aid-to-education program shortly to get under way, prospective students in the nation's colleges will be able to borrow up to $1000 a year for a total of $5000. The college will decide how much. Repayment is due to begin a year after he finishes his higher education and he will have ten years to repay with time out if he enters the Armed Forces.

Those who become teachers, points out Changing Times, can get portions of the loan canceled and the entire loan is canceled if the borrower dies or becomes permanently disabled. It is described as the biggest piece of legislation affecting education in decades. Unlike many loans this one is open to freshmen.

Any and all college students are eligible provided they are in good standing and in need of the loan. Preference will go to top students who are headed for teaching, science, math, engineering and foreign languages.

Graduate fellowships will be available for students who plan teaching careers in colleges and universities. Since there are not too many of these fellowships the competition will be keen . . . 1000 the first year and 1500 each of the succeeding three years. The stipend will be $2000 the first year, $2200 the second year and $2400 the third plus $400 per year for each dependent.

Teachers going into counseling in established institutions of learning for work in high school will be eligible to receive $75 a week plus $15 for each dependent during attendance. A few of these institutes will likely be in operation by next June. Improvement in guidance should mean that many more talented youngsters will be able to make the most of their abilities. Statewide tests will also be set up to determine outstanding aptitudes.

Vocational schools are not left out either since these will also get help for research in the use of television and other such tools for education, it was stated.

Briefly this is the substance of the new education program undertaken in this country to give the youth of America an education second to none in the entire world.

Given the will to implement such a program to the fullest we need have no fear of being outstripped by Russia or any other nation on earth.

First Germans Graduated At Missile School

The first German military men to get formal training in missiles since the end of World War II were graduated today at the U. S. Army Ordnance Guided Missile School, Huntsville.

In a colorful international ceremony, 110 officers and airmen of the newly reconstituted German Air Force received diplomas from Col. H. S. Newhall, commandant of the Missile School and heard an address by Brig. Gen. Wolf D. von Scheinitz, military attache of the German Embassy in Washington.

The event took place in an auditorium on the famous Redstone Arsenal where Dr. Werner von Braun and more than 100 former German rocket scientists have developed the free world's first earth satellites and a number of missiles now in use by the U. S. armed forces. En route to the auditorium, the guests passed a huge V-2 rocket that stands in front of the Missile School headquarters. It is a replica of the original weapon developed in Germany during the closing stages of World War II.

The German students have been in training for more than a year in the maintenance and use of the Nike - Ajax and Nike - Hercules anti-aircraft missiles under mutual defense provisions of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. They will now be formed into tactical ordnance units and con-

Graduation of the first German Luftwaffe group brings to eight the number of allied nations whose pioneer missile classes have been trained at the "Space Academy" here.

Family Members Present For Simpson-Bodiford Vows

A small guest company composed of family members and a few close friends were present for the exchange of marital vows between Mrs. Sallie Sewell Bodiford of Montgomery, and Robert Tennant Simpson, associate justice of the Supreme Court of Alabama, formerly of Florence and now also of Montgomery. The ceremony took place in First Presbyterian Church in Florence at four o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, December twenty-eighth. Dr. D. W. Hollingsworth, pastor emeritus, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nell Hugh Sewell of Atlanta and Montgomery.

Mr. Justice Simpson is the son of Mrs. Robert Tennant Simpson, II, of Florence and the late Judge Simpson, and the paternal grandson of Justice R. T. Simpson, I.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Major and Mrs. Hugh Bodiford, Mr. and Mrs. James O. Busby, Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald Gallion, Governor and Mrs. James E. Folsom, Miss Dorothy Wilson and Fitzhugh Bodiford, all of Montgomery, Colonel and Mrs. George H. Sewell of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Daniel, Dr. and Mrs. William Simpson, Dr. and Mrs. John McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker, all of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tillery, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Russell and Knox McRae of Decatur.

Immediately after the ceremony

Judge Simpson entertained their wedding guests at The Town Club.

