We Can Survive If We Will

This is the time of year when many well-intentioned resolutions are made . . . and soon broken. Usually, if we analyze them we find they are selfish, personal resolutions that we didn't intend keeping in the first place.

But there are some resolutions we should make . . . and keep. One is a larger resolution . . . one that transcends personal feelings or gain because it concerns things outside of our own little world. It is this . . . let us resolve to do everything in our power to develop our youth and in our citizenry those essential qualities of integrity, industry, thrift and morality, so that we may be worthy of our heritage. Without these we cannot survive as a free nation.

We cannot have good faith in other peoples of the world unless we exhibit good faith at home, both in our public and private lives. We cannot command respect of others unless we first respect them.

Not enough of us are thrilled today by the courage and vision of our founding fathers. We read the Declaration of Independence and the subsequent Constitution of these United States but do we recognize them as the greatest heritage ever bequeathed a people? Not enough of us do.

The weakening of the moral standards of our nation is alarming. Jails are filled everywhere with youthful law-breakers, many of them confirmed criminals. It makes us wonder if we are not unworthy of our heritage.

It is wishful thinking to imagine Russia and Red China breaking up because they are Communistic. In a police state it is not easy for the people to rise up against their masters.

President-elect Kennedy has asked some pertinent questions because no one knows better than he the tremendous task the nation is facing to forge ahead in this world of strife and at the same time maintain the peace. In his New Year's Message Mr. Kennedy asks . . . "Can a nation organized and governed like ours endure? That is the real question. Have we the nerve and the will? Can we carry through in an age where we will witness not only the break-throughs in weapons of destruction . . . but also a race for mastery of the sky and the rain, the ocean and tides, the far side of space and the inside of men's minds?"

"We and the Russians," Mr. Kennedy continues, "now have the power to destroy with one blow one-quarter of the earth's population . . . a feat not accomplished since Cain slew Abel."

"Can we meet this test of survival and still maintain our tradition of individual liberties and dissent? I think we can. It is the enduring faith of the American tradition that there is no real conflict between freedom and security . . . between liberty and abundance. Through centuries of crisis, the American tradition has demonstrated, on the contrary, that freedom is the ally of security . . . and that liberty is the architect of Divine Providence."

This we must never lose sight of.

TVA Report
outbound from Calvert City, Kentucky.
Federal costs of operating the waterway (TVA, Corps of Engineers, and Coast Guard) totaled about $4.5 million, leaving a net saving of $20.4 million for the year in the cost of transporting goods and materials in and out of the region by water.
Power Bond Financing
"Preparation for the sale of bonds was a major activity during the year involving a number of tasks new to a Federal resource development agency," the TVA Board reported.
Congressional action early in fiscal year 1960 authorized TVA for the first time to obtain private capital through the sale of power bonds, up to a maximum of $750 million outstanding. The financing program is designed to provide a new source of non-government funds for expansion of power facilities needed to meet rapid increases in electric power consumption in the TVA region. The first bond issue, totaling $50 million, was sold November 15 in New York.
The TVA report showed the strong 1960 growth was influenced by an unusually severe winter increasing demands for electricity in house heating. The second influence was the addition of 28,000 residential customers, most of them living in electrically heated homes.

A major industrial plant to be located in the Muscle Shoals area is the Armour Agricultural Chemical Company's multi-million dollar plant in West Colbert County, to manufacture fertilizer components. Announcement by the plant management indicated it considered the location ideal for its purposes.
The large Weyerhaeuser plant to be built in Florence during 1961 is also another indication of the appeal the area has for a great diversification of industries due to its preponderance of raw materials, low cost power, river transportation, climate and other ad-