Pink arrangements decorated the club rooms and the refreshment table was centered with a low bowl of Spring blossoms. Mrs. Gallion and Mrs. Bodiford assisted with the courtesies.

Proceeding the wedding hour, Mrs. Harry Simpson and Mrs. Wyatt Simpson honored the bridal couple with a buffet luncheon at the home of the former, 807 Sherrod Avenue, including out-of-town relatives in their invitation list.

Covered with a white Madeira cloth, the serving table was appointed with silver and centered with an arrangement of King Alfred jonquils and hyacinths. White tapers burned in branched candelabra to complete the setting. Guests numbered twenty-eight.

Rozas-Bergob Vows In St. Joseph Church

The altar of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Florence, was decorated with arrangements of poinsettias and Christmas greenery for the nine o'clock nuptial mass on Saturday morning, December twenty-seventh, when Mary Frances Bergob became the bride of Eugene Andre Rozas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Andre Rozas of Cotnam, Louisiana.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergob of Florence.

Father Paul Koehler, O.S.B., read the vows and heard their pledges, and Sister Mary Vincent and the Nuns' choir presented nuptial selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white Chantilly lace fashioned over bridal taffeta and designed with moulded bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves which tapered to points over the wrists. The skirt was floor-length and very full and her only ornament was a diamond-studded locket, a gift from the bridegroom.

Her veil of silk illusion cascaded from a Juliet cap of lace encrusted with seed pearls and her bouquet was a white orchid encircled with lilies of the valley and showered with lovers' knots of satin streamers and stephanotis.

Miss Dot Brink, Florence, the bride's only attendant, wore antique crystalette over taffeta detailed with fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and brief sleeves. A lace bandeau and a nosegay of white carnations completed her attire.

Paul Rozas of Lafayette, Louisiana, was best man for his brother and ushers were Ken Rozas, also a brother of Lafayette, and Arnold Bergob, brother of the bride, of Florence.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride's parents were reception hosts at their home on Button Avenue. Minature mums and greenery garlanded the tiered wedding cake which centered the bride's table where Mrs. Annie Brink presided. White tapers burned in crystal holders to light the setting.

Before leaving for a honeymoon in New Orleans, Mrs. Rozas changed to a fur-collared black tweed suit with which she wore a white fur hat and black accessories. At her shoulder she pinned the orchid from her bouquet.

After January first the bride and groom will be at home in Fremont, Texas, where Mr. Rozas is assistant superintendent in a chemical plant.

Christopher Edward Eckl Takes Rhode Island Bride

Of interest in Florence and throughout a wide surrounding area is the marriage of Elizabeth Frances Doyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Aloysius Doyle of Providence, Rhode Island, and Christopher Edward Eckl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Eckl of Florence.

Marital pledges were exchanged in a nuptial mass at nine o'clock on Saturday morning, December twenty-seventh, in Holy Name Church of Providence, the Rt. Reverend Monsignor Joseph P. Gibbons officiating before an altar decorated with arrangements of poinsettias against a background of greenery.

Musical selections were by Miss Kathleen McCann, vocalist, and Mrs. Cecile Richard, organist. The papal blessing was bestowed upon the couple.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her gown of bouffant taffeta was distinguished by a fitted bodice with low, rounded neckline bordered with Alencon lace reembroidered in pearls. A back-panel of the exact design complemented the floor-length, cloud-full skirt which extended into a chapel train.

The Juliet cap which held her fingertip veil of silk illusion was a Zuchetta which had been worn and blessed by the late Holy Father Pius XII, and her bouquet was fashioned of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Joanna K. Doyle of Providence served her sister as maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Miss Madge Doyle, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Barcliff Eckl of Florence, sister of the bridegroom. Their identical frocks of red velvet were fashioned along Empire lines with narrow satin cummerbunds tied into bows at the back. Long streamers fell to the skirt hemlines. Their head-dresses were crowns of red velvet leaves and their flowers were sprays of red carnations pinned atop their white velvet muffs.

Lt. (jg) Lawrence Kevin O'Connor of North Providence, Rhode Island, served Mr. Eckl as best man and ushers included William Wray Eckl of Florence, brother of the bridegroom, and Joseph Douglas

A reception in the Garden Room of the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, Providence, followed the ceremony as Mr. and Mrs. Doyle honored the bridal couple. Christmas evergreens were used in the decorative theme and orchestral music was a background accompaniment.

Leaving later for their honeymoon in the South, Mrs. Eckl was wearing a cerise jacket-trock and hat of winter white with accessories of black suede.

They will be at home in Huntsville in early January.

Attending from Florence in addition to the bridegroom's sister and brother were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Eckl.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Coleman are leaving today for Birmingham where they will make their home.

Simmons Home Scene Festive Open House

A pink and gold fairyland greeted guests who called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simmons, Jr., in Hickory Hills when they entertained on the evening of December twenty-third with a pre-Christmas open house.

Pink tapers glowed from branched candelabra and pink poinsettias and arrangements of gilded foliage decorated the party rooms. The silver-appointed refreshment table was overlaid with pink satin caught into poufs at the corners and held by clusters of pink grapes tied with tulle bows. Suspended above the table was the centerpiece fashioned from ropes of golden beads and glittering gold and pink baubles.

Assisting were Miss Ann Cromwell, Miss Dale Jackson, Miss Faye

Tirey, Mrs. G. T. Cochran, Jr., Mrs. W. E. Dodson and Mrs. R. L. Simmons, Sr.

Party hours were eight 'til ten and guests numbered more than one hundred fifty.

IT'S OUR LUCKY day . . . The following has been contributed by one who signs only initials . . . TIME . . .

WHAT A WONDERFUL time is the Christmas Season . . . I seem to lose all sense of reason . . .

I do not care at all what I spend . . . I do not care what close friends send . . . I only want to dance and sing . . . And "cut the buck" and "pigeon wing" . . .

THAT was yesterday . . . Today I met a man with a long white beard . . . Not a bad face . . . but eyes that leered . . .

He tapped me roughly on the arm . . . Then said he really meant no harm . . . I do not trust that man myself . . .

Things were soon missing from my shelf . . . He is a robber . . . Where is the joy I stored away . . . Enough to last for many a day . . . Who took the freshness from the rain . . .

And why did he hand me a walking cane . . . Whence came these furrows on my face . . . And what has become of my early grace . . .

"I am FATHER TIME . . ." he said . . . "Henceforth . . . I think you'll know me well . . . You'd best make friends with me and fall . . . All those you know I'll see them . . . too . . . For TIME is fleeting . . . My words are true . . ."

—B. S. R.
(A HAPPY NEW YEAR and our biggest much o'blige for these TIMELY words . . . dear B. S. R.)

A BACKWARD LOOK
Most delightful idea for Christmas gifting is . . . one which will be seen and enjoyed during the years ahead . . . Eight pink dogwood trees . . . complete with a man to "dig the hole" . . . were happily received by eight lucky Florentines . . . The "giftor" was thoughtful (Doctor) Wyatt Simpson . . . And (continuing to look back) the most adorable Christmas costume we glimpsed was an all-white blouse and skirt outfit . . . Tiny decorated Christmas trees marched in bright green-and-red array on the softly-flared flannel skirt worn at holiday gatherings by lovely seven-year-old Rachel Fraser . . . daughter of Jean and (Doctor) Earl of 428 Beverly Avenue . . . (Continuing to continue) . . . "Twas a happy Christmastime for Billie Penney . . . who "en famille" has come from Corinth to make her home in our midst . . . and who gathered about her for the first time in seven years her entire family group . . . A joyous and much-fun time is reported . . .

THE FORWARD LOOK is a bleak one . . . Leaving today for Birmingham . . . and leaving a void in Florence . . . are Cissie and Norman Coleman who expect to henceforth be Magic Citizens . . . Civic and social organizations will suffer . . . as will we . . . and as of the present we can only say . . . PLEASE come a-visitin' SOON . . . and OFTEN . . .