Group To Fight Mental Illness
Probate Judge Flynt To Represent County At State Meeting Friday
The State Group Against Mental Illness will hold its first full meeting in Tuscaloosa, Friday January 6. Probate Judge Estes R. Flynt, will represent Lauderdale County as Chairman of the County Group, it was announced. Representatives from several statewide groups will be in attendance.
It was announced that the purpose of the meeting is to determine plans and objectives which the State Group, along with many other citizen organizations, will urge that the Legislature consider for the support and improvement of the mental hospitals of the state. Chairman Charles Morgan Jr., Birmingham attorney, asserted that our three state mental institutions are caring for almost 9000 sick and disturbed citizens of Alabama, but that Alabama is doing less than any other state in the Union to provide a treatment program that will enable these sick people to recover their health and return to their communities.
The announcement by Morgan also stated that the State Group Against Mental Illness will not only consider what should be done but will attempt to find ways of securing the additional funds that will be needed, if progress is to be made in solving this tragic problem.
Better highways and improved communication systems, expanding educational facilities and a continuing progressive farm program in the area are foremost among many factors that assure a steady growth and a greater overall prosperity for 1961 and years to come.

In The Week's News

Dr. Tom Dooley Hospitalized
Dr. Tom Dooley, suffering a spine ailment, was reported in good condition Thursday at the Memorial Center for Cancer and Allied Diseases in New York. Dr. Dooley, 33, the American jungle doctor of Laos, was stricken with cancer in 1959, and had been described as cured after surgery, but recent tests in Hong Kong showed that he was suffering from a degeneration of the bone structure of the spine, not officially determined as cancerous.

Negroes Erect Tent City
A Negro tent city, which was two weeks old Friday, is acquiring a domestic, lived-in and perhaps even permanent look and racial tension in Fayette County is mounting because of it. Tent city is located in Somerville, Tennessee, and is the result of the Negroes' eviction by white farmers because they registered to vote. Nine Negro families live in the tents but the population may rise to 300 families when share-cropper leases expire the first of this year.

Maid of Cotton To Tour World
Linda Joy Lackey of Forest, Mississippi succeeded Sandra Lee Jennings of Riverside, California as the 1961 Maid of Cotton. Linda was chosen after 3 1/2 grueling hours of onstage judging, losing her composure only once which was when she was named. She was whisked to New York Friday to be outfitted in a specially created 43-piece cotton wardrobe which she'll wear on a world tour. Among her possessions were the keys to a new automobile which she'll pick up late in 1961.

SEATO Considers Armed Intervention
The United States called for an urgent meeting Sunday of the eight-nation SEATO council to consider the question of armed intervention by foreign Communist troops in Laos. The military position of pro-Western forces was endangered by intensified Communist attacks and was described as deteriorating. Laos, although not a member of SEATO may appeal for protection, and the treaty powers are bound to consider any attack on Laos the same as an attack on one of the member countries.

Belgian King Faces Strife
King Baudouin cut short his honeymoon in Spain and flew back to riot-ridden Brussels Thursday. He went into immediate conference with Premier Gaston Eyskens whose Catholic-Conservative government is threatened by spreading violence from nationwide Socialist strikes against the proposed austerity program brought on by material losses in the Congo. About 15,000 strikers rioted for hours, causing widespread damage in Brussels shortly before the 30-year-old monarch arrived.

Burglars Rifle Armored Truck
A key, combination, timetable and teamwork formed the ingredients for Florida's biggest burglary when $400,000 was stolen from an armored car service. The vault contained an estimated $1 million in cash and checks, but all of the sacks containing coins were left behind. Investigators agreed it was an inside job. It took the intruders only nine minutes to complete the theft.