AT LONG LAST we learn why 'tis that we've been out-of-touch with Lois Henderson . . . (Central Heights . . . Florence) . . . She's been sunnin' and swimmin' and holdin' down a job as librarian in the city schools of Miami . . . Florida . . . She and (hubby) Ellis . . . home for the holidays . . . report great enjoyment of their current interlude . . .

A DID-JA-KNOW we happened on . . . concerns (Judge) John Petrie who has been appointed a member of the Federal Mediation and Conciliatory Council by the National Relations Board in Washington . . . If our listening ear serves us well . . . he's the MAN with THE GAVEL in the Southeastern States and he's already in harness and a veteran of a pre-Christmas meeting . . . As for us . . . we're doin' a bit of button bustin' . . . and bet you're doin the same . . .

WELCOME HOME to voyagers Hallie and Lannes Foy and Lucille and Henry Bradshaw . . . who arrived in New York on Saturday and in Florence on Tuesday . . . It looks to us like our day . . . Neptune and Poseidon (depending upon whether you lean to the Greek or the Roman) ca'med those waves in just about perfect fashion . . . And we're ready any ole time to be an even more perfect sounding board . . .

ORCHIDS TO ANNA and Louis Rosenbaum as they gather their family about them Saturday evening at The Town Club to celebrate their forty-ninth wedding anniversary . . . Congrats . . . many of 'em from the madam . . . AND NOW . . . CHEERIO and goodby . . . until more news comes through The Spillway . . .

"Holiday in Heaven"
Nemon Formal Theme
An archway of gardenias and greenery was the setting through which Nemon Club officers and members stepped on Monday evening, December 22, to be met by their dates at the annual Christmas formal in the Sheffield Naval Reserve Center.

An overhead of fluffy white clouds against a black star-studded backdrop carried out the "Holiday in Heaven" theme of the dance.

Sissy Johnson, president, escorted by Walter Murphy, was first to be presented and other officers were Beth McDowell with Will Bendall, Marilyn McClure with Dan Alexander, Anelda White with Philip Helton, Bonnie Carr with Sam Mitchell, Barbara Godfrey with Jimmy Barnwell.

Other members and dates were Alice Coleman and Keith Wilcoxson, Dee Cunningham and Newt Pitts, Gail Gilbert and Frazier Hollis, Mary Brown Hassell and Jimmy Olive, Dianne Johnson and Murray Holley, Carol Patton and George Ezell, Anita Rea and Johnny Doolittle, Susan Smith and Jerry Danley.

Peggy Bosley and Duck Clanton, Cheryl Duke and Jimmy Smith, Ginny Gilbert and Charles Brown, Anne Gilchrist and Terry Smith, Rosemary Harris and Tuddy Brown, Linda Huffman and David Tanner, Susan Jeter and Billy Brown, Harriet King and Jimmy Blythe, Mary Jane Price and Billy Howard, Betty Barton Pride and Dan Gilchrist, Ann Pritchard and Terry Haddock, Diana Rice and Scott Patterson, Becky Robbins and Jim Blair, Mary Louise Robinson and Guy Springer, Linda Thomas and Carl Luckey, Joli Van Sandt and Billy Broadfoot.

Anelda White and Beth McDowell entertained at an intermission party and, after the dance, Diana Rice was hostess at her Oakland home to a spend-the-night party.

Rev. Mrs. Ebaugh
Have Christmas Party
The lights of a gayly decorated Christmas tree twinkled a welcome to guests arriving at the home of the Reverend and Mrs. John L. Ebaugh, 1977 Holiday Drive, on Tuesday afternoon, December twenty-third, when they entertained with open house.

Evergreen foliage and poinsettias fashioned the party setting and red and white candy canes were tied with red ribbon bows to further the holiday theme.

The refreshment table was overlaid with white Irish linen and centered with an arrangement of poinsettias. Branched candelabra held burning green tapers to complete the silver-appointed setting.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Ebaugh with the courtesies were Mrs.

Richard Smith, Mrs. Mose Ingram, Miss Mary Jane Price, Miss Bitsy Kingsley, Miss Jo Butler, Mrs. Lester Norvell, Sr., Miss Ginger Turner, Miss Marilyn McClure, Mrs. William Jetton, Mrs. Philip Salet, Miss Sheryl Duke and Miss Elizabeth Douglas.

Party hours were between four and seven o'clock and guests numbered about five hundred.

Mrs. Roland Brooks, with Mr. Brooks and their daughter, Miss Ruth Brooks, visited during the Yuletide with her mother and sister, Mrs. J. S. Cromwell, Sr., and Miss Ruth Cromwell, 422 N. Cedar.

Doster Home Scene Christmas Open House

Red carnations and poinsettias fashioned the flowering background at the L. S. Doster home on North Wood Avenue when Mr. and Mrs. Doster, following established custom, entertained with open house on Christmas evening.

Overlaid with a green cloth, the silver-appointed refreshment table was centered with a grouping of red tapers, and glossy-leaved evergreens, bunched together and tied with a bow of red satin ribbon, were suspended from the chandelier. Silver bells were caught with red ribbon bows at intervals around the table edge to complete the setting.

Assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Basil Horsfield, Jr., Frederick Horsfield, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Brannon, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mairston, Miss Lynn Hairston, Mrs. W. G. Hairston of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carr, Miss Bonnie Zehner, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ward, Miss Martha Ward, Mr. and Mrs. John McSwain, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Wilks, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McCoy, Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Redd, Robert Redd, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Floyd, Steve Brown and the hosts, Steve Doster.

About three hundred guests called during the seven 'til ten party hours.

Richardson Home Scene
Christmas Family-Party
A family holiday celebration at the home of Mrs. H. T. Richardson in Waterloo took place on Christmas evening between the hours of 7:30 and 9:30 in a setting colorful with the decorations of the season.

A white crocheted cloth over gold covered the refreshment table and the centerpiece was an all-white arrangement in the holiday motif.

Jack Reynolds and Richard Reynolds, grandson and great grandson of the hostess, distributed the gifts which were exchanged.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Smythe Richardson, Mrs. Clarence Richardson, Mrs. Clyde Robertson, Mrs. Jeff Emerson and Mrs. Dumont Moore.

Thirty family members were present.
Habitual worry simply puts the highlight on the tail-end.

Come to Church for Services

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

A New Year... A New Way

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and regular support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What will you be doing when the clock strikes twelve on New Year's Eve? Celebrating? Celebrating what? The death of the old year and the birth of the new?
Why? Didn't the year past measure up to your expectations? Are you glad to be rid of it? If so—what makes you think next year is going to be any better?
Only you can lay the foundation for a better future—with God's help! If you are to be a better person, if next year is to be a better year, you must include God in your planning.
Here is the opportunity of a New Year! Let us go to the House of the Lord! Let us give thanks to Him for what has been and ask His blessing upon what is to be.
What more perfect beginning could there be to any year?

BANK OF LEXINGTON RESOURCES INCREASED

Charles P. McMeans, president of the Bank of Lexington, announced Wednesday that the institution showed a substantial increase in resources over the preceding year, the total shown at the close of business December 31, 1958 being $2,582,617.64 as compared to the total of $2,184,179.57 shown at the close of business December 31, 1957.

The healthy growth of this splendid county bank reflects not only its good management but the faith and confidence of its many patrons as well.

Agricultural Reminders

By L. T. WAGNON
County Agent

A lot of questions are being asked about what the near future holds for beef cattle. Of course, nobody knows the answers to any such question, but those who study the trends are in a good position to discuss them and give people a better idea as to what the future may bring.