Civil War Centennial Officially Begins Sunday

Late News
The long-planned Civil War Centennial Commemoration starts Sunday in Alabama.
By proclamation, Gov. John Patterson called on the churches of the state to "set the tone" of the Centennial at their morning services. The governor also asked the schools to join in the observance with special classes and programs next week.
The start of the commemoration in Alabama coincides with the official beginning of the Centennial observance throughout the nation. The commemoration will continue almost five years.
One of the first events of the Alabama observance will be a week-long series of pageants and programs marking the 100th anniversary of the arrival and inauguration of Jefferson Davis as first president of the Confederacy. Gov. Patterson has invited the governors of the 13 "Confederate states" to Montgomery for a re-enactment of this event, which is scheduled February 12-18.
Just 100 years ago this week, the Secession Convention of Alabama convened in Montgomery. All the important events of the war will be re-staged during the nation-wide commemoration program.
Since much of the military activity of both sides centered around the local area from Corinth to Florence, and continued without cessation from almost the beginning to the end of the great tragedy, commemorations are planned that include a pageant sometime in the early summer.
This pageant in its planning stage has been announced by Colbert County chairman Mrs. Earl Holder of Tusculumbia who states that it may be possible to present it on both sides of the river in order to secure the maximum attendance and to create a better understanding of the basic purposes of the Centennial.
"I call upon the people in every community of the state to actively support the Centennial commemoration to the end that Alabama's great story in the war may be adequately told and the state may have a conspicuous place among its sister States in the Centennial observance," Gov. Patterson said. He is chairman of the Alabama Civil War Centennial Commission.
The commission was established by the 1959 Legislature to point up the leading role played by Alabama in the Civil War. Executive director is Dean A. B. Moore of Tuscaloosa.

Personality Sketches

By ANN MATHIAS

JOHN M. BENNETT

"Yes, I have seen a lot during the many years I served as a patrolman on the Florence Police force. Of course, there's a lot of things I can't remember but I recall many incidents that might best be left unsaid, at least in print," John M. Bennett, longtime police officer said when asked to give a resume of his service to the city.

"I've seen Florence grow from a small town to a pretty good size city and during all this time the problems of the police force have grown also. We had, what we thought, was a good police force but the quality of the personnel as well as equipment has grown steadily until few cities can boast of a better police department," the retired officer added.

A personality whose face and figure is familiar to a great many Florentines, now lives in retirement in his modest home at the corner of Royal Avenue and Mobile Street. Former policeman John M. Bennett is that personality, who though past his 80th birthday, is a hale and hearty bachelor with an optimistic outlook on life and a firm and abiding faith in his fellowman.

Born on September 24, 1880 at Summertown, Tenn., John Bennett is the son of the late Martha Hale and William Bennett, both natives of Tennessee. His boyhood was spent in Summertown and Iron City where he lived and at-

Growth Shown In Savings Bond Sales In State

Lauderdale County sales in November totaled $58,573 bringing the county's sales to date this year to $652,708 or 123% of the year's goal of $529,000.
State Chairman Thad Holt announced today that Alabama's Series E and H Savings Bonds sales through November total $40,415,778, or 85.6% of the 1960 goal of $47,200,000.
National sales for the first eleven months of 1960 amount to $4,002,000,000 or 81% of the 1960 goal.
"November marked the tenth consecutive month in which the Savings Bond Program has shown growth," William Neal, National Director of the Treasury's Savings Bonds Division said. "We are especially encouraged by the continued downward trend in redemptions, a major factor contributing to this sustained growth. For the first 11 months of this year, our sales are up by $59 million and our redemptions down by $431 million."
Explaining their so-called democracy, Mr. Brock discussed the government of Laos by a few noted that there is only 20 per cent literacy in the country and no middle class. The rich or ruling class controls all while the remaining inhabitants are just peasants. The speaker warned that the "brush fire" now raging in Laos is just a part of the pattern now claiming world attention in Cuba, Africa, South America and other points on the globe.

Dr. Hoyt Brock Is Exchange Speaker

Dr. Hoyt Brock, head of the education department of Florence State College, was the guest speaker at the Exchange Club meeting at Hotel Reeder Tuesday noon. Dr. Harry Brown was in charge of the program and presented the speaker.
Dr. Brock, who has spent many years in the Indo-China area of southeastern Asia, gave interesting highlights and background material that made for better understanding the trouble now brewing in Laos. He told of the creation of the countries of Laos and her neighbors by the horde that moved in to the area through China many centuries ago and explained the religious impact of Buddhism on the people.