Beef cattle ranks next to cotton in gross income in Lauderdale County. Approximately 1,200 producers sold $1,345,500 worth of cattle at local sales in 1958. Low prices a few years ago and good prices the past two years have brought about such a good weeding out of the boys from the men and the culls from the herds that the county now has much better quality cattle. These good prices caused such a culling job that producers and others estimate that we have at least 1,000 fewer head of beef cattle than we had a year ago. This should make it possible for producers to increase the number of cattle in 1959 and also make a profit, provided prices remain stable.

Two problems confront beef cattle producers in Lauderdale County. One is inferior quality bulls and the other is a shortage of year-round, quality grazing on too many farms. These problems can be corrected among all who are interested in staying in the cattle business and making money. Good bulls can replace poor quality bulls at once. A little planning and some hard work can correct the pasture situation in less than a year on farms.

We at the county agents office suggest several goals for producers to strive for that have been proven in the field and feel will help to assist with their breeding, feeding, management and marketing.

ing of beef cattle, those being:

1. To increase acreage and quality of feed and grazing crops;
2. To improve the quality of cattle through better breeding, feeding, and management;
3. To increase number and improve quality of brood cows as rapidly as feed and grazing programs can be worked out;
4. To control breeding to secure fall calves;
5. To use big type bulls;
6. To cull poor milkers and slow breeders.

We have set up several events in 1959 for the benefit of the beef cattle producers in the county, the first of these being a meeting in the auditorium of the Municipal Building, Florence, Wednesday, January 7, 1959 from 9:30 a. m. to noon. The above and other beef cattle points will be discussed by members of the county agent's office staff and W. H. (Mutt) Gregory, beef specialist from Auburn, under the direction of L. T. Wagon.

Everyone in Lauderdale County who is now engaged in beef cattle production in any way and those who are interested in getting into the program in the future are invited to attend this meeting.

Editors Note: This is the first of a series of articles from the county agent's office that will appear in the paper weekly. The next article to appear will be on Poultry by Herman Marks, assistant county agent.

STATE OF ALABAMA
LAUDERDALE COUNTY
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, IN EQUITY
Case No. 4109

J. D. HAMILTON,
Complainant,
vs.
JOHN E. WESSON, et als,
Respondents.

LEGAL NOTICE
TO: JOHN E. WESSON, if living, and his unknown heirs or devisees if deceased, and any and all persons claiming any title to, interest, lien, or encumbrance on the hereinafter described land or any part thereof:

NOTICE is hereby given that in the Circuit Court, in Equity, of Lauderdale County, Alabama, there is pending a verified bill of complaint filed on December 15, 1958, by J. D. Hamilton, complainant, against the following described land:

All that part of the Northeast 1/4 of the Southeast 1/4 of Section 7, Township 2, Range 11 West, which lies South and West of the Cloverdale Road in Lauderdale County, Alabama, and against John E. Wesson, if living, and his unknown heirs or devisees if deceased, and all persons claiming any title to, interest, lien, or encumbrance on the above described land or any part thereof.

Said complaint alleges that complainant, J. D. Hamilton, is the owner of the above described land and is in actual, peaceable, and adverse possession thereof; that no person other than the complainant has paid any taxes on said land during ten years next preceding the filing of said bill of complaint, and that said bill of complaint was filed to establish complainant's right and fee simple title to said land and to clear up all doubts or disputes and any cloud on the title of the above described land.

It further appears from said bill of complaint that complainant and his predecessors of title have claimed to own and have been in the actual, peaceable, and adverse possession of said land for more than forty (40) years next preceding the filing of the bill of complaint. That complainant purchased said land from Claud W. Darby and wife, Eva Bell Darby, by warranty deed dated on August 31, 1946, it being understood by complainant from representations of the said grantors, as well as complainant's predecessors of title, that complainant had purchased and was the owner of all the land in the North 1/2 of the Southeast 1/4 of said Section 7, which lies South and West of the Cloverdale Road in Lauderdale County, Alabama. Said bill of complaint alleges that complainant's predecessors of title for more than forty (40) years next preceding the filing of said complaint claimed to own and were in the actual, peaceable, and adverse possession of said land for and during such period of time.