Miss Peggy Joyce Thigpen Bride Of James Edward Owen
 Against a background etched with greenery, the candlelighted altar of First Baptist Church of Lexington was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums for the evening ceremony of Thursday, December twenty-second, when Peggy Joyce Thigpen and James Edward Owen exchanged nuptial pledges.

Assisting at the reception which immediately followed the ceremony was Miss Mary Hutson of Nashville, a faculty member (as the bride) at Dix Lipscomb Elementary School in that city. Also among the out-of-town guests were the bride's parents, and Danny Sessler of Memphis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isis Thigpen of Lexington and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Elgin Owen of Town Creek and the late Mr. Owen.

The Reverend Grady King, grandfather of the bride, officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin with a rounded neckline and long, tapering sleeves detailing its molded bodice and scalloped edging the bouffant overskirt of lace.

Miss Tipton, MrWatkins
 Say Vows In Church Setting
 In an evening ceremony in Central Baptist Church, Mary Jean Tipton became bride of Franklin D. Watkins on Friday, December thirty-first, when the Reverend M. L. Butler, minister of the church, reading half past seven o'clock service.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Tipton and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Watkins, all of Florence.

Mrs. Alton Ledlow served her sister as matron of honor and other attendants included Mrs. Carl King of Florence; Miss Kaye Phillips of Russellville; and Deborah King of Moulton, flower girl. Mrs. Ledlow's frock of blue broadcloth taffeta worn with a matching net-trimmed hat and she carried pink lilies; Miss Phillips and Mrs. King wore identically styled dresses in pink and their flowers white carnations.

The wedding feast was served in an altar setting with English ivy against an ivy-etched background flanked by standards of fern and tiefl burning tapers. A great arrangement of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and a chrysalis setting.

Mr. Owen of Muscle Shoals brother of the bridegroom, best man; usher-groomsmen were Herschel Owen of Athens, Cecil Owen of Decatur, Alton Ledlow and Carl King of Florence, James Davis and Marshall Owen.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in the Assembly Room at the church Mrs. Thigpen chose a gown of champagne lace with which she wore black accessories and a corsage of white carnations; Mrs. Owen, mother of the bridegroom, was in pink lace with matching accessories and she, too, wore white carnations.

Nuptial selections were presented by Mrs. Bert Gilmore, organist, and James Butler, vocal soloist.

Mr. Tipton presented his daughter and gave her a gown of lace over tulle with a voluminous floor-length skirt, and distinguished by its high neckline finished with ruche of lace, long sleeves tapered to hand points, and a small bodice. Her veil of triple illusion cascaded to fingertip length from the top of her head and she carried pink lilies.

Her attendants were, Miss Brenda Ann Owen, maid of honor, and Missia Dean Richey and Miss Wadichols, bridesmaids. With cheeks of pastel lilac lace feather necklines scooped at the base of the plump, three-quarter length and straight skirts, they cascaded of pink Fuji mums Lee Scott and Denise Cav, serving as flower girls, wore pink taffeta with full, litted overskirts of matching tulle, and carried baskets with pink flowers.

Mrs. Owen will complete this semester at Florence State College where she is now a student and after late this month the couple will be at home in Decatur.

Cloverdale Road Home
 Scene Lassen-Dowdy Vows
 Only family members and close family friends were present for the wedding ceremony of Thursday, December twenty-second, when Miss Gretchen Lassen of Roanoke, Texas, and Charles Dowdy of Florence exchanged nuptial pledges in the home of the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cecil Murphy of 105 Irons Drive, Cloverdale Road, with Mark Hicks of Birmingham officiating.

The bride was dressed in white with a small hat of gold metal cloth and matching accessories. She carried a white orchid bouquet.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lassen of Roanoke and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Turner Dowdy, Cloverdale Road, Florence.

Dr. Mrs. Jackson
 Honor Houseguests
 Festoons of greenery above doorway and windows and fireplace mantel, started with twinkling lights, decorated the white-paneled rooms of Florence Country Club for the recent holiday season and brightly-colored hurricane lamps on small tables lent an Old-French-Quarter atmosphere in the large dining hall.

It was in this festive setting that Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Jackson welcomed dinner guests on last Thursday evening when they entertained in honor of Mrs. Jackson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Imhoff of Detroit, Mich., who arrived a few days before Christmas and, as houseguests of the Jacksons have been feted with numerous holiday galas.

Served from a bounteous smorgasbord, aglow with tall red tapers which nestled in glossy evergreen foliage, guests were seated in congenial groups round "cave" tables. More than a hundred invitations were extended.

Mrs. George Mehas and children have arrived from Hamilton, O., for a visit with her mother, Mrs. C. H. Keenum, Kendrick St.

Past Year Shows Progress Made In Florence, County

Area On The Move As 1961 Ushered In; Note Of Optimism Prevails

Taken as a whole 1960 was a good year for Florence and Lauderdale County. It is true there were disappointments during the past year but there was also progress and it is on that optimistic note that some of the more important events of the year on the local scene are recalled.

What is most important perhaps is the fact that both town and county were able to overcome the crisis of proration and operate both school systems for nine-month terms. It is sincerely hoped that the new year will see the end of this vexing problem.

JANUARY 14—The approval of Hill-Burton Funds in the amount of $82,000 to be used in the construction of a 15-bed addition to Mitchell - Hollingsworth Annex with $20,500 to be furnished by the state and $20,500 in local funds was announced. The eventual structure will house 60-beds.

JANUARY 21—Rogersville Elementary School destroyed by fire. Twenty-year old building represented $100,000 loss partially covered by insurance. (Replaced in 1960 by modern new school.)

MARCH 3—Kreisman's Ladies Store gutted by fire that threatened entire block of a dozen stores.

Mangel's store also damaged. (Both rebuilt during the year with approved structural changes.)

APRIL 21—$275,000 approved for Florence Housing Authority's Urban Renewal program which affects some 12 acres in the ECM hospital and Burrell-Slater School area.

APRIL 14—Contract let for construction of FSC dormitories and Student Union building at an estimated cost of $1,244,715. Construction well underway at the end of 1960.

News Of GRAS Y

By Mrs. Agnes Williams

There will be services at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the second Sunday of January at the eleven o'clock hour. Rev. J. A. Johnston will be the speaker. Everyone is welcome to hear him.

People who were here visiting during the holidays and have returned to their homes were: Mr. and Mrs. Donald White and baby of Roseville, New Mexico and Mr. and Mrs. Reese Jenkins and family of Cleveland, Ohio, who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Osborn White.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert White and Mrs. Helen Tobin and daughters of Everett, Washington, have returned to their home after being here for a few weeks visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McGovern of Philadelphia, Miss., were here visiting in the home of Newt Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Reeder Walker during the holidays. They have returned to their home.

THE SPILLWAY

The "holidaying" we've had We'd like to extend . . . But, "into each life Some rain must descend!"

A FACT WHICH IS WITH US, whether we like it or not . . . The "rain" for some means saying goodbye to relatives and friends who came for the holidays . . . or having the son or daughter depart for college with mid-term exams facing them (which could get a little stormy) . . . and though some mamas have said that they are happy over the fact, many small-try are lamenting the return to the school room.

AND EVEN IN THE MIDST of the holiday celebratin', there were a few dark clouds . . . Adele Luna was rushing a little too hard to attend to some of her many holiday activities and received broken ribs from her kitchen stove . . .

Eloise Jackson, here with Douglas from Montgomery for a Christmas visit with Nell and Tommy Reeder had to fight-it-out with a virus before she could join in the fun . . . Little Mr. Cliff Coldiron was just a bit too rambunctious and ended up at the doctor's having stitches in his chin . . .