Said bill of complaint further alleges that the deed records in the Probate Office of Lauderdale County, Alabama, show ownership of said land for a period of time in respondent, John E. Wesson, by conveyance dated May 20, 1904, (Deed Book 66 page 475). That on December 7, 1905, John E. Wesson conveyed said land to H. T. Morrison (Deed Book 70 page 529), who on January 29, 1906, conveyed a lesser number of acres than the said Northeast 1/4 of the Southeast 1/4 of Enma Baskirk (Deed Book 74, Page 74) with additional language in the description as follows: "said lands include all the East 1/2 of the Southeast 1/4 of Section 7, Township 2, Range 11 West, which lie north and east of the Rawhide or Cloverdale Road in Lauderdale County." Finally, complainant alleges that said John E. Wesson executed an affidavit

Corner on Cotton

BY BOB COLLINS

A lot of things must be decided by the CCC before the new cotton crop of Choice "A" and "B" starts to move. "A" cotton must be supported at 80% of parity, cataloged and offered for sale at 110% of "B" support and the law says the CCC must "own" it before it's resold. . . what'll this mean to the cotton buyer? . . . especially the country buyers and ginners who traditionally buy much of the cotton passing through their gins. . . taxpayers would have a sizeable saving, we're sure, if the present marketing system were utilized by the CCC. . . officials of the CCC seem to agree. . . but it does present problems. . . however, since the current marketing system was developed by stiff competition over many years and moves cotton to manufacturer at an unbelievably low cost, it's an excellent bet that the government won't be able to devise a system that's any better. . . or half as good. . . as both farmer and taxpayer you better hope the present marketing system will be retained.

The Agriculture Department says the farmer will have the highest income in history by the time the new year rolls in. . . if the figures are right (and we'll get some argument here) the annual per capita income of farmers will top $1000.

A couple of editors we know have completed polls among farmers as to how much Choice "A" and "B" cotton will be planted next year. . . results of one showed, roughly, 95% favored "A" and 65% favored "B". . . other poll indicated, roughly, 65% favored "A" and 35% favored "B". . . this information helped us make up our mind on the question: You just can't tell.

appearing of record in said Probate Office (Book 128 page 270) which stated that the land owned by him and in said Section 7 was the land "lying north and east of the Cloverdale Road." And that while complainant has alleged that he believes the said John E. Wesson never claimed any ownership, right, or interest in the said land against which this suit is brought, that the above mentioned conveyances showing ownership in the name of respondent, John E. Wesson, constitutes a cloud upon complainant's title, and the above named John E. Wesson, if living, and unknown persons are alleged or reputed to claim some right, title, interest in, lien or encumbrance upon said land.

Therefore, the above named respondents, and any and all other persons claiming any title to, interest in, lien, or encumbrance upon said land or any part thereof are hereby given notice to appear in said cause and set out their title to, claim, interest in, lien, or encumbrance upon said land or any part thereof, and show how and by what instrument the same is derived or created, and plead, answer or demur to said bill of complaint on or before the 17th day of February, 1959, so that said claims may be properly adjudicated by the Court, so as to clear up all doubts or disputes concerning the title to said land or otherwise a decree pro confesso may be taken against such respondents, and each of them, and said cause shall be submitted for final decree as provided by law and in accordance with Sections 1109-1132, Title 7, Code of Alabama, 1940, as amended.

This 16th day of December, 1958.

New Grader

A leading cotton merchant is trying out an electronic cotton grader. . . anyone can operate it with five minutes instruction. . . you just offer it a sample of cotton. . . the machine looks at it and prints the result within 10 seconds. . . tells you everything you need to know except staple. . . however, don't look for one in your neighborhood any time soon. . . it's still experimental. . . but it is the shadow of things to come. . . mass use could be another step in reducing cost of cotton to the manufacturer.

Better Off?