Laura Ann Reeder received a pony from Santa, much to the delight of that Palisades Drive neighborhood, only to have it break through the fence and depart (but it was found, we understand) . . . Camille, cute teen-age daughter of (Dr.) Lester and June Norvell thought her long anticipated trip by plane to visit Helen and Henry Clay was going to have to be called off because of the weather, but with clearer skies did get to go. Helen and Henry, formerly of South Cedar Street now live in Shreveport, we're told.

AND ONE CLOUD noticed by many of us this Christmas was the absence of (Col.) Bill Calhoun, who is stationed with our State Department in Laos. We were so glad to hear Annie say that she expects him home this spring and we know he'll have plenty of interesting experiences to tell of his stay in Laos.

CONGRATULATIONS TO James Lawrence and (ex-model-and-very-beautiful) Betty Goyer, who have a baby daughter to go along with their three sons! Seems that they are now making their home in Charlotte, North Carolina . . . and here's a cordial "invite" to them to bring that new daughter down and introduce her to her many Florence friends!

MUSIC HATH CHARMS . . . and especially when the musician is charming . . . Pauline Nicholson had just about all the guests joining in on the choruses out at the club last week . . . at the very lovely party given by Marguerite and Al Jackson honoring Gertie and Bill Imhoff . . . where the remarks were that Gertie had never looked prettier.

CARDS FROM THE CARIBBEAN AREA signed by Carolyn and Lawrence (Buller) May, of Montgomery made our mouth water as we drooled over the descriptions of Jamaica . . . Panama City . . . Puerto Rico . . . Trinidad and points East and West . . . and all right in the Holiday season, too.

OF ROMANCE I SING . . . but we understand it's still hush-hush enough for us to hafta' keep you a little on the guessing side . . . but we can tell you that it concerns an attractive brunette . . . a successful business woman . . . AND an also-successful manager of affairs . . . both businesses on the main drag! Hope we can enlarge on this later!

SPEAKING OF THE MAIN DRAG . . . take yourself to another of our important thoroughfares and we promise you'll be surprised at something . . . Drive west on Tennessee Street and as you pass the Cinema Theatre you'll get a clear view of the new Burrell School out on College Street . . . (Of course we suggest that you drive on past this new and very beautiful building to really see it, and appreciate the fact that our city school system should make us feel proud.)

SMALL AND SELECT . . . would be the words to describe the FA WNCY luncheon given by Katherine Maples last week . . . The first two adjectives describe the guest list . . . but the third adjective describes the food, which included quail and pink champagne . . . how fancy can you get?

GLAD TO HEAR good reports, via Christmas cards received by their friends, from Betty Ann and Ralph Moore who lived on North Pine Street long enough for us to feel that they belonged to us . . . Montgomery's gain was our loss . . . And congratulations to "Bubba" and "Sister" on the arrival of their new little sister, Margaret.

UNTIL MORE NEWS COMES THROUGH THE SPILLWAY . . . GOODBYE FOR NOW . . .

Come to Church for Services

"A FAMILY THAT WORSHIPS TOGETHER — STAYS TOGETHER"

Yesterday is gone. We tear its page from our calendar, for we live in the present.

But often we look back with nostalgia to the many yesterdays which make up the past. In a different mood we plan for the uncertain days ahead, sometimes filling them with happy expectations, sometimes with anxious forebodings.

Where is God in this time pattern of our lives?

Is He in the past alone, incarnate two thousand years ago in the great Teacher of Nazareth? Or does He walk with us through the present, our Companion each day? Does He remove all fear from the future with His promise, the promise of the living Christ, "And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world?"

Come to Church and learn to know this Christ who is "the same yesterday, today, and forever."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

LT. EDWARD E. JONES

COMPLETES MISSILE COURSE

Army 2d Lt. Bert M. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Jones, Route 5, Florence, has completed the missile officer orientation course at The Air Defense School, Fort Bliss, Tex.

During the eight weeks of instruction, Lieutenant Jones was trained in the duties and responsibilities of a missile officer.

The Air Defense School, the largest military school in the nation, trains personnel to man and maintain the guided missile systems employed in the air defense of the U.S., with our armies overseas, and by our allies of the NATO and SEATO nations.

Jones is a 1956 graduate of Coffee High School and a 1960 graduate of Florence State College.

Financing a College Education

College trained men and women earn more money and enjoy a higher standard of living. Few families are able to meet college cost from current income. The practical approach is to plan a long-range savings program.

A BANK savings account is the best place to accumulate an educational fund. You receive interest which swells the fund. The money is safe, insured, and available when needed. And you get helpfulness with educational and other financial matters.

Holiday Parties: On Tuesday evening Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Myers and their daughters, Ruth Ann and Yvonne, entertained at their home for the young people of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Holiday decorations made the home attractive for games and novel contests. Refreshments were served the group. An annual event at the Dr. J. R. Waddell home is a new Year's Eve party for the young people of the Cumberland church. In spite of rain and illness the occasion was as gala as ever this year with multicolored balloons, noise makers, paper hats and other favors serving as decorations. The refreshment table, overlaid with white, was centered with a gift bouquet of multicolored carnations. Colorful holiday cups surrounded the punch bowl. The Waddells were assisted in entertaining by two of their daughters, Dorothy, (Mrs. Leonard Leach) who with her husband and four sons of Gadsden have been guests in the Waddell home since Tuesday, and Cathlene, who arrived by plane from Falls Church, Virginia, on Wednesday. All over town there have been small dinner parties, callers and bowling parties which have filled the holidays with pleasant activity for college students, relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Hogan and their three children of Moulton visited friends in Rogersville on Tuesday. Mr. Hogan was Band Director in the high school several years ago. Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Shawn and their children were guests of Dr. Shawn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shawn, in Owensboro, Ky., during the holidays. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitman last week was their daughter, Mrs. Bernice Tompkins, of Birmingham. Other guests in the Dr. J. R. Waddell home during the holidays were Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Waddell, Jr., of Athens and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cobbs and Richard of Blackstone, Va., who were all present for their father's birthday on the 29th which is always quite an occasion in the Waddell home. J. C. McKinney, who was injured in a freak accident several weeks ago, has been released from the hospital and is recuperating at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKinney. Rev. R. H. Myers, Ruth Ann Myers, Jimmie Sim and Jane Tucker of Rogersville and Gail Mason of Florence attended the Synodic Youth Convocation at the Forest Avenue Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Gadsden on Thursday. Guests of Mrs. Fannie Lentz during the holidays were Grover Lentz and son of Hartsville, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Milliken and children of Nashville and Mrs. Erfer Mason of Rolling Fork, Miss. One hundred seventy-four attended Sunday school at the Baptist Church Sunday with many others arriving for the preaching service. The pastor, Rev. T. A. Duke filled his pulpit at the regular time. One hundred seven were present for training union Sunday night. The church observed the Lord's Supper Sunday night with a candle light service. Rev. T. A. Duke and the young men of the brotherhood met at the church Monday night for their regular meeting. Fourteen members of the WMU met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Duke Monday night for their regular meeting. The program was given as outlined in Royal Service. A social hour was enjoyed by the group at the end of the meeting at which time delightful refreshments were served. Mrs. Hershel Sinyard was most pleasantly surprised Saturday night with a household shower at the Anderson School lunch room. Some thirty ladies were present. Mrs. Sinyard received a nice sum of money besides many useful and attractive gifts. Many household items were broken when they were taken from the house Christmas day when fire broke out in their apartment. Mr. and Mrs. Sinyard wish to take this means of thanking every one who helped them in any way, by their gifts and by helping to remove the furnishings from the home during the fire. Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kirkland of Michigan City, Ind. visited relatives here recently. Mrs. Doris Johnson and daughter Debbie visited relatives here last week. Visiting in the L. A. McConnell home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabb and Teena of Sheffield and Mr. and Mrs. Noah Cates and Donna Kaye of Cleveland, Ohio.
